The KING has been pleased to give and grant unto the undermentioned officials of the Sudan Government His Majesty's Royal licence and authority to wear the Insignia of the Third Class of the Order of the Nile conferred upon them by His Majesty the King of Egypt, in recognition of valuable services rendered by them:—

Major Douglas Stoker Brownlie Thomson,
Reserve of Officers, Commandant of Police.
Ernest Nugent Corbyn, Esq., Governor of the Fung Province.
John Godfrey Matthew, Esq., O.B.E., Assistant Financial Secretary.
William Ralph Garneys Bond, Esq., Governor of the Dongola Province.

Whitehall, August 27, 1925.

The KING has been pleased, by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, bearing date the 24th instant, to appoint Charles Edward Malet de Carteret, Esq., to the office of Procurator-General of the Island of Jersey, in the room of Henry Edward le Vavasour dit Durell, Esq., deceased.

Whitehall, August 28, 1925.

The KING has been pleased, by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, each Patent bearing date the 6th ultimo, to confer the dignity of Knighthood upon the undermentioned gentlemen:—

Aaron Turner Danks, Esq.
The Honourable John Henry Hosking, K.C.
Joseph Clifton Love, Esq.
James Peiris, Esq.
George O'Donnell Walton, Esq., Chief Justice of the Island of Grenada.

Whitehall, August 14, 1925.

His Majesty The KING has been graciously pleased to award the Edward Medal to Mrs. Lilian Peyto, employed by Messrs. Holdsworth Bros., at White Hart Road, Plumstead, in the following circumstances:—

Mrs. Lilian Peyto is employed at the Factory of Messrs. Holdsworth Bros., at White Hart Road, Plumstead, where flock is manufactured. The flock is delivered from rag grinding machines and falls to the floor in heaps and is then packed by women into large sacks. On the 17th June 1925, a woman named Rose Wade was working at one of these machines, which was placed in a corner, and the woman was between the machine and the wall of the Factory. The flock which was being delivered from the machine suddenly caught fire and the fire spread immediately to the heap of flock which was being placed in the bag by Rose Wade. The woman's clothes, which were covered with small particles of flock, caught fire and there was fire all round the machine. Rose Wade tried to run out from behind the machine but stumbled and fell. Mrs. Peyto, who was working on the other side of the machine, rushed to her assistance, caught hold of her and tried to drag her clear. A heavy sack of waste material which was suspended behind the machine and which had itself caught fire fell down on the girl and forced Mrs. Peyto to leave go. She again, however, went to Rose Wade's assistance and this time was able to drag her out of the flames a good distance. All the other women working in the neighbourhood appear to have been too horror-stricken to render help and left the dangerous area as quickly as possible. After Mrs. Peyto had dragged the burning woman away from the fire, a foreman came up and covered her with sacks, but Rose Wade died as a result of her injury.

Mrs. Peyto's attempt at rescue was attended with grave risks, as Rose Wade was surrounded with flames and the clothing of Mrs. Peyto herself might easily have caught fire. Her second and successful attempt to get the woman clear after the burning bag of material had fallen on her showed special courage.
