TENDERS FOR TREASURY BILLS.

1. The Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury hereby give notice that Tenders will be received at the Chief Cashier's Office, at the Bank of England, on Friday, the 16th January 1931, at 1 o'clock, for Treasury Bills to be issued under the Treasury Bills Act, 1877, the National Debt Act, 1889, and the War Loan Acts, 1914-1919, to the amount of £30,000,000.

2. The Bills will be in amounts of £5000 or £10,000. They will be dated at the option of the Tenderer on any business day from Monday the 19th January 1931 to Saturday the 24th January 1931, inclusive, and will be payable at three months after date.

3. The Bills will be issued and paid at the Bank of England.

4. Each Tender must be for an amount not less than £50,000, and must specify the date on which the Bills required are to be dated, and the net amount per cent. (being an even multiple of one penny) which will be given for the amount applied for. Separate Tenders must be lodged for Bills of different dates.

5. Tenders must be made through a London Banker, Discount House or Broker.

6. The persons whose Tenders are accepted will be informed of the same not later than the following day, and payment in full of the amounts of the accepted tenders must be made to the Bank of England by means of Cash or a Banker's Draft on the Bank of England not later than 2 o'clock (Saturday 12 o'clock) on the day of which the relative Bills are to be dated.

7. In virtue of the provisions of Section 1 (4) of the War Loan Act, 1919, Members of the House of Commons are not precluded from tendering for these Bills.

8. Tenders must be made on the printed forms which may be obtained from the Chief Cashier's Office, Bank of England.

9. The Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury reserve the right of rejecting any Tenders.

SILICOSIS AND ASBESTOSIS.

WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION.

The Home Secretary gives notice that, in pursuance of his powers under Section 47 of the Workmen's Compensation Act, 1925, as extended by the Workmen's Compensation (Silicosis and Asbestosis) Act, 1930, he proposes to make a Scheme (which may be cited as the Silicosis and Asbestosis (Medical Arrangements) Scheme, 1931) to provide for the appointment of a Medical Board to give the necessary certificates in all cases where compensation is claimed for silicosis or asbestosis, and to carry out periodic medical examinations of workers employed in certain specified processes involving exposure to silica or asbestos dust.

The Home Secretary further gives notice that he proposes at the same time to amend the Metal Grinding Industries (Silicosis) Scheme, 1927, and the Various Industries (Silicosis) Scheme, 1928, with a view (1) to provide for the certification by the Medical Board of cases arising under these Schemes, and (2) to extend the right to compensation to workmen who, though not totally disabled, are found on examination by the Medical Board to be suffering from the disease to such a degree as to make it dangerous for them to continue in the employment, and are for that reason suspended by the Board from employment.

The Home Secretary further proposes to make a Scheme (to be cited as the Asbestos Industry (Asbestosis) Scheme, 1931) to provide for the payment of compensation by employers of workmen employed in certain processes involving exposure to asbestos dust.

Copies of the Draft Schemes can be obtained on application to the Industrial Division, Home Office, Whitehall, S.W.1.

Any employers, or others affected, who may desire to submit any observations upon the Draft Schemes for consideration of the Secretary of State, are asked to do so in writing to the Under Secretary of State, Home Office, Whitehall, London, S.W.1, within 30 days from the date of this notice.
