FRIDAY, JUNE 2, 1933.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 25th day of May 1933.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS in pursuance of the powers conferred upon Him by the Air Navigation Act, 1920, His Majesty in Council was pleased to make the Air Navigation (Consolidation) Order, 1923, and the Air Navigation (Amendment) Order, 1925, the Air Navigation (Amendment) Order, 1927, the Air Navigation (Amendment) Order, 1928, the Air Navigation (Amendment) (No. 2) Order, 1928, the Air Navigation (Amendment) (No. 3) Order, 1928, the Air Navigation (Amendment) (No. 4) Order, 1928, the Air Navigation (Amendment) (No. 2) Order, 1929, the Air Navigation (Amendment) (No. 3) Order, 1929, the Air Navigation (Amendment) Order, 1930, the Air Navigation (Amendment) (No. 2) Order, 1930, the Air Navigation (Amendment) (No. 3) Order, 1930, the Air Navigation (Amendment) Order, 1931, the Air Navigation (Amendment) Order, 1932, and the Air Navigation (Amendment) (No. 2) Order, 1932, amending the first-mentioned Order:

And whereas it is expedient that the first-mentioned Order as so amended (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Order") should be further amended in manner hereinafter appearing:

And whereas it is necessary on account of the urgency of the matters dealt with by this

Order that this Order should come into operation forthwith:

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. The following paragraph shall be substituted for paragraph (3) of Article nine of the principal Order:—

"(3) Whenever an aircraft registered in Great Britain and Northern Ireland is carrying passengers for hire or reward—

(a) the owner of the aircraft shall cause to be exhibited and kept exhibited in a conspicuous place in the aircraft a legible notice stating whether and to what extent smoking is permitted in the aircraft; and

(b) no person shall smoke in the aircraft unless, or except in so far as, smoking is stated by the notice to be permitted.

No notice exhibited in an aircraft for the purpose of the foregoing provisions of this paragraph shall state that smoking is permitted therein unless, or except in so far as, smoking therein is authorised by the aircraft's certificate of airworthiness or by the permission in writing of the Secretary of State.

No person shall smoke in an aircraft registered in Great Britain and Northern Ireland when it is not carrying passengers for hire or reward unless, or except in so far as, smoking therein is authorised by the aircraft's certificate of airworthiness or by the permission in writing of the Secretary of State."

2. The following paragraph shall be inserted at the end of Article nine of the principal Order:—

“(5) Subject to the provisions of this paragraph, when an aircraft is flying within Great Britain and Northern Ireland, no person shall at any time be carried on the wings or undercarriage of the aircraft, or on or in any other part thereof which is not designed for the accommodation of the personnel or passengers, or on or in anything attached to the aircraft:

Provided that—

(a) nothing in this paragraph shall prevent a person having temporary access—

(i.) to any part of the aircraft for the purpose of executing repairs to the aircraft or adjusting the machinery or equipment thereof or for the purpose of doing anything which may be necessary for the safety of the aircraft or persons or goods carried therein; or

(ii.) to any part of the aircraft in which goods or stores are being carried and to which proper means of access is provided; and

(b) a person may be carried on or in any part of the aircraft, or anything attached thereto, with the permission in writing of the Secretary of State and subject to any conditions which may be attached to that permission.”

3.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Air Navigation (Amendment) Order, 1933.

(2) This Order shall come in operation provisionally as from the date hereof in accordance with the provisions of Section two of the Rules Publication Act, 1893.

M. P. A. HANKEY.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 25th day of May 1933.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS by the Dangerous Drugs Act, 1932, the Dangerous Drugs Acts, 1920 to 1925 (10-1 G. 5, c. 46, 13-4 G. 5, c. 5, and 15 and 16 G. 5, c. 74), were amended so far as is necessary to enable effect to be given to the International Convention for Limiting the Manufacture and Regulating the Distribution of Narcotic Drugs signed at Geneva on behalf of His Majesty on the 13th day of July 1931, and it was further provided that the Act should come into operation on such date as His Majesty might by Order in Council appoint:

And whereas under the terms of Article 30 of the said Convention, the Convention will come into force on the 9th day of July 1933:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, in pursuance of the powers conferred upon Him is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to appoint and it is hereby appointed that the Dangerous Drugs Act, 1932, shall come into operation on the 9th day of July 1933.

