(1) Subject as hereinafter provided, the powers of the Secretary of State under Regulation 51 are hereby delegated to all Town Councils and District Councils in Scotland and also to the County Councils of the Counties of Kinross and Nairn as respects any land within their respective areas or in adjoining areas which, in the opinion of the Council, can conveniently be cultivated or used for the production of food by persons residing in the burgh, district or county.

(2) A council shall not enter on any garden or pleasure ground occupied or usually occupied together with a dwelling-house without a further consent given by the Secretary of State, or on any occupied land except with the written consent of the owner and occupier of the land.

(3) A council shall not without the sanction of the Secretary of State enter on any land for the purpose of using it for the keeping or breeding of livestock or use for such purpose any land on which the Council have entered under Regulation 51.

(4) A council shall as soon as possible after entry on any land give notice in writing of the entry to the occupier (if any) of the land, and also to the owner thereof.

(5) In the case of occupied land,

(i.) a council may agree to make a periodical payment for the use thereof but the amount so paid shall in no case exceed a rental value of the land for agricultural purposes and shall be a sum equal to the rent which might reasonably be expected to be payable by a tenant in occupation of the land, during the period for which possession of the land is retained in the exercise of emergency powers, under a lease granted immediately before the beginning of that period, whereby the tenant undertook to pay all usual tenant's rates and taxes and to bear the cost of the repairs or insurance and the other expenses, if any, necessary to maintain the land in a state to command that rent:

(ii.) where the land of which possession is taken is agricultural land, a sum may be paid equal to the amount (if any) which might reasonably have been expected to be payable in addition to rent by an incoming tenant, in respect of things previously done for the purpose of the cultivation of the land, and in respect of growing crops, seeds, tillages and other similar matters, under a lease of the land granted immediately before possession thereof was taken in the exercise of emergency powers:

(6) A council may arrange with any society or association having for its object or one of its objects the cultivation of land for the cultivation or use of any land on which the council has entered.

(7) A council may adapt any land for use for cultivation.

(8) A council shall, so far as is practicable, arrange that the payments to be made to the council by the occupiers for the use of the land shall cover the cost incurred by the council in providing the land or adapting it for cultivation or use, and shall not incur any expenses in the exercise of the powers hereby conferred (except in respect of any sum which may in certain circumstances be payable for the restoration of the land), which will involve the Secretary of State in a liability to repay the council a total amount exceeding two pounds for each acre provided by the Council.

(9) Any arrangement with a person or society or association for the cultivation or use of the land shall be subject to determination by the council or the Secretary of State at any time and shall not provide for payment at the termination of the arrangement of compensation except as specified in the Allotments (Scotland) Act, 1922.

(10) No such arrangement shall be terminated (except for a breach of the terms of the arrangement) between the 1st day of May and the 1st day of November in any year unless the consent of the Secretary of State has previously been obtained.
