

chimney, supported the body of Brewis, who was still unconscious. Meanwhile, Whitehead, a painter's labourer aged 17 years, ascended the ladder from the gantry and placed a safety belt around Brewis. Fleming and Whitehead then lifted Brewis into the bosun's chair and secured him there by the hook of the safety belt. In doing so, Fleming's body was inclined at an angle of about 60 degrees to the vertical ladder. Fleming and Whitehead then came down the ladder steadying and supporting Brewis while the chair was lowered by other workmen to the gantry.

Both Fleming and Whitehead incurred serious risks and displayed conspicuous gallantry and resource in effecting the successful rescue of Brewis.

SCHEDULE.

PROPOSED VARIATION OF OVERTIME RATES.

The Trade Board Propose to Vary the Overtime Rates for Male and Female Workers by providing that the following words be substituted for the words "the days allowed as holidays under Section 35 of the Factory and Workshop Act, 1901," contained in the Proviso to Section 1 and in Section II. (3) of Part III. of the above-mentioned Notice F. (11):—

"Customary Public and Statutory Holidays (so far as it is lawful under the Factory and Workshop Acts and any other legislation governing employment for the worker to work during such time)."

Pursuant to Section 3 (5) of the Trade Boards Act, 1918, the Trade Board will consider any Objections to the above Proposal to Vary which may be lodged with them within two months from the 29th day of July 1930. Such objections should be in writing and signed by the person making the same (adding his or her full name and address), and should be sent to the Secretary, Sugar Confectionery and Food Preserving Trade Board (Great Britain), 1

Whitehall Gardens, London, S.W.1. It is desirable that the Objections should state precisely, and, so far as possible, with reasons, what is objected to.

F. POPPLEWELL, Secretary.
