TENDERS FOR TREASURY BILLS.

1. The Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury hereby give notice, that Tenders will be received at the Chief Cashier's Office, at the Bank of England, on Friday, the 13th August 1926, at 1 o'clock, for Treasury Bills to be issued under the Treasury Bills Act, 1877, the National Debt Act, 1889, and the War Loan Acts, 1914-1919, to the amount of £40,000,000.

2. The Bills will be in amounts of £5,000 or £10,000. They will be dated at the option of the Tenderer on any business day from Monday, the 16th August 1926, to Saturday, the 21st August 1926, inclusive, and will be payable at three months after date.

3. The Bills will be issued and paid at the Bank of England.

4. Each Tender must be for an amount not less than £50,000, and must specify the date on which the Bills required are to be dated, and the net amount per cent. (being an even multiple of one penny) which will be given for the amount applied for. Separate Tenders must be lodged for Bills of different dates.

5. Tenders must be made through a London Banker, Discount House or Broker.

6. The persons whose Tenders are accepted will be informed of the same not later than the following day, and payment in full of the amounts of the accepted tenders must be made to the Bank of England by means of Cash or a Banker's Draft on the Bank of England not later than 2 o'clock (Saturday 12 o'clock) on the day on which the relative Bills are to be dated.

7. In virtue of the provisions of Section 1 (4) of the War Loan Act, 1919, Members of the House of Commons are not precluded from tendering for these Bills.

8. Tenders must be made on the printed forms, which may be obtained from the Chief Cashier's Office, Bank of England.

9. The Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury reserve the right of rejecting any Tenders.

DANGEROUS DRUGS.

THE DANGEROUS DRUGS REGULATIONS, 1926, DATED JULY 29, 1926, MADE BY THE SECRETARY OF STATE UNDER SECTION 7 OF THE DANGEROUS DRUGS ACT, 1920 (10 & 11 GEO. 5, c. 46).

In pursuance of Section 7 of the Dangerous Drugs Act, 1920, I hereby make the following Regulations amending the Dangerous Drugs Regulations, 1921 (a) hereinafter referred to as the Principal Regulations.

1. Regulation 5 of the Principal Regulations shall be amended and shall take effect as if—

- (1) for the words " the total amount of the drug to be supplied on the prescription " were substituted the words " the total amount of the morphine, cocaine, ecgonine or diamorphine or salt thereof, to be supplied on the prescription, except that in the case of a preparation which is contained in the British Pharmacopœia, the British Pharmaceutical Codex or the Drug Tariff issued by the Minister of Health for national health insurance purposes and which is not combined with any other preparation of any of the drugs not so contained, it shall be sufficient to state the total amount of the preparation to be supplied and "

- (2) at the end of the first paragraph were inserted the following new paragraph:—

A prescription shall only be given by a duly qualified medical practitioner when required for purposes of medical treatment.

2. Regulation 7 of the Principal Regulations shall be amended and shall take effect as if the following proviso were added to paragraph (d) of the Regulation:—

Provided that the last foregoing provision shall not apply to any drug supplied to a person for his use by a medical practitioner or in accordance with a prescription if that person was at the time of the supply in course of receiving treatment from another medical practitioner in respect of addiction to any of the drugs or otherwise, and of being supplied with any of the drugs by or on a prescription given by that last-mentioned practitioner, and did not disclose that fact to the first-mentioned practitioner before the drug was supplied to him.

3. Every duly qualified medical practitioner, registered dentist and registered veterinary surgeon, shall, if not already required to do so in pursuance of Regulation 9 of the Principal Regulations, enter or cause to be entered in a register kept for the sole purpose in respect of each supply of each of the drugs purchased or otherwise obtained by him, the particulars shown in Schedule I. (a) to the Principal Regulations.

4. If the Secretary of State is of opinion that there is reason to think that a duly qualified medical practitioner may be supplying, administering or prescribing any of the drugs either to or for himself or to or for other persons otherwise than as required for purposes of medical treatment, he may refer the case to a tribunal constituted in the manner described in the Schedule for examination and consideration, and if the tribunal so recommend, the Secretary of State may by notice in the London or Edinburgh Gazette withdraw the authorisation of such practitioner to be in possession of or to supply the drugs and may direct that the exception in Regulation 4 of the Principal Regulations in respect of drugs lawfully dispensed in pursuance of a prescription given by a duly qualified medical practitioner shall not apply in respect of prescriptions given by such practitioner as aforesaid.

5. Regulation 12 of the Principal Regulations shall be amended and shall take effect as if at the end were added the following sentence:—

" Where such person is a duly qualified medical practitioner or registered dentist or registered veterinary surgeon, the Secretary of State may also, by notice given in the like manner, direct that the exception in Regulation 4 of the Principal Regulations in respect of drugs lawfully dispensed in pursuance of a prescription given by a duly qualified medical practitioner or registered dentist or registered veterinary practitioner shall not apply in respect of prescriptions given by such practitioner, dentist or veterinary surgeon as aforesaid."

6. A medical practitioner, registered dentist or registered veterinary surgeon shall not give any prescription for the supply of any of the drugs, if a direction has been given in pursuance of Regulation 4 or Regulation 5 of these Regulations that the exception in Regulation 4 of the Principal Regulations is not to apply in respect of prescriptions given by such practitioner, dentist or veterinary surgeon.

7. Every person authorised in pursuance of Regulation 10 of the Principal Regulations to carry on the business of manufacturing, selling or distributing the drugs shall keep the same in a locked receptacle of which the key shall be kept by himself or a qualified assistant.

8. These Regulations may be referred to as the Dangerous Drugs Regulations, 1926.

DANGEROUS DRUGS ACTS, 1920 to 1925.

DIRECTION SUPPLEMENTARY TO WITHDRAWAL OF AUTHORISATION.

(DR. FREDERICK GEORGE LEWTAS).

Whereas Dr. Frederick George Lewtas, M.R.C.S., L.R.C.P., at present residing in the Slade Nursing Home, Bideford, Devon, has been convicted of an offence against the Dangerous Drugs Act, 1920;

And whereas by notice dated the 9th June 1925, and published in the London Gazette and Edinburgh Gazette of the same date, the authorisations granted by Regulation 6 of the Raw Opium Regulations, 1921, and Regulation 12 of the Dangerous Drugs Regulations, 1921, to duly qualified medical practitioners to be in possession of and supply raw opium and the drugs to which Part III. of the Dangerous Drugs Act, 1920, applies were withdrawn by me from the said Dr. Frederick George Lewtas;

Now therefore, in pursuance of the powers conferred on me by Regulation 12 of the Dangerous Drugs Regulations, 1921, as amended by Regulation 5 of the Dangerous Drugs Regulations, 1926, I hereby give notice that I direct, as from to-day's date, that the exception in Regulation 4 of the Dangerous Drugs Regulations, 1921, which permits dangerous drugs to be supplied on a prescription given by a duly qualified medical practitioner, shall not apply in respect of prescriptions given by the said Dr. Frederick George Lewtas.

W. JOYNSON-HICKS,

One of His Majesty's Principal
Secretaries of State.
