TUESDAY, JANUARY 22, 1946.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 10th day of January 1946.

PRESENT,

The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

His Majesty, in exercise of the powers conferred on Him by Section 3 of the Bretton Woods Agreements Act, 1945, and of all other powers enabling Him in that behalf, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as "The Bretton Woods Agreements Order in Council, 1946."

2—(1) In this Order, the expressions "the Fund Agreement" and "the Bank Agreement" mean, respectively, the Agreement for the establishment and operation of an international body to be called the International Monetary Fund and the Agreement for the establishment and operation of an international body to be called the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development, which were signed on behalf of His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom on the twenty-seventh day of December nineteen hundred and forty-five, and the expressions "the Fund" and "the Bank" mean the bodies established under these Agreements respectively.

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889, shall apply to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

3. To enable the Fund and the Bank to fulfil the functions with which they are respectively entrusted, the provisions of the Fund Agreement and the Bank Agreement set out in the Schedule to this Order shall have the force of law:

Provided that nothing in Section 9 of Article IX. of the Fund Agreement or in Section 9 of Article VII. of the Bank Agreement shall be construed as—

(a) entitling the Fund or the Bank to import goods free of customs duty without any restriction on their subsequent sale in the country to which they were imported; or

(b) conferring on the Fund or the Bank any exemption from duties or taxes which form part of the price of goods sold; or

(c) conferring on the Fund or the Bank any exemption from taxes or duties which are in fact no more than charges for services rendered.

4. This Order shall extend to all parts of His Majesty's dominions (other than Dominions within the meaning of the Statute of Westminster, 1931, territories administered by the Government of any such Dominion and British India) and, to the extent that His Majesty has jurisdiction therein, to all other territories in which His Majesty has from time to time jurisdiction (other than territories in respect of which a mandate from the League of Nations is being exercised by, or which are being administered by, the Government of such a Dominion as aforesaid and territories in India):

Provided that, if, whether before or after the passing of the Bretton Woods Agreements Act, 1945, or the making of this Order, effect is given by or under the law of any part of His Majesty's dominions or other territory to any provisions of the said Agreements set out in the Schedule to this Order, this Order, so far as it gives effect to that provision, shall not extend to that part of His Majesty's dominions or other territory as respects any period as respects which effect is given as aforesaid to that provision.

E. C. E. LEADBITTER.

SCHEDULE.

PROVISIONS OF AGREEMENTS WHICH ARE TO HAVE FORCE OF LAW.

PART I.

FUND AGREEMENT.

Article VIII., Section 2 (b).

Exchange contracts which involve the currency of any Member and which are contrary to the exchange control regulations of that member maintained or imposed consistently with this Agreement shall be unenforceable in the territories of any member . . .

Article IX.

STATUS, IMMUNITIES AND PRIVILEGES.

Section 2. Status of the Fund.

The Fund shall possess full juridical personality, and, in particular, the capacity:

- (i.) to contract;
- (ii.) to acquire and dispose of immovable and movable property;
- (iii.) to institute legal proceedings.

Section 3. Immunity from judicial process.

The Fund, its property and its assets, wherever located and by whomsoever held, shall enjoy immunity from every form of judicial process except to the extent that it expressly waives its immunity for the purpose of any proceedings or by the terms of any contract.

Section 4. Immunity from other action.

Property and assets of the Fund, wherever located and by whomsoever held, shall be immune from search, requisition, confiscation, expropriation or any other form of seizure by executive or legislative action.

Section 5. Immunity of archives.

The archives of the Fund shall be inviolable.

Section 6. Freedom of assets from restrictions.

To the extent necessary to carry out the operations provided for in this Agreement, all property and assets of the Fund shall be free from restrictions, regulations, controls and moratoria of any nature.

Section 8. Immunities and privileges of officers and employees.

All governors, executive directors, alternates, officers and employees of the Fund

- (i.) shall be immune from legal process with respect to acts performed by them in their official capacity except when the Fund waives this immunity . . .

Section 9. Immunities from taxation.

(a) The Fund, its assets, property, income and its operations and transactions authorised by this Agreement, shall be immune from all taxation and from all customs duties. The Fund shall also be immune from liability for the collection or payment of any tax or duty.

(b) No tax shall be levied on or in respect of salaries and emoluments paid by the Fund to executive directors, alternates, officers or employees of the Fund who are not local citizens, local subjects, or other local nationals.

(c) No taxation of any kind shall be levied on any obligation or security issued by the Fund, including any dividend or interest thereon, by whomsoever held

- (i.) which discriminates against such obligation or security solely because of its origin; or
(ii.) if the sole jurisdictional basis for such taxation is the place or currency in which it is issued, made payable or paid, or the location of any office or place of business maintained by the Fund.

