

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 15th day of August 1929.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Department of Health for Scotland have, under the powers competent to them under the Burial Grounds (Scotland) Act, 1855, made a Representation that they have received a copy of an Interlocutor of the Sheriff-Substitute of Inverness, Elgin and Nairn, at Fort William, dated 28th February 1929, finding that the Burying Ground at Bunloy, in the Parish of Kilmallie and County of Inverness is being washed away through the erosion of the River Lochy and is otherwise offensive and contrary to decency:

And whereas in the said Representation it is recommended that burials should be forthwith discontinued in the said Burial Ground at Bunloy in terms of Section 5 of the Burial Grounds (Scotland) Act, 1855:

Now, therefore, His Majesty in Council is pleased to give notice of such Representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration on the 2nd day of October next.

And His Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order or Notice thereof, be published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and that copies of this Order, or Notice thereof, be fixed as required by the first-named Act on some conspicuous places within the parish or parishes effected one month before such Representation is considered.

COLIN SMITH.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 15th day of August 1929.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Section 8 (2) of the Dangerous Drugs Act, 1920, power is conferred on His Majesty by Order in Council to declare that Part III. of that Act shall apply to any drug of whatever kind in the same manner as it applies to the drugs mentioned in Section 8 (1) of the Act if it appears to Him that the drug is or is likely to be productive, if improperly used, of ill effects substantially of the same character or nature as or analogous to those produced by morphine or cocaine:

And whereas it appears to His Majesty that esters of morphine and their respective salts and any preparations containing any of the said esters are productive, if improperly used, of ill effects substantially of the same character or nature as or analogous to those produced by morphine or cocaine:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, in pursuance of the powers conferred upon Him by Section 8 (2) of the Dangerous Drugs Act, 1920, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to declare and it is hereby declared, that Part III. of the Dangerous Drugs Act, 1920, shall henceforth apply to esters of morphine and their respective salts and to any preparation, admixture and extract containing any of the said esters.

COLIN SMITH.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 15th day of August 1929.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, in pursuance of the powers conferred upon Him by the Air Navigation Act, 1920, His Majesty in Council was pleased to make the Air Navigation (Consolidation) Order, 1923, and the Air Navigation (Amendment) Order, 1925, the Air Navigation (Amendment) Order, 1927, the Air Navigation (Amendment) Order, 1928, the Air Navigation (Amendment) (No. 2) Order, 1928, the Air Navigation (Amendment) (No. 3) Order, 1928, the Air Navigation (Amendment) (No. 4) Order, 1928, and the Air Navigation (Amendment) Order, 1929, amending the first-mentioned Order:

And whereas it is expedient that the first-mentioned Order as so amended (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Order") should be further amended in manner hereinafter appearing:

And whereas it is necessary on account of the urgency of the matters dealt with by this Order that this Order should come into operation forthwith:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as the Air Navigation (Amendment) (No. 2) Order, 1929, and shall come into operation provisionally as from the date hereof in accordance with the provisions of section two of the Rules Publication Act, 1893.

2. The following paragraph shall be inserted at the end of Schedule VII. to the principal Order:—

" 7.—(1) Where it is brought to the notice of the Secretary of State—

(a) that a large number of persons are likely to gather in any district in Great Britain and Northern Ireland for the purpose of witnessing some event of public interest; or

(b) that it is intended to hold in any district in Great Britain and Northern Ireland an aircraft race or contest or exhibition of flying;

the Secretary of State may by directions impose such temporary restrictions on the flying of aircraft within or in the neighbourhood of that district as he may consider expedient in the interest of public safety, and no aircraft shall fly in contravention of any such directions:

Provided that any such restrictions, in so far as they relate to aircraft other than State aircraft, shall apply to British aircraft and aircraft registered in any other Contracting State without distinction.

(2) Any directions issued under this paragraph shall specify the area or areas to which the restrictions extend and the time or times during which the restrictions are to be in force, and, in the case of restrictions applying only to aircraft of, or other than, any particular class or description, the class
