TENDERS FOR TREASURY BILLS.

1. The Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury hereby give notice that Tenders will be received at the Chief Cashier's Office, at the Bank of England, on Friday, the 8th March, 1929, at 1 o'clock, for Treasury Bills to be issued under the Treasury Bills Act, 1877, the National Debt Act, 1889, and the War Loan Acts, 1914-1919, to the amount of £30,000,000.

2. The Bills will be in amounts of £5000 or £10,000. They will be dated at the option of the Tenderer on any business day from Monday, the 11th March 1929, to Saturday, the 16th March 1929, inclusive, and will be payable at three months after date.

3. The Bills will be issued and paid at the Bank of England.

4. Each Tender must be for an amount not less than £50,000, and must specify the date on which the Bills required are to be dated, and the net amount per cent. (being an even multiple of one penny) which will be given for the amount applied for. Separate tenders must be lodged for Bills of different dates.

5. Tenders must be made through a London Banker, Discount House or Broker.

6. The persons whose Tenders are accepted will be informed of the same not later than the following day, and payment in full of the amounts of the accepted tenders must be made to the Bank of England by means of Cash or a Banker's Draft on the Bank of England not later than 2 o'clock (Saturday 12 o'clock) on the day on which the relative Bills are to be dated.

7. In virtue of the provisions of Section 1 (4) of the War Loan Act, 1919, Members of the House of Commons are not precluded from tendering for these Bills.

8. Tenders must be made on the printed forms which may be obtained from the Chief Cashier's Office, Bank of England.

9. The Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury reserve the right of rejecting any Tenders.

IN THE MATTER OF THE RAILWAY EMPLOYMENT (PREVENTION OF ACCIDENTS) ACT, 1900, AND THE PREVENTION OF ACCIDENTS RULES, 1911, AS AMENDED.

In pursuance of the powers contained in the Railway Employment (Prevention of Accidents) Act, 1900, the Ministry of Transport Act, 1919, and the Ministry of Transport (Board of Trade Exception of Powers) Order, 1919, the Minister of Transport hereby gives notice that he proposes to make the following Rules, and that copies of the draft Rules may be obtained at the Ministry of Transport, 6 Whitehall Gardens, London, S.W.1.

The Prevention of Accidents (Extension of Time) Rules, 1929, dated 1929, made by the Minister of Transport pursuant to the Railway Employment (Prevention of Accidents) Act, 1900 (63 and 64 Vict. c. 27), the Ministry of Transport Act, 1919 (9 and 10 Geo. 5, c. 50), and the Ministry of Transport (Board of Trade Exception of Powers) Order, 1919 (S. R. & O., 1919, No. 1440).

1. In these Rules the following expressions have the following meanings:—

The expression "the Minister" means the Minister of Transport.

The expression "owner" means a company, firm, or person owning wagons for use on any railway.

The expression "certified return" means a return certified as true and signed by the owner making the return, or where the owner is a firm by a member of the firm, or where the owner is a company by a person or persons duly authorised to sign documents requiring authentication by the Company.

The expression "fitted" means fitted on both sides with brake levers complying with the conditions set out in Schedule No. 1 to the Prevention of Accidents Rules, 1911.

The expression "partly-fitted" means fitted on both sides with brake levers of a description not in accordance with the requirements of the said Schedule No. 1.

The expression "unfitted" means not fitted with brake levers on both sides.

2. As respects the owners to whom these Rules apply, Clause (2) of the Prevention of Accidents Rules, 1911, as amended by the Prevention of Accidents (Extension of Time) Rules, 1920, and the Prevention of Accidents (Extension of Time) Rules, 1926 (hereinafter called the "the Principal Rules"), shall be read and have effect as if the period of twenty-five years from the date of the Prevention of Accidents Rules, 1911, were therein referred to instead of the period of twenty years from the said date.

3. (1) Subject as hereinafter provided, these Rules apply to every owner owning 50 such wagons or over who complies with the following conditions, that is to say:—

- (a) within seven days (or such further period as the Minister may allow) after the thirty-first day of December 1929, and within the like period after the thirty-first day of December in each of the six succeeding years furnishes to the Minister a certified return showing the number of unfitted, partly-fitted and fitted wagons owned by him at such thirty-first day of December, and from time to time supplies such further information in connection therewith as the Minister may require, and

- (b) satisfies the Minister from time to time within such time as the Minister may allow that the total number of unfitted and partly-fitted wagons belonging to him is not unreasonably great having regard to the requirement of the Principal Rules as amended by these Rules that all wagons for use on any railway shall be fitted by the seventh day of November 1936.
- (c) satisfies the Minister within such time after the thirty-first day of December 1931, as the Minister may allow that the total number of unfitted and partly-fitted wagons belonging to him on the thirty-first day of December 1931, does not exceed the number specified in that behalf in the Schedule hereto.

(2) If any owner fails in any year to comply with any of the conditions laid down in these Rules, the Minister may publish in the London and Edinburgh Gazettes a Notice that such owner has so failed, and as from the date of the publication of such Notice these Rules shall cease to apply to that owner, and unless and until such a Notice is published with regard to him an owner shall be deemed to have complied with all the said conditions:

4. These Rules shall come into operation as from the date hereof, and may be cited as "The Prevention of Accidents (Extension of Time) Rules, 1929."