PART II.

BANK AGREEMENT.

Article VII.

STATUS, IMMUNITIES AND PRIVILEGES.

Section 2. Status of the Bank.

The Bank shall possess full juridical personality, and, in particular, the capacity:

- (i.) to contract;
(ii.) to acquire and dispose of immovable and movable property;
(iii.) to institute legal proceedings.

Section 3. Position of the Bank with regard to judicial process.

Actions may be brought against the Bank only in a court of competent jurisdiction in the territories of a member in which the Bank has an office, has appointed an agent for the purpose of accepting service or notice of process, or has issued or guaranteed securities. No actions shall, however, be brought by members or persons acting for or deriving claims from members. The property and assets of the Bank shall, wheresoever located and by whomsoever held, be immune from all forms of seizure, attachment or execution before the delivery of final judgment against the Bank.

Section 4. Immunity of assets from seizure.

Property and assets of the Bank, wherever located and by whomsoever held, shall be immune from search, requisition, confiscation, expropriation or any other form of seizure by executive or legislative action.

Section 5. Immunity of archives.

The archives of the Bank shall be inviolable.

Section 6. Freedom of assets from restrictions.

To the extent necessary to carry out the operations provided for in this Agreement and subject to the provisions of this Agreement, all property and assets of the Bank shall be free from restrictions, regulations, controls and moratoria of any nature.

Section 8. Immunities and privileges of officers and employees.

All governors, executive directors, alternates, officers and employees of the Bank

- (i.) shall be immune from legal process with respect to acts performed by them in their official capacity except when the Bank waives this immunity . . .

Section 9. Immunities from taxation.

(a) The Bank, its assets, property, income and its operations and transactions authorised by this Agreement, shall be immune from all taxation and from all customs duties. The Bank shall also be immune from liability for the collection or payment of any tax or duty.

(b) No tax shall be levied on or in respect of salaries and emoluments paid by the Bank to executive directors, alternates, officials or employees of the Bank who are not local citizens, local subjects, or other local nationals.

- (c) No taxation of any kind shall be levied on any obligation or security issued by the Bank (including any dividend or interest thereon) by whomsoever held—

(i.) which discriminates against such obligation or security solely because it is issued by the Bank; or

- (ii.) if the sole jurisdictional basis for such taxation is the place or currency in which it is issued, made payable or paid, or the location of any office or place of business maintained by the Bank.

(d) No taxation of any kind shall be levied on any obligation or security guaranteed by the Bank (including any dividend or interest thereon) by whomsoever held—

- (i.) which discriminates against such obligation or security solely because it is guaranteed by the Bank; or (ii.) if the sole jurisdictional basis for such taxation is the location of any office or place of business maintained by the Bank.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 10th day of January 1946.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Section 5 of the Merchant Shipping (Merchantile Marine Fund) Act, 1898 (61 & 62 Vict., c. 44) (hereinafter referred to as "the said Section", it is, amongst other things, enacted as follows:—

"5.—(1) On and after the commencement of this Act the general lighthouse authorities shall levy light dues with respect to the voyages made by ships or by way of periodical payment, and not with respect to the lights which a ship passes or from which it derives benefit, and the dues so levied shall take the place of the dues now levied by those authorities.

(2) The scale and rules set out in the Second Schedule to this Act shall have effect for the purpose of the levying of light dues in pursuance of this Act, but Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, alter, either generally or with respect to particular classes of cases, the scale or rules and the exemptions therefrom."

And whereas by the Merchant Shipping (Light Dues) Order, 1942, certain alterations were made in the Scale and Rules set out in the Second Schedule to the said recited Act:

And whereas it is expedient that such last recited Order should be revoked:

And whereas it has been made to appear to His Majesty that the said Scale and Rules should be further altered in manner hereinafter appearing:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, in exercise of the powers vested in Him by the said Section and of all other powers enabling Him in that behalf and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1.—(a) This Order may be cited as the Merchant Shipping (Light Dues) Order, 1946, and shall have effect from the date of its publication in the London Gazette.

(b) The Interpretation Act, 1889 (52 & 53 Vict., c. 63) shall apply to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

2. Each of the dues authorised to be levied in accordance with the Scale set out in the Second Schedule to the said recited Act shall be subject to an increase of 100 per cent., for the purpose of the levying of light dues in pursuance of the said recited Act.

3. The payments referred to in the proviso to Rule (1) and in the proviso to Rule (7) of the Rules set out in the Second Schedule to the said recited Act shall also be subject to an increase of 100 per cent.

4. The Merchant Shipping (Light Dues) Order, 1942, is hereby revoked.
