And We do further by this Our Royal Proclamation

signify and declare that We do for Ourselves and for Our dearly beloved Consort the Queen dispense, upon the Occasion of this Our Coronation, with the Services and Attendance of all Persons who do claim and are bound to do and perform any Services which, according to ancient Custom or Usage, are to be performed in Westminster Hall or in the Procession. And We do hereby, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, declare and make known to all such of Our loving Subjects as it may concern, that it seems good to Us that the Committee of Claims shall, upon the Occasion of this Our Coronation, exclude from their Consideration as well such Claims as may be submitted to them in respect of Rights or Services connected with the Parts of the Ceremonial in Times past performed in Westminster Hall and with the Procession as also such Petitions and Claims as have been received, heard and determined by the Committee of Claims appointed and authorized by the Commission under the Great Seal of the Realm bearing date the twenty-eighth Day of May last, save in so far as to the Committee of Claims authorized and appointed by Us as in this Our Proclamation hereinbefore recited, it may appear that any such Petition or Claim should rightly be by them received, heard and determined by reason of any Change of Tenure of any Petitioner or of any Change in the Nature of the Service to be performed. And We do hereby declare that any Determination made by the said former Committee of Claims shall have effect and hold good as if the Petition or Claim concerned had been heard and determined by the Committee of Claims appointed and authorized by Our aforesaid Commission under Our Great Seal of the Realm. And We do, by this Our Royal Proclamation, strictly charge and command all Our loving Subjects whom it may concern that all Persons, of what Rank or Quality soever they be, who either upon Our Letters to them directed, or by reason of their Offices and Tenures, or otherwise, are to do any Service at the time of Our Coronation, other than Service anciently done and performed in Westminster Hall or in the Procession, do duly give their Attendance at the said Solemnity on Wednesday the Twelfth Day of May next, in all respects furnished and appointed as to so great a Solemnity appertaineth and answerable to the Dignities and Places which every one of them respectively holdeth and enjoyeth, and of this they or any of them are not to fail, as they will answer the contrary at their Perils, unless upon special Reasons by Ourselves under Our Hand to be allowed, We shall dispense with any of their Services or Attendances.
