TUESDAY, MAY 15, 1928.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 7th day of May 1928.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS it is provided by subsection (1) of Section eighteen of the Finance Act, 1923, that if His Majesty in Council is pleased to declare—

(a) that any profits or gains arising from the business of shipping which are chargeable to British Income Tax are also chargeable to Income Tax payable under the law in force in any foreign State; and

(b) that arrangements, as specified in the declaration, have been made with the Government of that foreign State with a view to the granting of relief in cases where such profits and gains are chargeable both to British Income Tax and to the Income Tax payable in the foreign State;

then, unless and until the declaration is revoked by His Majesty in Council, the arrangements specified therein shall, so far as they relate to the relief to be granted from British Income Tax, have effect as if enacted in that Act, but only if and so long as the arrangements, so far as they relate to the relief to be granted from the Income Tax payable in the foreign State, have the effect of law in the foreign State:

And whereas the agreement set out in the Schedule to this Declaration has been made between His Majesty's Government in Great Britain and the German Government:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to declare, and it is hereby declared—

(a) that certain profits or gains arising from the business of shipping which are chargeable to British Income Tax are also chargeable to the Income Tax payable under the law in force in Germany; and

(b) that the arrangements contained in the said agreement between His Majesty's Government in Great Britain and the German Government have been made with a view to the granting of relief in cases where profits or gains arising from the business of shipping are chargeable both to British Income Tax and to the Income Tax payable in Germany.

And His Majesty is further pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that this Declaration may be cited as "The Relief from Double Income Tax on Shipping Profits (Germany) Declaration, 1928."

M. P. A. HANKEY.

SCHEDULE.

AGREEMENT BETWEEN GREAT BRITAIN AND GERMANY FOR THE EXEMPTION OF SHIPPING PROFITS FROM DOUBLE TAXATION

His Britannic Majesty's Government in Great Britain and the German Government being desirous of concluding an Agreement for the reciprocal exemption from income tax in certain cases of profits accruing from the business of shipping, have appointed as their plenipotentiaries:

His Britannic Majesty's Government in Great Britain:

SIR RONALD C. LINDSAY,

His Majesty's Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary at Berlin,

The German Government:

WALTER DE HAAS,

Director in the Foreign Office, and

DR. HERBERT DORN,

Director in the Ministry of Finance of the Reich, who, after having communicated to each other their respective full powers, found in good and due form, have agreed upon the following articles:

Article 1.

His Britannic Majesty's Government in Great Britain agree to take the necessary steps under Section 18 of the Act of Parliament of the United Kingdom known as the Finance Act, 1923, for exempting from Income Tax (including Supertax) chargeable in Great Britain and Northern Ireland for the year of assessment 1923-24 commencing on the 6th day of April 1923, and for every subsequent year of assessment any profits which accrue from the business of shipping carried on by an individual resident in Germany and not resident in Great Britain or Northern Ireland, or by a company managing and controlling such business in Germany.

Article 2.

The German Government agree to take the necessary steps under Article 7 of the Reichsabgabenordnung for exempting from Einkommensteuer und Körperschaftssteuer chargeable in Germany for periods subsequent to the 1st of April 1923, any profits which accrue from the business of shipping carried on by an individual resident in Great Britain or Northern Ireland, and not resident in Germany, or by a company managing and controlling such business in Great Britain or Northern Ireland.

Article 3.

The expression "the business of shipping" means the business carried on by an owner of ships, and for the purposes of this definition the expression "owner" includes any charterer.

Article 4.

The agreement shall cease to have effect if and so soon as either the relief to be granted under Article 1 hereof in respect of income tax in Great Britain and Northern Ireland, or the relief to be granted under Article 2 hereof in respect of Einkommensteuer and Körperschaftssteuer in Germany, ceases to have legal operation.

In witness whereof the undersigned have signed the present Agreement and have affixed thereto their seals.

Done in duplicate, in English and German texts, at Berlin, this 17th day of January 1928.

L.S.) W. DE HAAS.

(L.S.) DR. HERBERT DORN.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 7th day of May 1928.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by treaty, capitulations, grant, usage, sufferance, and other lawful means His Majesty The King has jurisdiction in the territories and places within the limits of "the Persia Order in Council, 1889," and "the Persian Coast and Islands Order in Council, 1907," and several Orders in Council amending the same:

And whereas it is desirable to suspend the operation of the Orders in Council aforesaid:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue of and in exercise of the powers in this behalf by "the Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890," or otherwise in His Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows, that is to say:—

1. Subject to the provisions of Article 2, the Orders in Council mentioned in the Schedule to this Order, and any King's Regulations, Rules of Court, Rules, Instructions or other enactments made thereunder are hereby suspended from May 10, 1928, until further order, provided that this suspension shall not, either in Persia or elsewhere, affect the past operation of such Orders, King's Regulations, Rules of Court, Rules, Instructions or enactments or any of them, or any right, title, obligation or liability accrued for the validity or invalidity of anything done or suffered under any of them before the making of this Order.

