WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 10th day of October 1928 (N.P.(1)2835 28), in the words following, viz.:—

“Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions or other allowances in the nature thereof payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

“And whereas Your Majesty was graciously pleased by Your Order in Council bearing date the 9th day of March 1921, to sanction subject to certain conditions the payment of Hard Lying Money to Officers and Men employed in various small craft, including Surveying Ships:

"And whereas under one of the conditions prescribed in that Order, Hard Lying Money may not be paid to Officers unless the living and sleeping conditions on board are markedly inferior to those in Torpedo Boat Destroyers:

"And whereas the aforesaid condition is not fulfilled in Surveying Ships, but we are nevertheless of opinion that in view of the inevitable discomfort of service in such ships abroad Hard Lying Money should be paid to such of the Officers of those vessels as are not in receipt of Surveying Pay:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to empower us, at our discretion, and with effect from the 1st day of April 1928, to grant Hard Lying Money at the rates authorised for service in Torpedo Boat Destroyers to such of the Officers serving in Surveying Ships abroad as are not in receipt of Surveying pay, provided that

(1) they actually live and sleep on board the vessels,

(2) the vessels are mainly employed on sea service, and

(3) the living and sleeping conditions are not superior to those in Torpedo Boat Destroyers.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

M. P. A. HANKEY.

"Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions or other allowances in the nature thereof payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas Your Majesty was graciously pleased by Your Order in Council bearing date the 25th day of July 1927, to sanction, inter alia, the grant of charge pay on the following scale to Medical Officers of Your Majesty's

Navy in charge of hospitals and sick quarters:—

Surgeon Rear-Admirals and Surgeon Captains, 10s. a day.

Surgeon Commanders, 5s a day:

"And whereas we consider that in view of the responsibilities devolving upon Medical Officers in charge of Hospital Ships, they should similarly receive extra remuneration:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to approve of Medical Officers in charge of Hospital Ships being granted at our discretion, with effect from the 15th day of September 1928, charge pay on the scale laid down for Medical Officers in charge of hospitals and sick quarters.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

WHEREAS by Section 18 of "The Extradition Act, 1870," it is among other things enacted, that if by any law made after the passing of the said Act by the legislature of any British possession, provision is made for carrying into effect within such possession the surrender of fugitive criminals who are in, or suspected of being in, such British possession His Majesty may, by the Order in Council applying the said Act in the case of any foreign state, or by any subsequent Order, either

And whereas by an ordinance enacted by the legislature of the Colony of Kenya, the short title of which is "The Extradition Ordinance, 1928," it is provided that all powers vested in and acts authorised or required to be done by a Police Magistrate or any Justice of the Peace in relation to the surrender of fugitive criminals in the United Kingdom under the Extradition Acts, 1870 and 1873, are thereby vested in and may in the Colony be exercised and done by any Magistrate holding a Subordinate Court of the first class in relation to the surrender of fugitive criminals under the said Acts:

And whereas it is further provided by the said ordinance that the said ordinance shall not come into operation until His Majesty shall by Order in Council direct that the said ordinance shall have effect within the Colony as if it were part of the Extradition Act, 1870, but that the said ordinance shall thereafter come into operation as soon as such Order in Council shall have been publicly made known in the Colony:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, in pursuance of "The Extradition Act, 1870," and in exercise of the power in that behalf in the said Act contained, doth by this present Order, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, direct that the said Ordinance shall have effect in the Colony of Kenya without modification or alteration, as if it were part of the Extradition Act, 1870.
