GEORGE R.I.

WHEREAS by the Emergency Powers Act, 1920, it is enacted that if it appears to Us that any action has been taken or is immediately threatened by any persons or body of persons of such a nature and on so extensive a scale as to be calculated, by interfering with the supply and distribution of food, water, fuel or light, or with the means of locomotion, to deprive the community, or any substantial portion of the community, of the essentials of life, We may, by proclamation, declare that a state of emergency exists:

pursuance of the said Act, that a State of emergency existed:

And whereas it is enacted by the said Act that no such proclamation shall be in force for more than one month, without prejudice to the issue of another proclamation at or before the end of that period:

And whereas the continued cessation of work in Coal Mines does, in Our opinion, constitute a state of emergency within the meaning of the said Act:

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the said Act, We do, by and with the advice of our Privy Council, hereby declare that a state of emergency exists.

Given at our Court at Buckingham Palace this twenty-sixth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and twenty-six, and in the seventeenth year of Our Reign.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 24th day of June 1926 (C.W. 5494/25), in the words following, viz.:—

"Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas under the provisions of Schedule V., Sections III. and VII. of Your Majesty's Order in Council bearing date the 22nd day of January 1920, increments in the scale of full pay, unemployed pay and half pay for Lieutenants, Royal Marines, are granted after certain specified periods from date of entry, but no provision exists for the incremental date to be postponed in the event of an Officer for any reason being deprived of seniority, and we consider that such provision should exist in the Regulations:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to provide that if a Probationary Second Lieutenant, Probationary Lieutenant or Lieutenant of Your Majesty's Royal Marine Force be for any reason deprived of seniority, the date upon which he is due for increment in full pay, unemployed pay or half pay under the aforesaid Regulations shall be deferred by the amount of time forfeited.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.
