FRIDAY, DECEMBER 27, 1935.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 20th day of December 1935.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Treaty of Peace Act, 1919, it is provided that His Majesty may make such Orders in Council and do such things as appear to him to be necessary for carrying out the Treaty of Peace signed at Versailles on the twenty-eighth day of June nineteen hundred and nineteen, and for giving effect to any of the provisions of the said Treaty:

And whereas His Majesty in Council was pleased to make the Treaty of Peace (Covenant of the League of Nations) Order, 1935, the Treaty of Peace (Covenant of the League of Nations) (No. 2) Order, 1935, and the Treaty of Peace (Covenant of the League of Nations) (No. 3) Order, 1935, for the purpose of carrying out the said Treaty and giving effect to the Covenant of the League of Nations contained in Part I. thereof:

And whereas for the purpose aforesaid it is expedient to make such further provision as is hereinafter contained;

Now, therefore, His Majesty by and with the advice of His Privy Council is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered as follows:—

Reduction of duty on certain Yugoslav goods.

1.—(1) Notwithstanding anything in the Import Duties Act, 1932, or any order for the time being in force made (whether before or after the date of this Order) under the said Act, any additional duty chargeable under the said Act on dead domestic poultry shall not be charged on any such poultry being fowls (other than guinea fowls) or turkeys produced in the Kingdom of Yugoslavia and imported into the United Kingdom on or after the twenty-fourth day of December nineteen hundred and thirty-five, accompanied by a quota certificate.

(2) There shall be charged on dead domestic poultry, being such fowls or turkeys as aforesaid, in lieu of the general ad valorem duty, a duty of one penny per pound weight, and references in any enactment to the general ad valorem duty or to duty chargeable under the Import Duties Act, 1932, or under Part I. thereof, shall, unless the context otherwise requires, be deemed to include, in relation to such poultry, a reference to the duty chargeable under this paragraph.

(3) Notwithstanding anything in the Ottawa Agreements Act, 1932, or the Import Duties Act, 1932, no customs duty shall be chargeable under either of those Acts on eggs in shell produced in the Kingdom of Yugoslavia and imported into the United Kingdom on or after the twenty-fourth day of December nineteen hundred and thirty-five accompanied by a quota certificate.

(4) In this Article the expression "quota certificate" in relation to goods of any description means a certificate issued, in such form and containing such particulars as the Board of Trade may direct, by a person approved for the purpose by the Board of Trade, certifying that the goods form part of the quantity of goods of that description which may be imported by virtue of this Article free of additional duty or free of duty, as the case may be, and that the goods were produced in the Kingdom of Yugoslavia, but—

(a) the quantity of turkeys in respect of which such certificates are issued shall not exceed sixty thousand hundredweights in any period of twelve months, or thirty thousand hundredweights in the period commencing on the date of this Order and ending on the thirty-first day of March nineteen hundred and thirty-six; and

(b) the quantity of fowls or eggs in shell in respect of which such certificates are issued shall not exceed twenty thousand hundredweights in any period of twelve months or three thousand hundredweights in any month.

(5) This Article shall be deemed to be an Act relating to the Customs within the meaning of the Customs Consolidation Act, 1876, and shall be construed as one with that Act, so, however, that in this Article the expression "the United Kingdom" shall not include the Isle of Man.

(6) In this Article references to any enactment shall be construed as references to that enactment as amended by any subsequent enactment.

Provision as to bacon produced in Yugoslavia.

2. If and so long as any order for the time being in force made (whether before or after the date of this Order) under section one of the Agricultural Marketing Act, 1933, contains provisions—

(a) that it shall not be lawful to import into the United Kingdom, except under licence, bacon produced in any foreign country in respect of which a declaration made by the Board of Trade under the order has come into force; and

(b) that such a declaration shall or may be made if the rate of importation into the United Kingdom of bacon produced in any foreign country exceeds such rate as is specified in the order;

the provisions aforesaid shall have effect, as respects bacon produced in the Kingdom of Yugoslavia, as if for the rate of importation so specified there were substituted the rate of six hundred and twenty-five hundredweights per week.

Short title and interpretation.

3.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Treaty of Peace (Covenant of the League of Nations) (No. 4) Order, 1935.

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889, as amended by any subsequent enactment, applies to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.
