TUESDAY, AUGUST 13, 1929.

At the Court at Saint James, the 7th day of May 1929.

PRESENT,

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES.
LORD CHANCELLOR.
PRIME MINISTER.

Archbishop of York.
Earl Stanhope.
Viscount Peel.
Secretary Sir W. Joynson-Hicks.
Sir Binod Mitter.
Mr. Alexander MacRobert.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased by His Commission dated the 4th day of December 1928 to nominate and appoint Her Majesty The Queen, His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales, K.G., K.T., K.P., G.C.S.I., G.C.M.G., G.C.I.E., G.C.V.O., G.B.E., His Royal Highness The Duke of York, K.G., K.T., G.C.M.G., G.C.V.O., the Most Reverend Father in God Cosmo Gordon, Archbishop of Canterbury, the Right Honourable Douglas M'Garel, Baron Hailsham, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and the Right Honourable Stanley Baldwin, Prime Minister and First Lord of the Treasury, or any three of them, during His Majesty's illness, to summon and hold on His Majesty's behalf His Privy Council, and to signify thereat His Majesty's approval of any matter or thing to which His Majesty's approval in Council is required:

And whereas by a certain Act of Parliament passed in the Fourth year of His Majesty King William the Fourth, known as "The Government of India Act, 1833," it was amongst other things enacted that the Island of St. Helena and all Forts, Factories, Public Edifices and Hereditaments whatsoever in the said Island, and all Stores and Property thereon fit and used for the service of the Government thereof, should be vested in His said Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, and that the said Island should be Governed by such Orders as His said Majesty, His Heirs and Successors in Council should from time to time issue in that behalf:

And whereas by a certain Order in Council bearing date the Twenty-seventh day of July 1863, provision was made for the Government of the said Island, and by the Tenth Article of the said Order in Council it was provided that there should be in the said Island, for the purpose of advising the Governor thereof, an Executive Council which should be constituted as therein is set forth:

And whereas it is expedient to make further and other provisions in lieu of the said Article:

Now, therefore, His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and the Prime Minister and First Lord of the Treasury, being authorised thereto by His Majesty's said Commission, in pursuance of the said Act of Parliament, and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, on His Majesty's behalf are pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as "The St. Helena Order in Council, 1929."

2. The Tenth Article of the aforesaid Order in Council of the Twenty-seventh day of July 1863 is hereby revoked, but without prejudice to anything lawfully done thereunder.

3. There shall be an Executive Council in and for the Island of St. Helena, and the said Council shall consist of such persons as shall be directed by Instructions under the Royal Sign Manual and Signet, and all such persons shall hold their places in the said Council during His Majesty's pleasure. The Governor and Commander-in-Chief of the said Island of St. Helena (hereinafter referred to as the Governor) may upon sufficient cause to him appearing suspend from the exercise of his functions in the Council any Member thereof pending the signification of His Majesty's pleasure giving immediate notice to His Majesty through one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State. If the suspension is confirmed by His Majesty through one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State the Governor shall forthwith by an instrument under the Public Seal of the said Island revoke the appointment of such Member, and thereupon his seat in the Council shall become vacant.

4. The said Council shall observe such rules in the conduct of business as may have been or may hereafter be, from time to time, directed or appointed by or under authority of any Instructions addressed to the Governor under the Royal Sign Manual and Signet.

5. In this Order the term "the Governor and Commander-in-Chief" or "the Governor," unless inconsistent with the context, shall include every person for the time being administering the government of the said Island.

6. This Order shall be published in the St. Helena Government Gazette and shall thereupon come into operation.

7. His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors in Council may from time to time revoke, add to, alter or amend this Order.

And the Right Honourable Leopold Charles Maurice Stennett Amery, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

M. P. A. HANKEY.

[This Order came into operation on the 19th July 1929.]

LOCAL GOVERNMENT (SCOTLAND). REGISTRATION OF ELECTORS.

