“Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

“And whereas by Your Majesty's Order in Council bearing date the 7th day of November 1924 it is provided, inter alia, that Officers of the Special Reserve, Royal Marines, who may be awarded pensions by the Ministry of Pensions in respect of disability due to or aggravated by service during the great war may be retained, at our discretion, for a period not exceeding three years from the date of commencement of payment of the disability pension, but that such Officers shall be excused training, and payment of Retaining Fee shall be suspended for such time as they continue to draw disability pensions:

“And whereas it is further provided by Your Majesty's aforesaid Order in Council that Officers of the Special Reserve, Royal Marines, who had been in receipt of such pensions for a period of three years or more should be removed from the Special Reserve as from the 7th day of November 1924:

“And whereas, before the promulgation of the foregoing alterations in the Regulations, certain Officers of the Special Reserve, Royal Marines, had performed training and would thus, but for the said alterations, have been qualified to receive Retaining Fees, and we consider that the removal of these Officers should be postponed until the date upon which they were notified of the changes, and that they should be eligible to receive Retaining Fees until such date:

“We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to sanction the amendment of Your Majesty's Order in Council bearing date the 7th November 1924 accordingly.

“Your Majesty's Minister of Pensions has signified his concurrence in the above proposals.”

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.
