

ORDER MADE BY THE CORPORATION OF THE CITY OF GLASGOW UNDER SECTION 32 (1) OF THE PUBLIC HEALTH (SCOTLAND) ACT, 1897.

WHEREAS by Sub-section (1) of Section 32 of the Public Health (Scotland) Act, 1897, it is provided that if any person after the commencement of this Act establishes, without the sanction of the Local Authority, the businesses therein referred to, or any of them or any other business which the Local Authority may declare, by order confirmed by the Department of Health for Scotland to be an offensive business, he shall be liable to the penalty therein prescribed:

And whereas the Corporation of the City of Glasgow (hereinafter referred to as "the Corporation" and "the City" respectively) are the Local Authority of the City of Glasgow under the said Act:

And whereas it is expedient that the provisions of the said section in its application to the City should be extended to include the business of extractor or producer of oil from fish or fish offal:

Now, therefore, the Corporation as the Local Authority foresaid, in pursuance of the powers conferred on them by the Public Health (Scotland) Act, 1897, do hereby by this their Order declare the business of extractor or producer of oil from fish or fish offal to be an offensive business for the purposes of Section 32 of the Public Health (Scotland) Act, 1897, in its application to the City.

Signed under the Common Seal by us, two members and the Clerk, for and on behalf of the said Corporation, at Glasgow, the twenty-seventh day of October nineteen hundred and thirty-eight years.

(L.S.) T. A. O'HARE.

JOHN STEWART.

(L.S.) J. L. MACKENZIE.

Confirmed by the Department of Health for Scotland.
