

interview before a Selection Board, who will recommend for the vacancies existing those candidates who appear to them to possess the highest qualifications, and their decision will be final. The Selection Board will be constituted by the Board of Trade in consultation with the Civil Service Commissioners. It will consist of representatives of the Board of Trade and the Civil Service Commissioners and will include two of the senior Nautical Advisers of the Board of Trade. The Selection Board will take into consideration the candidates' professional qualifications, record of experience, recommendations that they may receive from persons named by candidates as having direct knowledge of their work in the past, and the personal qualities of the candidates as shown at the interview. On their estimation of all the above evidence the Selection Board will frame their decisions.

8. The appointment of selected candidates will be subject to their satisfying the Civil Service Commissioners of their eligibility in respect of age, nationality, health, and character, and will not be confirmed unless and until they have passed a prescribed period of probation to the satisfaction of the Board of Trade.

9. Candidates selected for appointment will be required to pay a fee of £8.

10. Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support for their applications, other than is provided in paragraph 7 above, through Members of Parliament or other influential persons will disqualify them for appointment. The Selection Board will disregard spontaneous recommendations from persons who are not personally acquainted with the candidate's work, whether at school, at the University, in industry or business, in the Forces, or otherwise.
