

reasonable probability that the article will within a reasonable period be made in His Majesty's Dominions in such substantial quantities.

And whereas, by the Safeguarding of Industries (Exemption) No. 4 Order, 1929, (a) made by the Treasury the article specified in the Schedule to this Order was, inter alia, exempted from the duty imposed by Section 1 of the Safeguarding of Industries Act, 1921, as amended by the Finance Act, 1926, for a period ending on the 31st December 1930.

And whereas the Board of Trade are satisfied on representations by consumers of the article specified in the Schedule to this Order that this article is not made in any part of His Majesty's Dominions in quantities which are substantial having regard to the consumption of this article for the time being in the United Kingdom, and that there is no reasonable probability that this article will, within a reasonable period, be made in His Majesty's Dominions, in such substantial quantities.

Now therefore we, being two of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, in pursuance of the powers conferred on us by the said Section 10 of the Finance Act, 1926, and of all other powers enabling us in that behalf, hereby order as follows:—

1. The article mentioned in the Schedule to this Order shall continue to be exempt from the duty imposed by Section 1 of the Safeguarding of Industries Act, 1921, as amended by the Finance Act, 1926, from the expiration of the period prescribed by the above-mentioned Order until the 30th day of June 1931, inclusive.

2. This Order may be cited as the Safeguarding of Industries (Exemption) No. 4 Order, 1930.

Dated this 17th day of December 1930.
