DEFENCE REGULATIONS.

THE CULTIVATION OF LANDS (ALLOTMENTS) (SCOTLAND) ORDER, DATED 25TH SEPTEMBER 1939, MADE BY THE SECRETARY OF STATE FOR SCOTLAND UNDER PART IV. OF THE DEFENCE REGULATIONS, 1939.

In pursuance of Regulation 51 of the Defence Regulations, 1939, the Secretary of State for Scotland (hereinafter referred to as the Secretary of State) hereby makes the following Order:—

(1) Subject as hereinafter provided, the powers of the Secretary of State under Regulation 51 are hereby delegated to all Town Councils and District Councils in Scotland and also to the County Councils of the Counties of Kinross and Nairn as respects any land within their respective areas or in adjoining areas which, in the opinion of the Council, can conveniently be cultivated or used for the production of food by persons residing in the burgh, district or county.

(2) A council shall not enter on any garden or pleasure ground occupied or usually occupied together with a dwelling-house without a further consent given by the Secretary of State, or on any occupied land except with the written consent of the owner and occupier of the land.

(3) A council shall not without the sanction of the Secretary of State enter on any land for the purpose of using it for the keeping or breeding of livestock or use for such purpose any land on which the Council have entered under Regulation 51.

(4) A council shall as soon as possible after entry on any land give notice in writing of the entry to the occupier (if any) of the land, and also to the owner thereof.

(5) In the case of occupied land,

(i.) a council may agree to make a periodical payment for the use thereof but the amount so paid shall in no case exceed a rental value of the land for agricultural purposes and shall be a sum equal to the rent which might reasonably be expected to be payable by a tenant in occupation of the land, during the period for which possession of the land is retained in the exercise of emergency powers, under a lease granted immediately before the beginning of that period, whereby the tenant undertook to pay all usual tenant's rates and taxes and to bear the cost of the repairs or insurance and the other expenses, if any, necessary to
