

UNDER CLAUSE 10 (B) OF THE GENERAL REGULATIONS.

War Office: Established Civilian Employé—Carey William Wiltshire.

UNDER CLAUSE 10 (C) OF THE GENERAL REGULATIONS.

Post Office: Writing Assistant, Bristol—Mary Kathleen Williams.

June 12, 1931.

AFTER OPEN COMPETITION.

Shorthand Typists—Margaret Marjoribanks Bremner, Wilhelmina Mary Fowler, Minnie Isabel Maden, Lily Pywell.

Typist—Ellen Elizabeth Underwood.

Writing Assistant—Winifred Daisy M'Dowell.

Admiralty: Departmental Clerical Class—Cyril Arthur Wright.

Customs and Excise Department: Male Assistant Preventive Officer—William Edgar Smith Steele.

Inland Revenue: Tax Clerks—William Arthur Dorrien Buchanan, Ronald Singleton, Donald Allan Theedom.

Ministry of Labour: Departmental Clerical Class (Women)—Kathleen Millicent Norris.

Lord Chancellor's Department: Clerks in County Courts—Charles John Brown, Alexander M'Kenzie Robertson.

Post Office: Female Sorting Assistant, London—Kathleen Mary Johnson.

Female Telegraphist, London—Grace Gladly Langdon.

Male Sorting Clerk and Telegraphist, Harrow and Wembley—Michael Martin Thomas Forde.

AFTER LIMITED COMPETITION.

British Museum, Bloomsbury: Assistant Keeper Second Class—Bernard Hugo Uniacke Loftus Townshend.

Ministry of Health: Professional Legal Clerk—John Reginald Brayley Hodgetts.

Post Office: Male Sorters, London—Thomas Wilfred Lawson, William George Saunders.

Female Telegraphists, London—Winifred May Christmas, Nora Louisa Roach.

AFTER LIMITED COMPETITION AND UNDER CLAUSE 8 OF THE GENERAL REGULATIONS.

Office of Works: Superintendent of Richmond Park—Arthur Edward Wilson.

WITHOUT COMPETITION.

Admiralty: H.M. Dockyards and Naval Establishments, Shipwright—Arthur Robert Bugler.

Prison Service, England and Wales: Subordinate Officer (Male)—Thomas Edward Corns.

War Office: Mate in the War Department Fleet—Arthur Robert Turp.

Office of Works: Parkkeeper in one of the Royal Parks—Henry Michael Barton.

Post Office: Draughtsman—Alfred Wilson.

Contract Officer—James Hamilton Hogg. Female Sorting Clerk and Telegraphist, Pocklington, York—Kathleen Saltmarsh Youhill.

Skilled Workmen—Albert Edward Jarrett, William James Maynard, Ernest Albert Spriggs, Frederick Hiram Swift.

Storemen in the Stores Department, London—Edward Stanley Moore, John Thomas Murphy, Robert George Prime.

Telephonist, London—Doris Marjorie Davies.

Telephonists—Lilian Hough (Manchester), Margaret M'Donald (Aberdeen).

Postmen or Porters, London—Henry Brown, George Leslie Hunt, Herbert Leahy, Leonard George Mullett, Horace Noble, Joseph Henry Thomas Poulton, George Edwin Price, Frederick Charles Rayner, Frederick Smith, Leonard Richard Vincent White.

Postmen—Charles Knight (Hounslow), Alfred Sydney Mitchell (Manchester), James Olieff (Stevenage, Hitchin).

Temporary Postman-Messenger — Guy Theobald.

UNDER CLAUSE 3 OF THE GENERAL REGULATIONS.

Ministry of Health: Messenger—Edward Thomas Russell.

UNDER THE SECOND PROVISO OF CLAUSE 4 OF THE GENERAL REGULATIONS.

Post Office: Storeman in the Stores Department, London—William Frederick Whiter.

UNDER CLAUSE 10 (B) OF THE GENERAL REGULATIONS.

War Office: Established Civilian Employé—Edward John Henderson, James Pearce.

Post Office: Skilled Workman—Charley Cole.

June 13, 1931.

AFTER OPEN COMPETITION.

Clerical Class—Alfred Thomas Williams.

Shorthand Typists—Evelyn Lena Charman, Winifred May Hann, Frances Alice Prosses.

Customs and Excise Department: Male Assistant and Preventive Officer—John Bulloch Andrews.

Government Actuary's Department: Actuarial Assistant—Charles Edward Clarke.

Inland Revenue: Tax Clerk—William Donald Coughtrie.

Lord Chancellor's Department: Clerk in County Courts—Edgar John Hunter.

Post Office: Male Sorting Clerk and Telegraphist, Swindon—William Francis George Edwards.

AFTER LIMITED COMPETITION.

British Museum, Bloomsbury: Assistant Keeper, Second Class—Theodore Cressy Skeat.

Post Office: Female Telegraphists, London