

grandfather had acquired any other nationality by naturalisation or by any other voluntary and formal act.

3. Health and Character.—Candidates must satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners as to their Health and character.

4. No person actually serving in the Army, Navy or Air Force will be eligible for admission to the examination unless he produces to the Civil Service Commissioners, when called upon to do so, the permission of his Commanding Officer to attend the examination, dated before the commencement of the competition, and given in accordance with such orders as may from time to time be issued.

Persons holding situations in the Civil Service and Apprentices in H.M. Dockyards must obtain the permission of the authorities of their Department to attend the examination before the commencement of the competition.

Persons upon whose training for the occupation of teacher public money has been spent cannot be appointed until the consent of the appropriate education authority has been notified to the Civil Service Commissioners.

5. Subjects of Examination.—The examination will be in the following subjects:—

1. Pure Mathematics.
2. Applied Mathematics.
3. Electricity and Heat.
4. Engineering Drawing and Design.
5. One of the following three subjects:—
 - (a) Sound and Optics.
 - (b) Telegraphy and Telephony.
 - (c) Chemistry.
6. Personal qualities.

The candidate must attain in each subject he offers such a standard as to satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners.

The examination may be held in one part or in two parts, at the discretion of the Civil Service Commissioners. In the latter case the first part of the examination will be used to reduce the number of competitors to be admitted to the second part. Of those who pass and obtain the highest aggregate marks on the first part a certain number, to be determined by the Civil Service Commissioners, will be admitted to the second part of the examination. The successful list will consist of those candidates who pass and obtain the highest aggregate marks on the whole examination.

6. Applications for permission to attend an Examination must be made at such time and in such manner as the Civil Service Commissioners may appoint.

7. Fee.—A fee of £2 will be required from every candidate attending an Examination.

The Civil Service Commissioners further give notice that an Open Competitive Examination will be held under the foregoing Regulations, commencing on the 12th November 1929. The written examination will be held in London, and, provided in each case candidates present themselves in sufficient number, in Belfast, Edinburgh and Manchester.

No person will be admitted to Examination from whom the Secretary of the Civil Service Commission has not received, on or before the 26th September 1929, an application, in the Candidate's own handwriting, on a prescribed form, which may be obtained from the Secretary at once.