M. P. A. HANKEY.

MERCHANDISE MARKS ACT, 1926.

REFERENCE TO THE STANDING COMMITTEE.

In accordance with the provisions of Sub-section (4) of Section 2 of the Merchandise Marks Act, 1926, the Board of Trade give notice that, in pursuance of an application received by them for the making of an Order in Council to require imported goods of certain classes and descriptions to bear an indication of origin, they have made a reference to the Standing Committee appointed by them under the Act in respect of the following classes and descriptions of imported goods:—

- (1) Pipes for smoking tobacco made wholly or mainly of wood;
- (2) Wooden tobacco pipe bowls with drilled stems.

The reference previously made to the Standing Committee in respect of imported briar pipes, stained or unstained, and briar bowls, stained or unstained, is annulled.

ROAD TRAFFIC ACT, 1930.

Notice is hereby given that, in pursuance of the powers conferred upon him by Section 19 (3) of the Road Traffic Act, 1930 (hereinafter called "the Act"), the Minister of Transport has made an Order under the title of "The Road Traffic Act, 1930 (Variation of Provisions of Section 19) (No. 2) Order, 1933," which Order contains the following provisions:—

1. Paragraph (i.) of Sub-section (1) of Section 19 of the Act shall be varied so as to provide that in the case of a public service vehicle where in any period of 24 hours one period of duty only is worked not exceeding $8\frac{1}{2}$ hours in length, then the limit of $8\frac{1}{2}$ hours may be substituted for the limit of $5\frac{1}{2}$ hours imposed by the said paragraph in respect of a continuous period of driving if the driver of the vehicle is allowed intervals of time for signing on and off and for looking over the vehicle before the vehicle leaves and after the vehicle returns to the garage, and for lay-over to an extent which in the aggregate is not less than 45 minutes, provided that where the continuous period of duty does not exceed 8 hours the allowed intervals of time need not exceed 40 minutes.

2. Paragraph (i.) of Sub-section (1) of Section 19 of the Act shall be varied so as to provide that in the case of a public service vehicle where in any period of 24 hours not more than two periods of duty are worked the aggregate duration of which does not exceed $8\frac{1}{2}$ hours in length, then the limit of $6\frac{1}{2}$ hours may be substituted for the limit of $5\frac{1}{2}$ hours imposed by the said paragraph in respect of a continuous period of driving if the driver of the vehicle is allowed intervals of time for signing on and off and for looking over the vehicle before the vehicle leaves and after the vehicle returns to the garage, and for lay-over to an extent which, distributed over both periods of duty, amounts in the aggregate to not less than 45 minutes, provided that the driver has at least 12 consecutive hours for rest in the period of 24 hours calculated from the commencement of the first period of driving.

3. Paragraph (iii.) of Sub-section (1) of Section 19 of the Act shall be varied so as to provide that if between any two periods of driving an express carriage or contract carriage there is an interval of not less than four consecutive hours at a destination during which the driver of the vehicle is able to obtain rest and refreshment, the period of 8 consecutive hours may be substituted for the period of 10 consecutive hours for rest on one day in any period of 7 consecutive days, or on two days in any period of 7 consecutive days if the said period includes a Bank Holiday.

4. The proviso to Sub-section (1) of Section 19 of the Act shall be varied so as to provide in the case of a stage carriage that on one day in any period of 7 consecutive days, or on two days in any period of 7 consecutive days if the said period includes a Bank Holiday, the period of 8 consecutive hours may be substituted for the period of 9 consecutive hours for rest if the driver has an interval of at least twelve consecutive hours for rest on the day next following any day on which he has not had nine consecutive hours for rest.

The Order came into operation on 1st June 1933, and is to remain in force until 31st May 1935.

Copies of the Order can be obtained forthwith from the Assistant Secretary, Roads Department, Ministry of Transport, 7 Whitehall Gardens, London, S.W.1, and, as soon as it is printed, directly from H.M.
