PRIVATE LEGISLATION PROCEDURE
(SCOTLAND) ACT, 1936.

NOTICE is hereby given in terms of Section 1 (4) of the Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland) Act, 1936, that the Secretary of State, the Chairman of Committees of the House of Lords and the Chairman of Ways and Means in the House of Commons having considered a representation by the Railway Clearing System Superannuation Fund Corporation that it is expedient that the under-mentioned Parliamentary Powers to be operative in Scotland and elsewhere which they desire to obtain should be conferred by one enactment have decided that the said powers would be more properly obtained by the promotion of a Private Bill than by the promotion of a Private Bill and of a Provisional Order under the said Act.

1. To provide for the division into sections of the Superannuation Fund (hereinafter referred to as "the Fund") established under the Railway Clearing System Superannuation Fund Acts, 1873 to 1914, for the payment of superannuation allowances to the salaried officers and clerks of the Railway Clearing House, the Railway Clearing Committee (Ireland), the Railway Companies' Association and certain Railway Companies and Joint Committees controlling railways in England, Scotland, Northern Ireland and Eire.

2. To provide that each section into which the Fund is to be divided shall be the fund into which contributions by a particular class of officers and clerks and their employers (which employers are hereinafter referred to as "Contributing Bodies") shall be paid and out of which the superannuation allowances and other benefits to officers and clerks of that class shall be paid.

3. To provide for a guarantee by the appropriate Contributing Bodies of the solvency of one or more of the said sections of the Fund.

4. To require future entrants (whether male or female) as salaried officers or clerks into the service of a Contributing Body which has not dissented from the proposals for alteration of the existing Acts and the Rules made thereunder (hereinafter referred to as an "assenting Contributing Body") and has not a separate superannuation fund to become contributing members of the Fund.

5. To entitle females now in the service of an assenting Contributing Body as salaried officers or clerks to become contributing members of the Fund and to define the contributions to be made, and the benefits to be received, by such females and by future female entrants respectively.

6. To substitute a new scale of benefits for the existing scale and to entitle present contributing members in the service of an assenting Contributing Body to decline certain of the benefits comprised in the new scale and to retain their right to the corresponding benefits of the existing scale.

7. To prescribe new scales of contributions to the Fund by present contributing members and future entrants respectively.

8. To prescribe the contributions to be made to the Fund by assenting Contributing Bodies.

9. To make provisions as to the payment out of the Fund of certain supplemental pensions payable by Contributing Bodies to certain members of the Fund and as to reimbursement to the Fund by the appropriate Contributing Body.

10. To provide that (except as respects the division of the Fund into sections, the payment of supplemental pensions and certain provisions of a formal character) the existing Acts and Rules shall continue to apply to any Contributing Body which dissents from the proposals for alteration thereof and to the employees of such Contributing Body.

11. To make provisions as to the commutation of capital sums or annuities payable to members of the Fund on retirement.

12. To make provisions as to continued membership of the Fund by contributing members of whose salary payment is stopped in consequence of ill-health.

13. To authorise the alteration by special resolution of the prescribed scales of benefits and contributions.
