TUESDAY, DECEMBER 8, 1925.

Whitehall, December 1, 1925.

The following Address has been received by the Secretary of State for the Home Department from the Civil Servants of the United Kingdom for presentation to The King, and has been presented to His Majesty accordingly:—

May it please Your Majesty

The Civil Servants of the Crown throughout the United Kingdom desire to tender to Your Majesty their profound sympathy in the loss which has befallen Your Majesty by the death of Her Majesty Queen Alexandra; and to pay their devoted homage to the graciousness and loving kindness which have endeared Her Majesty to every heart.

N. F. WARREN FISHER, on behalf of
Your Majesty's Civil Service.

To which Address the following gracious reply has been sent by His Majesty's command:—

Whitehall,
25th. November 1925.

Sir,

I have had the honour to lay before The King the Address of Condolence from the Civil Servants of the United Kingdom on the death of Her late Majesty Queen Alexandra. His Majesty is deeply touched by the feeling and affectionate terms in which the Address refers to His dear Mother, and He commands me to assure the Civil Servants of the Crown that

He is grateful for this expression of their sympathy, and appreciates the spirit of loyalty and devotion which prompted it.

I am,

Sir,

Your obedient Servant,

W. JOYNSON-HICKS.

Sir Warren Fisher, G.C.B.,
Secretary to the Treasury.

Scottish Office, Whitehall, S.W.1, 3rd December 1925.

The KING has been pleased, by Warrant under His Majesty's Royal Sign Manual, bearing date the 30th November, to direct a Commission to be passed under the Seal appointed to be kept and made use of in place of the Great Seal of Scotland, nominating and appointing Andrew Lewis, Esquire, to be His Majesty's Lieutenant of the County of the City of Aberdeen during his tenure of the office of Lord Provost of the said City.

Buckingham Palace,
1st December 1925.

Princess Victoria has been pleased to appoint Major Edward Seymour, D.S.O., M.V.O., O.B.E., to be Comptroller to Her Royal Highness.

TENDERS FOR TREASURY BILLS AND TREASURY BONDS.

1. The Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury hereby give notice that Tenders will be received at the Chief Cashier's Office, at the Bank of England, on Friday the 11th December 1925, at 1 o'clock, for

(a) Treasury Bills to be issued under the Treasury Bills Act, 1877, the National Debt Act, 1889, and the War Loan Acts, 1914-1919; and

(b) £4 per cent. Treasury Bonds, repayable at par on the 15th April 1933.

2. The maximum amount of Treasury Bills and Treasury Bonds to be issued will be £40,000,000. The amount of Treasury Bonds issued will not exceed £4,000,000, but subject to that limit the total amount issued will be divided between Bills and Bonds in such proportions as Their Lordships may determine.

TREASURY BILLS.

3. The Bills will be in amounts of £5000 or £10,000. They will be dated at the option of the Tenderer on any business day from Monday the 14th December 1925 to Saturday the 19th December 1925, inclusive, and will be payable at three months after date.

4. The Bills will be issued and paid at the Bank of England

5. Each tender must be for an amount not less than £50,000, and must specify the date on which the Bills required are to be dated, and the net amount per cent. (being an even multiple of one penny) which will be given for the amount applied for. Separate Tenders must be lodged for Bills of different dates.

4 PER CENT. TREASURY BONDS, 1933.

6. The Bonds will be in denominations of £50, £100, £200, £500, £1000 and £5000, and will, as indicated in the Notice of 2nd October 1925, rank pari passu with those issued under the Prospectus of the 23rd March 1923. They will be dated at the option of the Tenderer on any business day from Monday the 14th December 1925 to Saturday the 19th December 1925, inclusive; the first dividend, payable on the 15th April 1926, will represent in the case of each Bond interest to that date from the date of the Bond.

7. Each Tender must be for an amount not less than £50,000, and must specify the date on which the Bonds required are to be dated, and the net amount per cent. (being an even multiple of one shilling) which will be given for the amount applied for. Separate Tenders must be lodged for Bonds of different dates.

8. Tenders must be made through a London Banker, Discount House or Broker.

9. The persons whose Tenders are accepted will be informed of the same not later than the following day, and payment in full of the amounts of the accepted Tenders must be made to the Bank of England by means of Cash or a Banker's Draft on the Bank of England not later than 2 o'clock (Saturday 12 o'clock) on the day on which the relative Bills or Bonds are to be dated.

10. In virtue of the provisions of Section 1

(4) of the War Loan Act, 1919, Members of the House of Commons are not precluded from tendering for these Bills and Bonds.

11. Tenders must be made on the printed forms which may be obtained from the Chief Cashier's Office, Bank of England.

12. The Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury reserve the right of rejecting any Tenders.

ROAD VEHICLES.

THE MOTOR CARS (USE AND CONSTRUCTION)
AMENDMENT ORDER, 1925, DATED 1ST DE-CEMBER 1925, MADE BY THE MINISTER OF TRANSPORT.

