SHERIFFDOM OF PERTH AND ANGUS AT FORFAR.

NOTICE is hereby given that a Petition has been lodged with the Sheriff of Perth and Angus by the Provost, Magistrates, and Councillors of the City and Royal Burgh of Brechin, craving the Court to revise and extend the Boundaries of the City and Royal Burgh of Brechin, to mark out, define, and specify in a written Deliverance such revised and extended boundaries for the purposes of the Burgh Police (Scotland) Act, 1892, and Acts extending or amending the same so as to include within the extended boundaries as part of the said Royal Burgh the area measuring 42-377 acres or thereby being (First) the ground known as Wards of Pitforthie; (Second) the ground adjoining on the South of said Wards of Pitforthie North of Park Road and lying between the Forfar and Brechin Railway and the property known as Greenstead; (Third) the ground lying to the north of the Brechin-Bridge of Dun Railway to the West of Drumachlie Loan South of Park Road and to the East of the present boundary of the said Burgh; and (Fourth) the ground lying to the South of the Brechin-Bridge of Dun Railway to the West of Drumachlie Loan and to the East of Guthrie Park together with the ground of said Brechin and Bridge of Dun Railway and the Forfar and Brechin Railway so far as lying between and within the present and the proposed new boundaries bounded as follows:— On the East partly by the medium flum of Drumachlie Loan and partly by the Forfar and Brechin Railway, and on the West and South by the present boundary of the said Burgh, and presently in the Landward Part of the Parish of Brechin and delineated in red on the plan produced; and to appoint the following to be the new boundaries of said Burgh, namely:—

From the point, on the South of the Town at which the Skinner's Burn joins the South Esk River, down the South Esk River to the West Den of Leuchland, thence up the hollow of the West Den of Leuchland and up Barrie's Burn until the boundary reaches the East end of Montrose Street at the junction with Drumachlie Loan, thence continuing Northwards along the medium flum of Drumachlie Loan Six hundred and seventeen yards or thereby until the boundary reaches a point opposite to the foot of the embankment forming the Southern Boundary of the roadway over the Park Road Railway Bridge of the Brechin and Forfar Railway, thence Westwards for Fifty-eight yards or thereby to the foot of the embankment forming the Southern boundary of said roadway, thence Northwards across said embankment and roadway, and thence first Northwards and then North-Westwards along the Western Boundary of said Railway until the Burgh boundary and the said boundary of said Railway meets the Barrie's Burn, almost at right angles, thence Northwards along the said Burn to the point near the source of said Burn at which the several Boundaries of the properties of Caldham, Pitforthie, and Unthank meet; thence in a straight line in a Westerly direction to the point where the several boundaries of Maisondieu and Cookston, and Mitchell's land meet; thence in a South-Westerly direction, along the boundary of the Maisondieu property, to the point at which the same meets the Menmuir Road; thence in a straight line to the Westernmost point at which the Skinner's Burn crosses the Forfar Road; thence down the Skinner's Burn to the point on the South of the Town at which the Skinner's Burn joins the South Esk River; all as delineated on the plan produced; or such other boundaries as may appear to the Court just and proper; and that the Sheriff has made the following Deliverance:—

“Forfar, 6th February 1946.—The Sheriff, having considered the foregoing Petition, appoints the Petitioners to give notice of the import thereof and of this Deliverance to the County Council of Angus and by advertisement in the Edinburgh Gazette and in the Dundee Courier and Advertiser and Brechin Advertiser newspapers; allows any persons desiring to oppose the said Petition, or to be heard in reference thereto, to give notice thereof by lodging a Notice of Appearance with the Sheriff Clerk, at Forfar, within fourteen days from the last date of said advertisement; and appoints the Petition and relative Plan to remain in the Office of the Town Clerk, at Brechin, till the further orders of Court for inspection by all concerned. (Sgd.) J. FREDERICK STRACHAN.”

Of which Intimation is hereby given.

FRED. A. FERGUSON, Town Clerk.

NOTE.—The last date for entering Appearance is 2nd March 1946.