ORDER dated July 26th, 1929, made by the Secretary of State in pursuance of the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1929 (19 & 20 Geo. 5, c. 25), with reference to the registration of electors in new electoral divisions and new wards.

Whereas by Section 8 (3) of the Local Government (Scotland) Act, 1929 (hereinafter called the Act), the Secretary of State is empowered for the purposes of the reconstitution of county councils, to determine by Order the contents and boundaries of electoral divisions in counties.

And whereas by Section 10 (5) of the Act the Secretary of State is empowered for the purposes of the election of town councillors of the united burghs constituted by that section by Order to make provision for the division of such burghs into wards.

And whereas by Section 25 (2) of the Act it is provided that members of the district councils constituted by the Act, other than ex officio members, shall be elected for the electoral divisions within the districts or for wards forming part thereof.

And whereas by Section 36 of the Act the Secretary of State is empowered for the purposes of the election of councillors in large burghs, to determine or alter by Order the number and boundaries of the wards into which such burghs are divided.

And whereas it is provided by Section 37 (1) of the Act that where any Order made under the Act determining or altering the boundaries of electoral divisions in a county or of wards in a burgh or dividing a burgh into wards, or where a scheme providing for the election of district councillors for wards of electoral divisions involves an alteration of the area of any registration unit within the meaning of the Representation of the People Acts, the Secretary of State may by Order make such provision as may be necessary with regard to the Register of Electors to be used at any election of county, town or district councillors for any electoral division or ward affected by such alteration in the area of the registration unit.

Now therefore, in pursuance of the powers conferred on him by the last cited Section of the Act, the Secretary of State orders as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as the Local Government (Scotland) (Registration of Electors) Order, 1929.

2. Where a new electoral division of a county or a new ward of a burgh or of an electoral division within a district of a county comprises a part but not the whole of a registration unit for which there is a separate part of the Register of Electors which came into force on 1st May 1929, the Register of Electors for that division or ward for the purposes of the first election of members of the reconstituted council for the landward area of that county, the town councillors of that burgh and the elected members of the district council for that district as the case may be, shall consist of the separate parts of such Register for the registration units wholly comprised within the division or ward together with such portion of the part of the Register for any registration unit partly comprised within the division or ward as contains the names of local government electors registered in respect of lands and heritages or premises situated within the division or ward.

Given under the seal of the Secretary of State this 26th day of July 1929.

JOHN LAMB,
Under Secretary of State.

Scottish Office,
Whitehall, S.W.1.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT (SCOTLAND) ACT, 1929.

RECONSTITUTED COUNTY COUNCIL

THE NORTH BRITISH CANADIAN INVESTMENT COMPANY LIMITED, INCORPORATED UNDER THE COMPANIES ACTS, 1862 TO 1900.

INTIMATION is hereby given that on the 7th day of August 1929 a Petition was presented to the Lords of Council and Session (Second Division,—Mr. Antonio, Clerk) at the instance of the above-named Company under the Companies Consolidation Act, 1908, praying their Lordships to confirm an alteration of the provisions of the Company's Memorandum of Association with respect to its objects set forth in the Special Resolution of the Company passed on 22nd July 1929 and confirmed on 6th August 1929. The said Special Resolution is as follows:—

MEMORANDUM OF ASSOCIATION.

