“And whereas Your Majesty was graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council bearing date the 25th day of June, 1925, to approve regulations for the grant of pensions and allowances to the widows, children and other dependent relatives of Officers of Your Majesty's Naval and Marine Forces:

“And whereas under the aforesaid regulations pensions and children's allowances may be awarded to the widows of pensioners from the Royal Navy and Royal Marines who were granted temporary acting Warrant rank during the Great War, provided, inter alia, that their husbands had twelve months' service in such rank:

“And whereas certain ratings of the Royal Navy and non-commissioned Officers and men of the Royal Marines, who were serving on long service engagements, and certain pensioners, were promoted during the Great War either direct or after less than twelve months' service as Warrant Officer, to Temporary Commissions in the Royal Navy and Royal Marines, or attained Warrant or higher rank in the Naval Forces of Your Majesty's Dominion and Colonial Governments, during that period, but no provision exists for the award of pensions to their widows and allowances to their children:

“And whereas we consider that the widows and children of such Officers should be eligible, at our discretion, for pensions and allowances under similar conditions to the widows and children of Temporary Acting Warrant Officers promoted during the Great War:

“We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to sanction the proposals contained in the annexed Schedules.

“The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in these proposals.

(b) pension contribution as for a Warrant Officer has been paid in respect of any period of reckonable service in a Dominion or Colonial Navy.

" 3. A pension or allowance under these regulations shall not be claimed as a right. Any pension or allowance granted under these conditions may be withheld, reduced, discontinued or restored, in whole or in part, at the discretion of the Admiralty in the same manner as if it had been a pension granted under the Order in Council of the 25th June 1925."
