1. Age.

Candidates must be at least 16 and under 17 years of age on 1st March 1948. But (i.) Candidates who have served in any established post to which they were admitted with the certificate of the Civil Service Commissioners may deduct from their actual age any time not exceeding two years which they may have spent in such service before 1st March 1948.

(ii.) Candidates employed on the first day of the examination as Established Clerical Assistants in the Civil Service may be admitted to the examination if under the age of 19 on 1st March 1948.

(iii.) Candidates appointed as Established Typists in the Civil Service from an Open Competition, who were under 17 years of age on the governing date for age for that Competition, may be admitted to the examination, provided that they have continued to be employed in the Established Typing Grades of the Civil Service up to the first day of the examination, and that they are under the age of 19 on 1st March 1948.

(iv.) Candidates who were within the limits of age for both the February 1947 and September 1947 examinations and who applied to attend the former examination, but who satisfy the Commissioners that, in consequence of disorganisation of transport caused by severe weather conditions, they were unable to attend for the whole or part of that examination, will be admitted to the examination of January 1948.

2. Sex.

Both boys and girls are eligible.

3. Nationality.

Candidates must be British subjects who satisfy the following rule :—

Every candidate must be either (a) a natural-born British subject :

(i.) having at least one parent who is or was at the time of death a British subject; or

(c) a British subject who, although not fulfilling the requirements of sub-paragraph (a) or sub-paragraph (b) satisfies the Commissioners that he or she is so closely connected with His Majesty's dominions either by ancestry, upbringing, or residence, or by reason of national service, that an exception may properly be made in his or her favour.