- " (1) That Sections (3), (4), (5), (6), (7), (8), (9), (10) and (11) of Clause 3 be wholly deleted; and
- " (2) That in addition to the remaining Sections, viz. (1) and (2) of Clause 3, there be added the following new Sections, viz. :—
- " (3) To carry on the business of an Investment and Trust Company, and to raise money on such terms and conditions as may be thought desirable, and invest the amount thereof in or upon or otherwise acquire and hold shares, stocks, debentures, debenture stocks, bonds, mortgages, obligations, and securities of any kind issued or guaranteed by any company, corporation or undertaking of whatever nature wherever situated or carrying on business, and shares, stocks, debentures, debenture stocks, bonds, obligations and other securities of the United Kingdom or any British Colony or foreign government or authority supreme, municipal, local or otherwise whether at home or abroad, provided always that not more than one-tenth of the subscribed capital can be invested in any one security, other than mortgages or heritable property in Canada and/or British Government Securities, and that no investment imposing unlimited liability on the Company shall be made.
- " (4) To borrow or raise money or secure the payment of money in such manner and upon such terms and conditions in all respects as the Directors shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock perpetual or otherwise or by mortgage, charge or lien upon the whole or any part of the Company's undertaking, property or assets, including its uncalled capital.
- " (5) To acquire any such securities or investments as aforesaid by original subscription, tender, syndicate, participation, purchase, exchange or otherwise, and whether or not fully paid up, and to make payments thereon as called up, or in advance of calls, or otherwise to acquire any such securities or investments in excess of the moneys for the time being proposed to be invested, and to hold, sell or otherwise dispose of any excess thereof, to subscribe for the same either conditionally or otherwise, and generally to sell, exchange or otherwise to dispose of, deal with or turn to account any of the assets of the Company or any securities or investments of the Company acquired, or agreed so to be, and to invest in or to acquire by repurchase or otherwise any securities or investments of the kind before enumerated, and to vary the securities and investments of the Company from time to time.
- " (6) To constitute any trusts with a view to the issue of preferred, deferred or any other special stocks or securities based on or representing any shares, stocks or other assets specifically appropriated for the purposes of any such trust, and to settle and regulate and, if thought fit, to undertake and execute any such trusts, and to issue, dispose of, or hold any such preferred, deferred or other special stocks or securities.
- " (7) To carry on business as financiers, and to undertake and carry out all such operations

- " and transactions as an individual capitalist may lawfully undertake and carry out.
- " (8) To make advances upon, hold in trust, issue, buy, sell or otherwise acquire and dispose of, on commission or otherwise, any such securities or investments as aforesaid, and upon the securities of landed property, buildings or hereditaments, or any interest therein in the United Kingdom or the Colonies, or in any foreign country or state, or to act as Agents or Trustees for any of the above or the like purposes.
- " (9) To take, make, execute, enter into, commence, carry on, prosecute and defend all steps, contracts, agreements, negotiations, legal and other proceedings, compromises, arrangements and schemes; and to do all other acts, matters and things which shall at any time appear conducive or expedient for the protection of the Company, as holders of or as interested in any such securities and investments as aforesaid, realising such securities and investments, or for obtaining payment of the moneys payable thereon.
- " (10) To make, draw, accept, indorse, issue, discount and otherwise deal with promissory notes, bills of exchange, letters of credit, circular notes, and other mercantile documents or securities.
- " (11) To deal with any bank or banks or others, whether at home or abroad, in the way of placing money on current account or deposit, or to borrow money from such banks, or others.
- " (12) To apply for, promote and obtain any Act or Acts of the Imperial or of the Canadian Parliament or of the Legislature of any of the Canadian Provinces or Territories, or Provisional Order or licence of the Board of Trade or other authority for enabling the Company to carry out its objects or any of them, or for conferring on the Company any additional powers or for effecting any modification of the Company's Constitution or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any bills, proceedings or applications which may be thought to be directly or indirectly prejudicial to the Company.
- " (13) To appoint a trustee or trustees to hold any property, heritable or moveable, real or personal, on behalf of the Company.
- " (14) To undertake the office of trustee, receiver, or liquidator, whether official or otherwise, executor, administrator, committee, manager, broker, agent, attorney, delegate, substitute or treasurer, and any other offices or situations of trust or confidence, and to perform and discharge the duties and functions incident thereto, and generally to transact all kinds of trust and agency business, either gratuitously or otherwise.
- " (15) To purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire any lands, houses, buildings and other real and personal property, and to erect, construct, lay down, enlarge, alter and maintain any buildings necessary or convenient for the Company's business or otherwise.
- " (16) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, goodwill and assets of any person or company carrying on or proposing to carry on any of the businesses which the Company is authorised to carry on, and, as part of the consideration for such acquisition, to undertake all or any of the liabilities of such person or company, or to acquire an interest in, amalgamate with or enter into any arrangement for sharing profits, or for co-operation, or for limiting competition, or for mutual assistance, with any such person or company, and to give or accept by way of consideration for any of the acts or things aforesaid, or for any property acquired, any shares, debentures, or securities that may be agreed upon, and to hold and retain, or sell, mortgage, and deal with any shares, debentures or securities so received.
- " (17) To promote any other company for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and undertaking all or any of the liabilities of this Company, or of under-