To the County Councils of the several Administrative Counties in Great Britain;

To the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons
of the City of London in Common Council assembled;

To the Councils of the several County
Boroughs in England and Wales

To the Councils of the Royal Parliamentary and Police Burghs in Scotland concerned;

To the Councils of the several Metropolitan Boroughs;

To the Urban District Councils of the several Urban Districts in England and Wales;

To the Rural District Councils acting as the Highway Authorities in Rural Districts in England and Wales;

And to all others whom it may concern.

Whereas by Section 6 of the Locomotives on Highways Act, 1896 (59 & 60 Vict. c. 36), as amended by the Motor Car Act, 1903 (3 Edw. 7
c. 36), it is enacted that the Local Government Board may make regulations with respect to the use of motor cars on highways and their construction and the conditions under which they may be used.

And whereas by Section 10 of the Locomotives on Highways Act, 1896, it is enacted that in the application of that Act to Scotland a reference to the Secretary for Scotland shall be substituted for a reference to the Local Government Board.

And whereas by the Motor Cars (Use and Construction) Order, 1904 (S.R. & O. 1904,
No. 315), and the Motor Cars (Use and Construction) (Scotland) Order, 1904 (S.R. & O.
1904, No. 609/S. 3) the Local Government Board and the Secretary for Scotland respectively made regulations with respect to the use of Motor Cars on highways and the conditions under which they may be used.

And whereas the Orders mentioned in the Third Recital hereof have been amended from time to time and in particular by the Motor Cars (Use and Construction) Amendment Order, 1913 (S.R. & O. 1913, No. 444), and the Motor Cars (Use and Construction (Scotland) Order, 1913 (S.R. & O. 1913, No.
438/S. 27).

And whereas by the Ministry of Transport Act, 1919 (9 & 10 Geo. 5. c. 50), and the Ministry of Transport (Ministry of Health Exception of Powers) Order, 1919 (S.R. & O.
1919, No. 1441), and the Ministry of Transport (Secretary for Scotland Transfer and Exception of Powers) Order, 1920 (S.R. & O.
1920, No. 2122), the powers of the Ministry of Health as successors to the Local Government Board and the Secretary for Scotland respectively in relation to the subject matter of this Order were transferred to the Minister of Transport.

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers in that behalf vested in him the Minister of Transport hereby orders as follows:—

ARTICLE I.—The Motor Cars (Use and Construction) Amendment Order, 1913, and the Motor Cars (Use and Construction) (Scotland)
Order, 1913, are hereby revoked.

ARTICLE II.—Article II. of the Motor Cars
(Use and Construction Order, 1904, and Article
II. of the Motor Cars (Use and Construction) (Scotland) Order, 1904, shall respectively have effect as if they were added to Condition (4)
at the end thereof the following paragraph:—

“ Provided also that in the case of a Motor Car which is propelled by steam and which:—

- (a) exceeds two tons in weight unladen;
and
- (b) has one brake in good working order,
and of such efficiency that the application of that brake to the motor car shall cause two of its wheels on the same axle to be so held that the wheels shall be effectually prevented from revolving; and
- (c) is not used as a stage carriage or for the conveyance of passengers for gain
or hire—

the engine of that motor car shall be deemed to be the second independent brake required by this condition if—

- (i) in the case of a motor car constructed on or before the first day of January 1927 such engine be capable of being reversed, or
- (ii) in the case of a motor car constructed after the first day of January 1927
such engine be capable of being reversed and be incapable of being disconnected from the rear wheels of the motor car except by the sustained effort of the driver.”

ARTICLE III.—Article III. of the Motor Cars (Use and Construction) Order, 1904, and Article III. of the Motor Cars (Use and Construction) (Scotland) Order, 1904, shall respectively have effect—

- (i) as if there were added to Condition (2)
at the end thereof the following proviso.—

“ Provided that this Regulation shall not apply to any vehicle whose unladen weight does not exceed ten hundredweights when such vehicle is being drawn in connection with the construction, reconstruction, repair or maintenance of a road,” and

- (ii) as if there were added to Condition (3)
at the end thereof the following words:—

“ or where the vehicle drawn is by reason of construction, use or otherwise such that it is impracticable for a person to be carried thereon in accordance with this condition, if such vehicle is accompanied by a person walking alongside for the sole purpose of applying the brake when necessary, and if the speed of the motor car drawing such vehicle does not exceed three miles per hour.”

ARTICLE IV.—Nothing in this Order shall—

- (a) affect the operation prior to the date of this Order of the regulations made in the Motor Cars (Use and Construction) Order, 1904, and the Motor Cars (Use and Construction) (Scotland) Order, 1904, as respectively amended by subsequent Orders or anything duly done or suffered under those regulations or;

- (b) affect any right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired accrued or incurred under those regulations; or
- (c) affect any fine or punishment incurred in respect of a breach of those regulations; or
- (d) affect any legal proceedings or remedy in respect of any such right, privilege, obligation, liability, fine or punishment; and any such legal proceedings or remedy may be instituted, continued or enforced and any such fine or punishment may be imposed as if the Order had not been made.

ARTICLE V.—This Order shall have effect on and from the first day of January 1926.

ARTICLE VI.—This Order may be cited as “The Motor Cars (Use and Construction) Amendment Order, 1925.”

Given under the Seal of the Minister of Transport this first day of December, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five.
