

Representation was given and it was ordered that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council on the 6th day of April 1935, and that the said Order, or Notice thereof, should be published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and that copies of the said Order or Notice thereof should be fixed on the doors of the Church of, or on some other conspicuous places within the said Parish of Carnock, one month before the said 6th day of April 1935:

And whereas Notice of the said Representation and of the time when it pleased His Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council has been duly published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and fixed in manner required by the said Order in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered as follows, viz.:—

That burials be forthwith discontinued, in terms of Section 5 of the Burial Grounds (Scotland) Act, 1855, in the old Churchyard of Cairneyhill, situated in the village of Cairneyhill, Parish of Carnock, and County of Fife, except for the reservation of a right of burial in the said Churchyard in the cases of:—

- (1) Spouses of parties already interred in the said Churchyard;
- (2) Unmarried children of parties already interred therein;
- (3) Parents of children already interred therein;
- (4) George Duncan Fyfe, foreman railway surfaceman, and Mrs. Mary Young or Fyfe, his wife, both of Cairneyhill aforesaid.

Provided always as regards future interments that the exercise of the right of burial be not injurious to public health or offensive or contrary to decency; that notice be given to the District Sanitary Inspector not later than the day preceding that on which a grave is to be opened and that no interment shall be made unless the coffin can be laid at a depth of four feet from the surface of the ground to the upper side of the coffin and that without interference with the remains of a previous interment.

M. P. A. HANKEY.