"taking any business or operations which may appear likely to assist or benefit the Company or to enhance the value of any property or business of the Company; and to place or guarantee the placing of, underwrite, apply for, accept and hold or subscribe the whole or any part of the capital or securities of any such company or to lend money to or guarantee the performance of the contracts of any such company."

- "(18) To sell or otherwise dispose of the whole or any part of the undertaking of the Company, either together or in portions, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and, in particular, for shares, stock, debentures, debenture stock or securities of any company purchasing the same.
- "(19) To distribute among the members of the Company in kind any property of the Company, and in particular any shares, debentures or securities of other companies belonging to this Company, or of which this Company may have the power of disposing.
- "(20) To do all or any of the above things as principals, agents, trustees, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others.
- "(21) To receive the dividends, income, profits and advantages of every description from time to time payable or receivable in respect of the Company's securities and investments, and to apply the same respectively, according to the provisions of the Articles of Association in force for the time being.
- "(22) To remunerate any person or company rendering services to the Company, either by cash payment or by the allotment to him or it of shares or securities of the Company credited as paid up in full or in part or otherwise.
- "(23) To pay all or any expenses incurred in connection with the business of the Company, and to pay commissions to brokers and others for underwriting, placing, selling or guaranteeing the subscription of any shares, debentures, debenture stock or securities of the Company, or of any company promoted by the Company.
- "(24) To effect insurances against risk of loss to the Company.
- "(25) To establish or support or aid in the establishment and support of associations, institutions, funds, trusts, and conveniences calculated to assist the Company in the conduct of its business or to benefit employees or ex-employees of the Company or the dependents or connections of such persons, and to grant pensions and allowances, and to subscribe or guarantee money for charitable or benevolent objects, or for any exhibition or for any public, general or useful object, or for any purpose which the Company may consider conducive to its objects.
- "(26) To do all acts which may seem necessary or convenient for carrying on or transacting any business of the Company, either in a foreign country or colony, or in the United Kingdom, and to do all such other things as may be deemed incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects."

And it is hereby declared that the word "company," except where used in reference to the Company, shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons whether incorporated or unincorporated and whether domiciled in Great Britain or elsewhere; and that the objects specified in each paragraph of this clause shall, except where otherwise expressed in such paragraph, be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company.

On the said Petition their Lordships have been pleased to pronounce the following Interlocutor:—

THE SCOTTISH ONTARIO AND MANITOBA LAND COMPANY LIMITED, INCORPORATED UNDER THE COMPANIES ACTS, 1862, 1867 AND 1877.

INTIMATION is hereby given that on the 7th day of August 1929 a Petition was presented to the Lords of Council and Session (Second Division,—Mr. Antonio, Clerk), at the instance of the above-named Company, under the Companies Consolidation Act, 1908, praying their Lordships to confirm an alteration of the provisions of the Company's Memorandum of Association with respect to its objects, set forth in the Special Resolution of the Company passed on 22nd July 1929 and confirmed on 6th August 1929. The said Special Resolution is as follows:—

MEMORANDUM OF ASSOCIATION.

