

Stodart Lorimer, James Whitelaw Hamilton, and James Pittendrigh Macgillivray to be Our Commissioners in Scotland for the purposes aforesaid.

And We do by these Presents will and ordain that this Our Commission shall continue in full force, and virtue, and that you, Our said Commissioners, or any three or more of you, may from time to time proceed in the execution thereof, and of every matter and thing therein contained, although the same be not continued from time to time by adjournment; provided always that three years after the date hereof and every subsequent year thereafter one of your number shall retire from this Our Commission in such order as shall be determined by One of Our Principal Secretaries of State after consultation with the Chairman of this Our Commission, and that to the place thereby made vacant there may be appointed by Warrant under Our Sign Manual such person as We shall think fit to appoint.

And We do further ordain that you have liberty to report to Us your proceedings under this Our Commission from time to time if you shall judge it expedient so to do.

And We Will and Command the said Letters Patent to be extended in the most ample form and to pass the Seal aforesaid per saltum without passing any other Seal or Register. For doing whereof these Presents shall be to the Director of Our Chancery for writing the same and to the Keeper of the Said Seal for causing the same to be appended thereto a sufficient Warrant.

Given at Our Court at Saint James's this twenty-second day of August 1927, in the eighteenth year of Our Reign.

By His Majesty's Command.

(Sgd.) JOHN GILMOUR.

EDUCATION (SCOTLAND) ACT, 1918.
