*Scottish Office,
Whitehall, S.W.1,
25th April 1929.*

The KING has been pleased by Royal Warrant, bearing date the 22nd April 1929, to direct a Commission to be passed under the Seal appointed to be kept and made use of in place of the Great Seal of Scotland, appointing Francis James Grant, Esq., W.S., to be Lyon King of Arms in Scotland, and Secretary to the Most Ancient and Most Noble Order of the Thistle, in succession to Captain George Sitwell Campbell Swinton, who will retire on the 10th May 1929.

Whitehall, April 5, 1929.

His Majesty The KING has been graciously pleased to award the Edward Medal to Henry Charles Hamblin in recognition of his gallantry in the following circumstances:—

On the 10th November 1928, Henry Charles Hamblin and his brother Arthur Albert Hamblin, colliers, were working in a seam at Mells Colliery, Somerset, when at about 9.40 a.m. the supporting timbers suddenly gave way and there was a fall of the roof. Arthur Hamblin was caught by the falling debris and was pinned by the right foot. In struggling to extricate himself a further fall occurred, burying him to the waist. Henry Hamblin, on hearing the fall, immediately ran to the scene of the accident and tried to free his brother, but could not do so. A further fall buried Arthur Hamblin up to his shoulders. Henry

Hamblin shouted for help, but, being unable to make any one hear, he was forced to leave his brother and go for assistance. On his return he found his brother almost buried. As the roof continued to fall, Henry crouched over his brother's head to shield him, and remained in that position for some twenty minutes until assistance came and a temporary covering of timber was erected over his brother's head. He knowingly exposed himself to considerable danger and himself received severe bruises while shielding his brother with his own body from the falling stones. His gallant conduct probably saved his brother's life.

Whitehall, April 8, 1929.