- "(1) That Sections (4), (5), (6), (7) and (8) of Clause 3 be wholly deleted; and
- "(2) That in addition to the remaining sections, viz. (1), (2) and (3) of Clause 3, there be added the following new Sections, viz. :—
- "(4) To carry on the business of an Investment and Trust Company, and to raise money on such terms and conditions as may be thought desirable, and invest the amount thereof in or upon or otherwise acquire and hold shares, stocks, debentures, debenture stocks, bonds, mortgages, obligations, and securities of any kind issued or guaranteed by any company, corporation or undertaking of whatever nature wherever situated or carrying on business, and shares, stocks, debentures, debenture stocks, bonds, obligations and other securities of the United Kingdom or any British Colony or foreign government or authority supreme, municipal, local or otherwise whether at home or abroad, provided always that not more than one-tenth of the subscribed capital can be invested in any one security, other than mortgages or heritable property in Canada and/or British Government Securities, and that no investment imposing unlimited liability on the Company shall be made.
- "(5) To borrow or raise money or secure the payment of money in such manner and upon such terms and conditions in all respects as the Directors shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock perpetual or otherwise or by mortgage, charge or lien upon the whole or any part of the Company's undertaking, property or assets, including its uncalled capital.
- "(6) To acquire any such securities or investments as aforesaid by original subscription, tender, syndicate, participation, purchase, exchange or otherwise, and whether or not fully paid up, and to make payments thereon as called up, or in advance of calls, or otherwise to acquire any such securities or investments in excess of the moneys for the time being proposed to be invested, and to hold, sell or otherwise dispose of any excess thereof, to subscribe for the same either conditionally or otherwise, and generally to sell, exchange or otherwise to dispose of, deal with or turn to account any of the assets of the Company or any securities or investments of the Company acquired, or agreed so to be, and to invest in or to acquire by repurchase or otherwise any securities or investments of the kind before enumerated, and to vary the securities and investments of the Company from time to time.
- "(7) To constitute any trusts with a view to the issue of preferred, deferred or any other

