

And whereas by Section 91 of the said Acts, it is provided inter alia that where it is made to appear to His Majesty that the legislature of any British possession has made satisfactory provision for the protection of inventions, designs or trade marks, patented or registered in this country, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to apply the provisions of the said Section to that possession, with such variations or additions, if any, as may be stated in the Order:

And whereas the laws of the Dominion of Canada confer rights with respect to the use of inventions in vessels, aircraft and land vehicles of the United Kingdom when coming into the Dominion of Canada or the territorial waters thereof corresponding to those mentioned in Section 48 of the said Patents and Designs Acts, 1907 to 1928:

And whereas it is made to appear to His Majesty that the legislature of the Dominion of Canada has made satisfactory provision for the protection of inventions, designs and trade marks, patented or registered in the United Kingdom:

And whereas it is expedient, on the making of this Order, that the Patents, Designs and Trade Marks (Canada) Order, 1923, should be revoked:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, in exercise of the powers conferred upon Him in manner hereinbefore recited and of all other powers in that behalf, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered as follows:—

1. The provisions of Section 48 of the Patents and Designs Acts, 1907 to 1928, shall apply to vessels, aircraft and land vehicles of the Dominion of Canada in like manner as they would apply to vessels, aircraft and land vehicles of a foreign state with respect to which an Order in Council had been made under sub-section (2) of that Section.

2. The provisions of Section 91 of the Patents and Designs Acts, 1907 to 1928, shall apply to the Dominion of Canada.

3. The Patents, Designs and Trade Marks (Canada) Order, 1923, is hereby revoked.

4. This Order may be cited as the Patents, Designs and Trade Marks (Canada) Order, 1928.