2.—(1) Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 1 the Secretary of State may, by an order published in the London Gazette, direct that the jurisdiction of any court established under the Orders in Council mentioned in the Schedule hereto may continue in certain respects as may be defined by such order, and the jurisdiction of such courts shall continue accordingly and shall be exercised in accordance with the provisions of the Orders in Council, King's Regulations, Rules of Court, Rules, Instructions or other enactments now in force in Persia.

(2) The Secretary of State may, by an order published in the London Gazette, terminate to such extent and in such manner as he may think fit the jurisdiction of any provincial court whose jurisdiction has been continued under this Article.

3. This Order may be cited as the Persia Order in Council, 1928, and shall come into force upon the tenth day of May 1928.

And the Right Honourable Sir Austen Chamberlain, K.G., one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein.

M. P. A. HANKEY.

TENDERS FOR TREASURY BILLS.

1. The Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury hereby give notice that Tenders will be received at the Chief Cashier's Office at the Bank of England, on Friday the 18th May 1928, at 1 o'clock, for Treasury Bills to be issued under the Treasury Bills Act, 1877, the National Debt Act, 1889, and the War Loan Acts, 1914-1919, to the amount of £40,000,000.

2. The Bills will be in amounts of £5000 or £10,000. They will be dated at the option of the Tenderer on any business day from Monday the 21st May 1928 to Saturday the 26th May 1928, inclusive, and will be payable at three months after date.

3. The Bills will be issued and paid at the Bank of England.

4. Each Tender must be for an amount not less than £50,000, and must specify the date on which the Bills required are to be dated, and the net amount per cent. (being an even multiple of one penny) which will be given for the amount applied for. Separate Tenders must be lodged for Bills of different dates.

5. Tenders must be made through a London Banker, Discount House or Broker.

6. The persons whose Tenders are accepted will be informed of the same not later than the following day, and payment in full of the amounts of the accepted tenders must be made to the Bank of England by means of Cash or a Banker's Draft on the Bank of England not later than 2 o'clock (Saturday 12 o'clock) on the day on which the relative Bills are to be dated.

7. In virtue of the provisions of Section 1 (4) of the War Loan Act, 1919, Members of the House of Commons are not precluded from tendering for these Bills.

8. Tenders must be made on the printed forms, which may be obtained from the Chief Cashier's Office, Bank of England.

9. The Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury reserve the right of rejecting any Tenders.

Treasury Chambers,
 11th May 1928.

THE SAFEGUARDING OF INDUSTRIES (EXEMPTION) NO. 3 ORDER, 1928, DATED 11TH MAY 1928, MADE BY THE TREASURY UNDER SECTION 10 OF THE FINANCE ACT, 1926 (16 & 17 GEO. 5, c. 22).

Whereas it is provided by sub-section (5) of Section 10 of the Finance Act, 1926 (16 & 17 Geo. 5, c. 22), that the Treasury may by order exempt from the duty imposed by Section one of the Safeguarding of Industries Act, 1921 (11 & 12 Geo. 5, c. 47), as amended by the Finance Act, 1926, for such period as may be specified in the Order, any article in respect of which the Board of Trade are satisfied on a representation made by a consumer of that article that the article is not made in any part of His Majesty's Dominions in quantities which are substantial, having regard to the consumption of that article for the time being in the United Kingdom, and that there is no reasonable probability that the article will within a reasonable period be made in His Majesty's Dominions in such substantial quantities:

And whereas the Board of Trade are satisfied on representations made by consumers of the articles specified in Article 1 of this Order that those articles are not made in any part of His Majesty's Dominions in quantities which are substantial, having regard to the consumption of those articles for the time being in the United Kingdom, and that there is no reasonable probability that those articles will within a reasonable period be made in His Majesty's Dominions in such substantial quantities:

Now therefore we, being two of the Lord's Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, in pursuance of the powers conferred on Us by the said Section 10 of the Finance Act, 1926, and of all other powers enabling us in that behalf, hereby order as follows:—

1. Such radium compounds as are not entered under the Customs Acts before the 15th day of May 1928, or which have not been removed from a bonded warehouse before that date, shall be exempt from the duty imposed by Section one of the Safeguarding of Industries Act, 1921, as amended by the Finance Act, 1926, for a period ending on the 31st day of December 1928.

2. This Order may be cited as the Safeguarding of Industries (Exemption) No. 3 Order, 1928.

Dated this 11th day of May 1928.

(Sd.) GEORGE BOWYER,

(Sd.) F. GEORGE PENNY,

Two of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

Whitehall, May 9, 1928.