- "special stocks or securities based on or representing any shares, stocks or other assets specifically appropriated for the purposes of any such trust, and to settle and regulate and, if thought fit, to undertake and execute any such trusts, and to issue, dispose of, or hold any such preferred, deferred or other special stocks or securities.
- "(8) To carry on business as financiers, and to undertake and carry out all such operations and transactions as an individual capitalist may lawfully undertake and carry out.
- "(9) To make advances upon, hold in trust, issue, buy, sell or otherwise acquire and dispose of, on commission or otherwise, any such securities or investments as aforesaid, and upon the securities of landed property, buildings and hereditaments, or any interest therein in the United Kingdom or the Colonies, or in any foreign country or state, or to act as Agents or Trustees for any of the above or the like purposes.
- "(10) To take, make, execute, enter into, commence, carry on, prosecute and defend all steps, contracts, agreements, negotiations, legal and other proceedings, compromises, arrangements and schemes; and to do all other acts, matters and things which shall at any time appear conducive or expedient for the protection of the Company, as holders of or as interested in any such securities and investments as aforesaid, realising such securities and investments, or for obtaining payment of the moneys payable thereon.
- "(11) To make, draw, accept, indorse, issue, discount and otherwise deal with promissory notes, bills of exchange, letters of credit, circular notes, and other mercantile documents or securities.
- "(12) To deal with any bank or banks or others, whether at home or abroad, in the way of placing money on current account or deposit, or to borrow money from such banks, or others.
- "(13) To apply for, promote and obtain any Act or Acts of the Imperial or of the Canadian Parliament or of the Legislature of any of the Canadian Provinces or Territories, or Provisional Order or licence of the Board of Trade or other authority for enabling the Company to carry out its objects or any of them, or for conferring on the Company any additional powers, or for affecting any modification of the Company's Constitution or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any bills, proceedings or applications which may be thought to be directly or indirectly prejudicial to the Company.
- "(14) To appoint a trustee or trustees to hold any property, heritable or moveable, real or personal, on behalf of the Company.
- "(15) To undertake the office of trustee, receiver, or liquidator, whether official or otherwise, executor, administrator, committee, manager, broker, agent, attorney, delegate, substitute or treasurer, and any other offices or situations of trust or confidence, and to perform and discharge the duties and functions incident thereto, and generally to transact all kinds of trust and agency business, either gratuitously or otherwise.
- "(16) To purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire any lands, houses, buildings and other real and personal property, and to erect, construct, lay down, enlarge, alter and maintain any buildings necessary or convenient for the Company's business or otherwise.
- "(17) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, goodwill and assets of any person or company carrying on or proposing to carry on any of the businesses which the Company is authorised to carry on, and, as part of the consideration for such acquisition, to undertake all or any of the liabilities of such person or company, or to acquire an interest in, amalgamate with or enter into any arrangement for sharing profits, or for co-operation, or for limiting competition, or for mutual assistance, with any such person or company, and to - "give or accept by way of consideration for any of the acts or things aforesaid, or for any property acquired, any shares, debentures, or securities that may be agreed upon, and to hold and retain, or sell, mortgage, and deal with any shares, debentures or securities so received.
- "(18) To promote any other company for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and undertaking all or any of the liabilities of this Company, or of undertaking any business or operations which may appear likely to assist or benefit the Company or to enhance the value of any property or business of the Company, and to place or guarantee the placing of, underwrite, apply for, accept and hold or subscribe the whole or any part of the capital or securities of any such company or to lend money to or guarantee the performance of the contracts of any such company.
- "(19) To sell or otherwise dispose of the whole or any part of the undertaking of the Company, either together or in portions, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and, in particular, for shares, stock, debentures, debenture stock or securities of any company purchasing the same.
- "(20) To distribute among the members of the Company in kind any property of the Company, and in particular any shares, debentures or securities of other companies belonging to this Company, or of which this Company may have the power of disposing.
- "(21) To do all or any of the above things as principals, agents, trustees, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others.
- "(22) To receive the dividends, income, profits and advantages of every description from time to time payable or receivable in respect of the Company's securities and investments, and to apply the same respectively, according to the provisions of the Articles of Association in force for the time being.
- "(23) To remunerate any person or company rendering services to the Company, either by cash payment or by the allotment to him or it of shares or securities of the Company credited as paid up in full or in part or otherwise.
- "(24) To pay all or any expenses incurred in connection with the business of the Company, and to pay commissions to brokers and others for underwriting, placing, selling or guaranteeing the subscription of any shares, debentures, debenture stock or securities of the Company, or of any company promoted by the Company.
- "(25) To effect insurances against risk of loss to the Company.
- "(26) To establish or support or aid in the establishment and support of associations, institutions, funds, trusts, and conveniences calculated to assist the Company in the conduct of its business or to benefit employees or ex-employees of the Company or the dependents or connections of such persons, and to grant pensions and allowances, and to subscribe or guarantee money for charitable or benevolent objects, or for any exhibition or for any public, general or useful objects, or for any purpose which the Company may consider conducive to its objects.
- "(27) To do all acts which may seem necessary or convenient for carrying on or transacting any business of the Company, either in a foreign country or colony, or in the United Kingdom, and to do all such other things as may be deemed incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects."

And it is hereby declared that the word "company," except where used in reference to the Company, shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons whether incorporated or unincorporated and whether domiciled in Great Britain or elsewhere; and that the objects specified in each paragraph of this clause shall, except where otherwise expressed in such paragraph, be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company.

On the said Petition their Lordships have been pleased to pronounce the following Interlocutor:—

Edinburgh, 8th August 1929.—The Lord Ordinary officiating on the Bills appoints the Petition to be intimated on the Walls and in the Minute Book in common form; to be advertised once in the Edinburgh Gazette and once in each of the Scotsman and Glasgow Herald newspapers, and allows all persons having or claiming interest to lodge Answers, if so advised, within eight days after such intimations and advertisements.
