The expression "month" means calendar month, except that the month of March shall be deemed to end on the 24th day of that month and the month of April shall be deemed to begin on the 25th day of March.

3. The mechanically-propelled vehicles to which this Order applies are mechanically-propelled vehicles chargeable with duty under the Finance Act, 1920, other than tramcars and vehicles on which a duty of five shillings is chargeable under that Act.

4. The periods of the year for which licences under the Finance Act, 1920,* in respect of mechanically-propelled vehicles to which this Order applies may be taken out shall be either the period of one calendar year, or any of such periods less than a year as are hereafter specified and the duties payable in respect of licences for periods less than a year shall be at the rates hereinafter specified; that is to say:—

(a) In the case of such mechanically-propelled vehicles other than cycles—

(i) A licence may be taken out for any period less than a year but greater than one quarterly period expiring on the 31st day of December in any year and the duty payable upon such licence shall be the total of an amount calculated at the rate of one-twelfth of the full annual rate of duty for each month or part of a month included in the period and a further amount calculated at the rate of five per cent. upon the amount so ascertained as aforesaid;

(ii) A licence may be taken out for any quarterly period on payment of twenty-seven and one-half per cent. of the full annual rate of duty; and

(iii) A licence may be taken out for any period less than a quarterly period expiring on the last day of any quarterly period, and the duty payable on such licence shall be if the licence be taken out for a greater period than two months be at the full quarterly rate of duty or if the licence is taken out for a period commencing on or after the first day of the second month of the quarterly period shall be two-thirds of the full quarterly rate of duty or if the licence is taken out for a period commencing on or after the first day of the third month of the quarterly period shall be one-third of the full quarterly rate of duty;

(b) In the case of cycles—

(i) A licence may be taken out for any quarterly period on payment of twenty-seven and one-half per cent. of the full annual rate of duty;

(ii) A licence may be taken out for a period including either two or three consecutive quarterly periods and expiring on the thirty-first day of December in any year and the duty payable shall be if the licence is taken out for a period commencing on or after the twenty-fifth day of March but before the 1st day of July be three times the full quarterly rate of duty, or shall be if the licence is taken out for a period commencing on or after the first day of July be twice the full quarterly rate of duty.

* 10-1 G. 5, c. 18. † 10-1 G. 5, c. 72.

‡ 12-3 G. 5, c. 17.

* 10-1 G. 5, c. 18.

5. The Road Vehicles (Part Year Licensing) Order, 1921 (S.R. & O., 1921, No. 1843), is revoked as from the date upon which this Order shall come into operation.

6. This Order shall come into operation on the first day of January 1925, and shall remain in force until rescinded or modified by the Minister of Transport.

Given under the Seal of the Minister of Transport this first day of November one thousand nine hundred and twenty-four.

Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland) Act,

GLASGOW BOUNDARIES.

NOTICE is hereby given that application is intended to be made to the Secretary for Scotland on or before the 17th day of December next by the Corporation of the City of Glasgow (in this Notice called the "Corporation" and "the City" respectively) for a Provisional Order (in this Notice called "the Order") to be confirmed by Parliament pursuant to the provisions of the Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland) Act 1899 for all or some of the following purposes (that is to say):—

1. To extend the boundary of the City by the incorporation therewith of the several areas in the Counties of Lanark Renfrew and Dunbarton including the districts known as Carmunnock, Clarkston, Giffnock, Thornliebank, Nitshill, Crookston, Cardonald, Scotstounhill, Yoker, Drumchapel, Bearsden, Lambhill, Bishopbriggs, Millerston, Stepps, Mount Vernon, Barrachnie and Carmyle or any of them and other areas (in this Notice called "the added area"), as is shown on the Map to be deposited as in this Notice mentioned.

2. To constitute the added area part of the City and to separate it from the Counties of Lanark, Renfrew and Dunbarton and to add it to the County of the City of Glasgow.

3. To provide that so much of the added area as is contained in the Counties of Renfrew and Dunbarton shall cease to be part of those counties and shall be added to the County of Lanark.

4. To apply to the added area the Acts and Orders Bye-Laws Rules and Regulations which are applicable to the City.

5. To annex the added area to the existing wards of the City or to constitute it new wards of the City.

6. To alter the constitution of the Corporation and to vary the number of the members thereof.

7. To make provisions with reference to the Valuation Roll and the application thereof to lands and heritages situated partly in two or more parishes within the extended City and partly within and partly outwith the extended City and the Register of Voters for the City and the added area, the qualification of electors, the procedure at elections and other matters connected therewith.

8. To modify the Temperance (Scotland) Act 1913 in its application to the added area and to the existing wards of the City or some of them.

9. To transfer to the Corporation the electricity supply undertakings of the County Councils of the Counties of Lanark Renfrew and Dunbarton in the added area.

10. To provide that any sewage works in the added area or in the City for the drainage of that area or any other area shall be transferred to the Corporation.

11. To transfer to the Corporation any special water lighting drainage and scavenging district or any part thereof wholly or partly in the added area.

12. To transfer to the Corporation the powers of the County Councils of the Counties of Lanark and Renfrew and the District Committees thereof, the Provost Magistrates and Councillors of the burgh of Paisley, and the Airdrie Coatbridge and District Water Board respectively to supply water in the added area.

13. To provide that any authority supplying water in the added area shall if the Corporation so require afford to the Corporation a supply of water in bulk.

14. To transfer to the Corporation the powers of the County Council of the County of Lanark and the District Committee of the Middle Ward of that county and the Provost Magistrates and Councillors of the Burghs of Paisley and Renfrew respectively to supply gas in the added area.

15. To alter amend or cancel any agreements between the Corporation and the County Councils of the Counties of Lanark Renfrew or Dunbarton and any district committees thereof relating to the supply of water and gas within or beyond the added area.