The KING has been pleased, by Letters Patent under the Great Seal of the Realm, bearing date the 8th instant, to grant the dignity of a Countess of the United Kingdom unto Anne Estella Sarah Penfold, Viscountess Cave, widow of the Right Honourable George, Viscount Cave, G.C.M.G., by the name, style and title of Countess Cave of Richmond, and at her decease the dignity of an Earl of the said United Kingdom to the heirs male of her body lawfully begotten, by the name, style and title of Earl Cave of Richmond.

Whitehall, May 10, 1928.

The KING was pleased, on Tuesday the 8th instant, at Buckingham Palace, to confer the honour of Knighthood upon Mr. Justice (Frederic Herbert) Maugham.

Whitehall, May 3, 1926.

His Majesty The KING has been pleased, upon the recommendation of the President of the Board of Trade, to award the Silver Medal for Gallantry in Saving Life at Sea to Mr. John Whyte, Chief Engineer of the steamship "King George V." of Glasgow, in recognition of the gallantry displayed by him in endeavouring to save life when an explosion occurred in the boiler room of the above-named vessel on the 29th September 1927.

Civil Service Commission,
May 11, 1928.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations are published with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, viz. :—

REGULATIONS RESPECTING OPEN COMPETITIVE EXAMINATIONS FOR THE SITUATION OF ASSISTANT EXAMINER IN THE PATENT OFFICE, DEPARTMENT OF THE BOARD OF TRADE.

N.B.—These Regulations are liable to alteration for future examinations.

1. The limits of age for this situation are 20 and 25, and candidates must be of the prescribed age on the first day of the examination.

In reckoning age for competition the following allowances will be made, viz. :—

(a) Candidates who have served or are serving in the Army, Navy or Air Force may deduct from their actual age any time during which they have so served.

(b) Candidates who have served in any established civil situation to which they were admitted with the Certificate of the Civil Service Commissioners may deduct from their actual age any time not exceeding two years which they may have spent in such service.

2. No person will be eligible who is not a natural-born British subject and the child of a father also a natural-born British subject; provided that exception may be made in the case of persons serving in a civil situation to which they were admitted with the certificate of the Civil Service Commissioners, and provided that exception may be made as regards the father in the case of candidates who served in His Majesty's Armed Forces during the Great War between the 4th August 1914 and the 11th November 1918.

3. No person will be eligible who obtained from any tribunal established under the Military Service Acts, 1916 to 1918, exemption from service in His Majesty's Forces under those Acts on the ground of a conscientious objection to the undertaking of military service, or, although not so exempted, declined to comply with obligations imposed upon him by those Acts.

4. Candidates must satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners as to their health and character. Female candidates must be unmarried or widows, and will be required to resign their appointments on marriage.

5. No person actually serving in the Army, Navy or Air Force will be eligible for admission to the examination unless he produces to the Civil Service Commissioners, when called upon to do so, the permission of his Commanding Officer to attend the examination, dated before the commencement of the competition, and given in accordance with such orders as may from time to time be issued.

Persons holding situations in the Civil Service must obtain the permission of the authorities of their Department to attend the examination before the commencement of the competition.

Persons upon whose training for the occupation of teacher public money has been spent cannot be appointed until the consent of the appropriate education authority has been notified to the Civil Service Commissioners.

6. At the examination exercises will be set in the following subjects only:—

	Maximum Marks.
1. Essay... ..	200
2. English	200
3. Present Day. (Questions on contemporary subjects, social, economic and political)	200
4. Mathematics	400
5. Mechanics and Hydrostatics ...	400
6. Physics	400
7. Pure Chemistry	400
8. Translation from one of the following languages: French, German, Spanish, Italian ...	200
9. One of the following subjects:—	600
(a) Mechanical Engineering.
(b) Electrical Engineering.
(c) Industrial Chemistry.

Candidates must obtain such an aggregate number of marks in the examination as a whole as may indicate, in the judgment of the Civil Service Commissioners, a competent amount of general proficiency.

7. Application for permission to attend an examination must be made in the writing of the candidate, at such times and in such manner as may be fixed by the Commissioners.

8. A fee of £6 will be required from each candidate attending an examination.

The Commissioners further give notice that an Open Competitive Examination will be held in London under the foregoing Regulations, commencing on the 4th September 1928.

Not fewer than 6 candidates will be appointed on the result of this Examination, if so many should be found to be duly qualified.

No person will be admitted to Examination from whom the Secretary of the Civil Service Commission has not received, on or before the 12th July, an application, in the Candidate's own handwriting, on a prescribed form, which may be obtained from the Secretary at once.

ORDER OF THE MINISTER OF AGRICULTURE AND FISHERIES.

(DATED 9TH MAY 1928.)

The Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries, by virtue and in exercise of the powers vested in him under the Diseases of Animals Acts, 1894 to 1927, and of every other power enabling him in this behalf, hereby orders as follows:—

Application of Part II. of Sheep Scab Order of 1928.
