

GLASGOW WINTER CIRCUIT.

1932.

The Hon. LORD HUNTER and
The Hon. LORD MONCRIEFF.

Monday, 12th December 1932, at eleven o'clock.

T. M. TAYLOR, Esq.,
Advocate-Depute.

Messrs. ALEXANDER RAE and
V. S. M. MARSHALL, Clerks.

The Home Secretary gives notice that in pursuance of Section 2 (1) of the Employment of Women, Young Persons and Children Act, 1920, he has made an Order authorising the employment on two day-shifts, of male young persons of 16 years of age and over in the colour shop, finishing department and baling house at the Devonvale Mill of Messrs. Samuel Jones & Company (Devonvale) Limited, Tillicoultry, Clackmannanshire, subject to the conditions that, apart from any arrangements that may be made to meet the convenience of individual workers, a worker shall not be employed in the afternoon shift in consecutive weeks; and that suitable accommodation for clothing put off during working hours, washing facilities and, for those employed in the colour shop, protective clothing shall be provided.

Whitehall,
29th October 1932.

*Civil Service Commission,
November 1, 1932.*

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations are published with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, viz. :—

REGULATIONS FOR A SPECIAL COMPETITION BY
SELECTION FOR THE APPOINTMENT OF ASSISTANT
ENGINEERS (MALE) IN THE ENGINEERING
DEPARTMENT OF THE POST OFFICE.

N.B.—These regulations are intended to apply to the forthcoming competition only.

1. Candidates must have attained the age of 25 and must not have attained the age of 30 on the 1st September 1932. In reckoning age for this purpose candidates who have served or are serving in the Army, Navy or Air Force may deduct from their actual age any time not exceeding five years during which they have served.

2. Every candidate must be a natural-born British subject, the child of a person who is or was at the time of death a British subject; provided that exception may be made in the case of natural-born British subjects who have satisfactorily completed a period of not less than five years' service on full pay in His Majesty's Regular Forces.

Provided also that if the Civil Service Commissioners are satisfied in the case of any candidate who is a British subject but does not fulfil all the requirements of the rule as to nationality and descent, that the candidate is so closely connected by ancestry and upbringing with his Majesty's dominions that an exception may properly be made to that rule, they may accept such candidate as eligible provided that this discretion shall not be exercisable unless (a) the father or the paternal grandfather of the candidate was a natural-born British subject, and (b) neither the father nor the paternal grandfather had acquired any other nationality by naturalization or by any other voluntary and formal act.

3. Other things being equal preference will be given to candidates who served in His Majesty's Forces during the War between the 4th August 1914 and the 11th November 1918.

4. Persons holding situations in the Civil Service must obtain the permission of the authorities of their Department to apply for appointment.

No person actually serving in the Navy, Army or Air Force will be eligible for consideration unless he produces, when called upon to do so, the permission of his Commanding Officer to apply for appointment, dated before his appearance before the Selection Board, and given in accordance with such orders as may from time to time be issued.

Persons upon whose training for the occupation of teacher public money has been spent, cannot be appointed until the consent of the appropriate education authority has been notified to the Civil Service Commissioners.

5. Applications for admission to the competition must be made at such time and in such manner as the Civil Service Commissioners may appoint.

6. The Civil Service Commissioners will take such steps as they think most appropriate to announce the competition.

7. In order to be eligible for appointment candidates must have passed an examination qualifying for a degree with high qualifications in either engineering or physics. They must also have had experience of development or research work in telephone transmission and engineering covering one or more of the following items :—

- Audio frequency electrical measurements.
- Transmission measurements.
- Microphones and receivers.
- Telephone repeaters.
- Carrier systems.
- Voice frequency systems.
- Electrical filters.
- Acoustic measurements.
- Power interference.
- Electrolytic damage.
- Telephone cables.
- Radio telephones.

8. When the list of applications has been closed, the credentials of all the candidates will be examined by the Civil Service Commissioners, who may, if they so desire, invite the assistance of officers of the General Post Office; and those candidates who appear to have the requisite qualifications and to be best fitted for appointment will be summoned to an interview before a Selection Board, who will recommend, for the vacancies existing, those candi-
