BY THE KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE R.I.

WHEREAS by the Royal and Parliamentary Titles Act, 1927, it is enacted that it shall be lawful for Us by Our Royal Proclamation under the Great Seal of the Realm issued within six months after the passing of the said Act to make such alteration in the style and titles at present appertaining to the Crown as to Us may seem fit:

And whereas Our present style and titles are, in the Latin tongue, "Georgius V. Dei Gratia Britanniarum et terrarum transmarinarum quae in ditone sunt Britannica Rex, Fidei Defensor, Indiae Imperator," and in the English tongue, "George V. by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and of the British Dominions beyond the Seas King, Defender of the Faith, Emperor of India":

And whereas We have received a recommendation from the representatives of Our Governments in Conference assembled that Our style and titles should be altered as in manner hereinafter appearing:

We have thought fit, and We do hereby appoint and declare, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, that henceforth so far as conveniently may be, on all occasions and in all instruments wherein Our style and titles are used, the following alteration shall be made in the style and titles at present appertaining to the Crown, that is to say, in the Latin tongue, for the word "Britanniarum" there shall be substituted the words "Magnae Britanniae, Hiberniae," and in the English tongue, for the words "the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and of" the words "Great Britain, Ireland and".

Given at Our Court at Buckingham Palace, this thirteenth day of May, in the year of our Lord One thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven, and in the Eighteenth year of Our Reign.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 13th day of May 1927.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 27th day of April 1927 (G.H.), in the words following, viz.:-

"And whereas by Section 8 of the Greenwich Hospital Act, 1872, it is enacted that the provisions of Section 20 of the Greenwich

“ And whereas we are of opinion that an additional Junior Chaplain should be appointed from the Active List of the Royal Navy to the Royal Hospital School, Greenwich; that the service of the Chaplain so appointed should reckon for all purposes as though it were service in an ordinary Naval appointment; and further that the full cost of the appointment should be a charge upon the funds of Greenwich Hospital:

“ We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to sanction the appointment to the Royal Hospital School, Greenwich, of an additional Chaplain from the Active List of the Royal Navy, as from the 8th day of January 1926, and further to direct that the Funds of Greenwich Hospital shall be charged with the following expenses:—

(1) The full pay and allowances of the Officer actually appointed during the period of his service in the appointment.

(3) A contribution to Navy Votes during the currency of the appointment at the rate of £180 per annum in respect of the Officer’s right to count his service therein for increase of retired pay or gratuity on final retirement or withdrawal from the Royal Navy.

“ The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty’s Treasury have signified their concurrence in such of these proposals as require their sanction.”

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.
