PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 25th day of August 1945 (N.18393/45), in the words following, viz. :—

"Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council :

"And whereas we consider it necessary that ratings of the Communications Branch serving in the British Pacific Fleet should be trained in touch-typing, and that those ratings who reach certain standards of proficiency should receive some additional remuneration :

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to sanction payment at our discretion of an allowance of two pence a day to ratings of Leading rates and below who have attained the following standards of proficiency in touch-typing—

Telegraphists—Morse at thirty words a minute.

Coders—Fifty words a minute.

V/S ratings—Fifty words a minute.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

His Majesty, having taking the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 6th day of October 1945.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 22nd day of September 1945 (N.15785/45), in the words following, viz. :—

"Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council :

"And whereas by Order in Council dated 26th June 1941 sanction was given for the payment of an allowance of 3d. per diem to seamen ratings detailed to assist the Navigating Officer in correcting charts in ships serving in Home Waters :

"And whereas we consider it necessary that the allowance should also be paid in ships abroad :

"And whereas a similar need has now arisen in all Fleet and Light Fleet Aircraft Carriers for a specially trained rating to assist the Operations Officer in the correction and handling of air charts and papers :

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to sanction the payment of an allowance of 3d. per diem, with effect from 6th July 1945, to ratings detailed to perform the aforesaid duties at home and abroad.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in these proposals."

His Majesty, having taking the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

E. C. E. LEADBITTER.

At the Court at Holyroodhouse, the 28th day of September 1945.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Section I. of the Diplomatic Privileges (Extension) Act, 1944 (7 & 8 Geo. VI., Ch. 44) (hereinafter referred to as the Act) it is enacted that the provisions of that Section shall apply to any organisation declared by Order in Council to be an organisation of which His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom and the Government or Governments of one or more foreign sovereign powers are members and that His Majesty may, by Order in Council, provide that any such organisation shall, to the extent specified in the Order, have the immunities and privileges set out in Part I. of the Schedule to the Act and confer upon representatives of member Governments on the Governing Body or any Committee of the Organisation, and upon officers and servants of the Organisation, the immunities and privileges set out in Parts II. or III. of the said Schedule to the extent specified in the Order :

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in this behalf by the aforesaid Act or otherwise in His Majesty vested, is pleased by and with the advice of His Privy Council to order and it is hereby ordered as follows :—

Article 1. The Provisional Organisation for European Inland Transport (hereinafter referred to as The Transport Organisation) and the United Nations War Crimes Commission (hereinafter referred to as the Commission) are organisations of which His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom and the Governments of foreign sovereign powers are members.

Article 2. The Transport Organisation and the Commission shall have the immunities and privileges set forth in Part I. of the Schedule to the Act and the legal capacities of a body corporate.

Article 3. One representative of each member Government on the Commission and on the Council of the Transport Organisation, and also the members of the Provisional Executive of the Transport Organisation being persons nominated by member Governments and not exceeding five in number, shall, provided that they are not in any case British subjects and save to the extent to which in any case the Government of any such representative or member may see fit to waive any immunity or privilege and without prejudice to any immunities and privileges which any such person may be entitled to claim by virtue of any other office which he may from time to time hold, have all the immunities and privileges specified in Part II. of the Schedule to the Act for the period for which his name appears as a person so entitled on the list compiled by the Secretary of State in accordance with sub-section (3) of Section 1 of the Act.

Article 4. Officers of The Transport Organisation holding the offices of Director-General or Deputy Director-General, not being British subjects and not exceeding at any one time five in number, and the Secretary General and Executive Secretary of the Commission not being British subjects, shall, for the period for which their names appear as persons so entitled on the list compiled by the Secretary of State in accordance with sub-section (3) of Section I. of the Act, have all the immunities and privileges specified in Part II. of the Schedule to the Act save to the extent that The Transport Organisation (or the Commission, as the case may be) may in any case waive any of the said immunities or privileges.

Article 5.—(1) The persons to whom this Article applies shall have the immunities and privileges specified in paragraph 1 and, if they are nationals or citizens of, or belong to, any part of His Majesty's dominions outside the United Kingdom, those specified in paragraph 2 (a) of Part III. of the Schedule to the Act:

Provided that—

(i.) in the case of persons referred to in sub-paragraph (a) of paragraph (2) of this Article, the government appointing such representatives may waive any immunity or privilege;

(ii.) in the case of persons referred to in sub-paragraph (b) of paragraph (2) of this Article, The Transport Organisation (or the Commission as the case may be) may waive any immunity or privilege; and

(iii.) the exemption or relief from taxes and rates, specified in the said paragraph 2 (a) of Part III. of the Schedule, shall not extend to any person whose usual place of abode is in the United Kingdom.

(2) This Article applies to

(a) British subjects who are the representatives of member Governments on the council or are members of the Provisional Executive of The Transport Organisation and British subjects who are the representatives of member Governments on the Commission; and

(b) British subjects who hold any of the offices in The Transport Organisation or the Commission referred to in Article 4 hereof.

Article 6.—(1) The persons to whom this Article applies shall have the immunities and privileges specified in paragraph 1 and paragraph 2 (b) of Part III. of the Schedule to the Act:

Provided that—

(i.) The Transport Organisation (or the Commission as the case may be) may waive any immunity or privilege; and

(ii.) the exemption from income tax specified in the said paragraph 2 (b) of Part III. of the Schedule shall not extend to any British subject whose usual place of abode is in the United Kingdom.

(2) This Article applies to the following officers of The Transport Organisation: namely all Directors, all Chiefs of Sections, and all Members of Sections; and to all the officers of the Commission holding a rank superior to that of Chief Clerk.

Article 7. All officers of The Transport Organisation or of the Commission other than those referred to in Articles 4, 5, and 6 above, shall have the exemption from income tax specified in paragraph 2 (b) of Part III. of the Schedule to the Act:

Provided that—

(i.) The Transport Organisation (or the Commission as the case may be) may waive any privilege; and

(ii.) this privilege shall not extend to any British subject whose usual place of abode is in the United Kingdom.

Article 8. This Order may be cited as "the Diplomatic Privileges (The Transport Organisation and War Crimes Commission) Order in Council, 1945." It shall enter into force as from this day's date.

And the Right Honourable Ernest Bevin, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, is to give the necessary directions herein.
