

maintain the land in a state to command that rent:

(ii.) where the land of which possession is taken is agricultural land, a sum may be paid equal to the amount (if any) which might reasonably have been expected to be payable in addition to rent by an incoming tenant, in respect of things previously done for the purpose of the cultivation of the land, and in respect of growing crops, seeds, tillages and other similar matters, under a lease of the land granted immediately before possession thereof was taken in the exercise of emergency powers:

Provided that in computing the rent which might reasonably be expected to be payable in respect of any land, and in computing any amount payable under (ii.) above no account shall be taken of any appreciation of values due to the emergency.

(6) A council may arrange with any society or association having for its object or one of its objects the cultivation of land for the cultivation or use of any land on which the council has entered.

(7) A council may adapt any land for use for cultivation.

(8) A council shall, so far as is practicable, arrange that the payments to be made to the council by the occupiers for the use of the land shall cover the cost incurred by the council in providing the land or adapting it for cultivation or use, and shall not incur any expenses in the exercise of the powers hereby conferred (except in respect of any sum which may in certain circumstances be payable for the restoration of the land), which will involve the Secretary of State in a liability to repay the council a total amount exceeding two pounds for each acre provided by the Council.

(9) Any arrangement with a person or society or association for the cultivation or use of the land shall be subject to determination by the council or the Secretary of State at any time and shall not provide for payment at the termination of the arrangement of compensation except as specified in the Allotments (Scotland) Act, 1922.

(10) No such arrangement shall be terminated (except for a breach of the terms of the arrangement) between the 1st day of May and the 1st day of November in any year unless the consent of the Secretary of State has previously been obtained.

(11) The land shall not be used for the production of vegetable or fruit crops which continue productive for more than one year.

(12) A separate account shall be kept by a council of all its receipts and expenditure under this Order, which shall be open at any time to inspection by an officer of the Secretary of State.

(13) This Order applies only to Scotland.

(14) This Order may be cited as the Cultivation of Lands (Allotments) (Scotland) Order, 1939.

(L.S.) In Witness whereof the Official Seal of the Secretary of State for Scotland is hereunto affixed this twenty-fifth day of September nineteen hundred and thirty-nine.
