*Civil Service Commission,

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations are published with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, viz.:—

REGULATIONS RESPECTING A SPECIAL COMPETITION FOR APPOINTMENT AS SECOND CLASS CLERK IN HIS MAJESTY'S GENERAL REGISTER HOUSE, EDINBURGH.

1. It is proposed to make at least one appointment—for duty in the Record Office—on the result of this competition, provided a candidate is recommended by the Selection Board as suitable for appointment.

The Keeper of the Registers and Records will take such steps as he thinks most appropriate to announce the competition, and the Civil Service Commissioners will satisfy themselves that the steps taken have been such as to secure all desirable publicity.

2. Applications for appointment must be made to the Keeper of the Registers and Records on the prescribed form not later than the 29th July 1937.

3. Candidates must have attained 21 years of age and must not have attained 30 years of age on the 29th July 1937.

Women candidates must be unmarried or widows and will normally be required to resign their appointments on marriage; but exception to the rule requiring resignation on marriage may, in individual circumstances, be made where the employment of a married woman is considered advisable in the light of her special qualifications, or special experience in relation to the duties required of her, or of the special requirements of the Department.

4. Candidates for appointment to the Register House under these Regulations are normally required, where the appointment to be filled is in the Sasines Office, to have passed the examination qualifying for admission as an apprentice to a Law Agent, or an examination of a standard accepted as equivalent by the Civil Service Commissioners and to have served in the office of a Conveyancer practising in Scotland for a period of at least five years after age 16, with the proviso that this period may be relaxed in the case of any candidate who has qualified by examination for a university degree in law.

For appointment to the Record Office, candidates without the above qualifications will be accepted, provided they show that they have received such systematic education, general and or technical, as in the opinion of the Civil Service Commissioners fits them for the post. In general, candidates for this vacancy should possess a university degree in arts or other equivalent qualification, and should have special qualifications for historical research and preferably some experience in such research.

Evidence on these points must be sent in at such times and in such manner as may be appointed.

5. Every candidate must be a natural-born British subject, the child of a person who is or was at the time of death a British subject; provided that exception may be made in the case of natural-born British subjects who have satisfactorily completed a period of not less than five years' service on full pay in His Majesty's Regular Forces.

Provided also that if the Civil Service Commissioners are satisfied, in the case of any candidate who is a British subject but does not fulfil all the requirements of the rule as to nationality and descent, that the candidate is so closely connected by ancestry and upbringing with His Majesty's dominions that an exception may properly be made to that rule, they may accept such candidate as eligible provided that this discretion shall not be exercisable unless (a) the father or the paternal grandfather of the candidate was a natural-born British subject, and (b) neither the father nor the paternal grandfather had acquired any other nationality by naturalisation or by any other voluntary and formal act.

6. Persons holding situations in the Civil Service must obtain the permission of the authorities of their Department to apply for appointment.

No person actually serving in the Army, Navy, or Air Force will be eligible for consideration unless he produces, when called upon to do so, the permission of his Commanding Officer to apply for appointment, dated before his appearance before the Selection Board, and given in accordance with such orders as may from time to time be issued.

Persons upon whose training for the occupation of teacher public money has been spent cannot be appointed until the consent of the appropriate education authority has been notified to the Civil Service Commissioners.

7. The Keeper of the Registers and Records will examine the candidates' credentials, and will submit to the Civil Service Commissioners the names of those candidates who appear to have the requisite qualifications and to be best fitted for appointment. The Civil Service Commissioners, if dissatisfied with the number or quality of candidates may require further search to be made for qualified candidates. The Civil Service Commissioners may, if they think fit, assist in the scrutiny of the application forms of the candidates.

The Civil Service Commissioners may submit any or all of the candidates to a qualifying examination as to educational qualifications.

8. Candidates who are recommended by the Keeper of the Registers and Records and are accepted by the Civil Service Commissioners as possessing the requisite qualifications will be summoned to an interview before a Selection Board in Edinburgh, who will recommend for the vacancy existing the candidate who appears to them to possess the highest qualifications, and the decision of the Selection Board will be final. The Selection Board will be constituted by the Keeper of the Registers and Records, who will preside over the Board, in consultation with the Civil Service Commissioners, who will be represented on the Board. The Board will take into consideration the candidate's record of experience and education, any recommendations that they may receive from persons named by candidates as having direct knowledge of their work in the past, and the personal qualities of the candidate as shown at this interview; and on their estimation of all the above evidence they will frame their decisions.

9. The appointment of selected candidates will be subject to their satisfying the Civil Service Commissioners of their eligibility in respect of age, nationality, health, and character, and will not be confirmed unless and until they have passed the prescribed period of probation to the satisfaction of the Department.

10. A candidate selected for appointment will be required to pay a fee of £5 10s.

11. Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support for their applications through Members of Parliament or other influential persons will disqualify them for appointment. The Selection Board will disregard spontaneous recommendations from persons who are not personally acquainted with the candidate's work, whether at school, at the university, in industry or business, in the Forces, or otherwise.