16. To make special provisions with respect to joint hospitals in the added area.

17. To make provision for the conduct of the Parish Council elections in the City and the added area, and to make applicable thereto with or without modification, the provisions of section 12 (Application of Local Government (Scotland) Act 1894) of the Glasgow Corporation (General Powers) Act 1896.

18. To constitute the City as extended by the Order one education area for the purposes of the Education (Scotland) Act, 1918, and to make provision for the transfer to the Education Authority for the City of the property and revenues of the education authorities in the added area and for the taking over by the Education Authority for the City of the teachers officers and servants.

19. To make provision for the education of children attending Schools in the added area.

To enact all such necessary powers and provisions as may be consequent on or required by the proposed extension.

And notice is hereby further given that a Map and also a duplicate thereof, showing as well the present boundaries of the City as the boundaries of the added area will, on or before the 29th day of November current, be deposited for public inspection with the Town Clerk of the City at his office in the City Chambers, Glasgow.

The Petition for the Order and printed copies thereof and of the draft Order, will be lodged at the Office of the Secretary for Scotland, Whitehall, London, S.W. 1, on or before the 17th day of December next and printed copies of the draft Order will be deposited on or before the same day in the Parliament Office, House of Lords, and the Private Bill Office, House of Commons.

On and after the 21st day of December next a copy of the Order may be inspected and copies obtained at the price of 5s each at the Offices of the undersigned Town Clerk and Parliamentary Agents.

The subsequent procedure on the application for the Order will be by way of Provisional Order, unless it is otherwise decided in terms of the Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland) Act 1899, in which case the procedure may be by way of private Bill, and this Notice and the deposits with reference to the said application will, subject to the Standing Orders of Parliament, apply to such Bill.

(The foregoing is a short Notice of the principal subject matters of the Order. The full Notice for the Order has been or will be published in the Glasgow Herald of the fourteenth and twenty-first days of November instant).

Ministry of Transport—
Session 1924.

PORT NAN LONG PIER PROVISIONAL ORDER.

(POWERS TO REGULATE VESSELS AND TRAFFIC; TO LEVY TOLLS, RATES, DUTIES AND CHARGES; TO CONSTITUTE A HARBOUR AUTHORITY; AND OTHER PURPOSES).

Notice is hereby given that application is intended to be made to the Ministry of Transport, pursuant to the provisions of the General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861, the General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861, Amendment Act, and the Ministry of Transport Act, 1919, by the Board of Agriculture for Scotland constituted by an Act passed in the First and Second years of the Reign of King George V. entitled the Small Landholders (Scotland) Act, 1911 (hereinafter called "the Board"), on or before the 23rd day of December next with and for all or some of the following among other powers and purposes, that is to say:—

To authorise the Board and their successors to levy tolls, rates, rents, duties and charges on vessels, boats and other craft arriving at, using or departing from the Pier and works or any part thereof situate at Port nan Long, Talisker, in the Parish of Bracadale, Island of Skye and County of Inverness, owned by them, and constructed by them with the consent of the Board of Trade, or vessels, boats and other craft coming within the limits of the Pier, or within such limits as may be defined in the Order, and on passengers, animals, fish, goods and other matter and things embarking or disembarking, shipped or unshipped, loaded or unloaded at the Pier and works, or within the limits aforesaid, and in respect of warehouses, sheds, cranes, and other conveniences connected with the Pier and works, and to make provision for the collection and regulation of the same, and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from such tolls, rates, rents, duties and charges, and to confer, vary and extinguish other rights and privileges.

To authorise the Board and their successors to borrow money for the purpose of the Pier, and other works, and of the Order, on the security of the rates, dues and charges authorised to be levied by the Order or any of them.

To provide for the maintenance, management and administration of the Pier and all matters relating thereto; to authorise the Board and their successors to lease the said tolls, rates, rents, dues, and charges or any of them, to make, alter and rescind byelaws, rules and regulations for the management, use and protection of the Pier and other works, and for the regulation and control of vessels, persons and traffic using, frequenting, resorting to, or employed about the Pier and other works, and within the limits prescribed by the Order, and to impose and recover penalties for the breach or non-observance of such byelaws, rules and regulations, and to appoint and remove piermasters, meters, weighers, and other officers and servants.

To define the limits within which the powers of such piermasters, meters, weighers, officers and servants may be exercised.

To constitute the Board and their successors the Harbour Authority for the Pier and the neighbourhood thereof, and to fix the limits of such authority, and to confer on the Board and their successors all the powers and privileges authorised by the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, and the Acts amending the same.

To incorporate with the Order all or some of the provisions of the Harbours, Docks and Pier Clauses Act, 1847, and the Harbours and Passing Tolls, &c. Act, 1861, and the Acts amending the same.

And Notice is hereby given that on or before the 30th day of November a copy of a Statement of the tolls, rates, rents, duties and charges proposed to be levied, and a copy of this Notice will be deposited for public inspection in the office of the Clerk of the Parliaments House of Lords, the Private Bill Office, House of Commons, the office at Inverness of the Sheriff Clerk for the County of Inverness, the Custom House of the Port of Inverness, and the office in London of the Ministry of Transport.

Every Company, corporation or person desirous of making any representation to the Ministry of Transport or of bringing before them any objection respecting the application, may do so by letter addressed to the Assistant Secretary, Ministry of Transport, Whitehall, London, S.W. 1, on or before the 15th day of January next, and a copy of their objection must at the same time be sent to the Secretary, Board of Agriculture for Scotland, York Buildings, Queen Street, Edinburgh.

Printed copies of the draft Provisional Order will be furnished by the undersigned at his office as undernoted, to all persons applying for the same on and after the 23rd day of December next, at the price of 1s. each.
