Civil Service Commission,

13th July 1948.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that, with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of H.M. Treasury, the following amendments have been made in the Temporary (Reconstruction) Regulations for filling vacancies in the situation of Male Assistant Preventive Officer in the Waterguard Service of the Customs and Excise Department dated the 1st June 1945, and published in the Edinburgh Gazette of the 5th June 1945, viz. :—

Regulation 1.

At the end of 1 (3) insert :

(4) The regular series of examinations under these Regulations will end in 1949; but the Commissioners may, exceptionally, continue to examine candidates who satisfy them that they have been prevented, e.g. owing to compulsory service in His Majesty's Forces overseas, from taking the examination earlier. The Commissioners may at their discretion limit such candidates to one attempt.

(5) A candidate who without good cause fails to attend for examination for his first attempt, after having been summoned by the Commissioners, will not be allowed to make more than one attempt thereafter under these Regulations, unless the Commissioners are prepared, for very exceptional reasons, to allow him to make two attempts.

Civil Service Commission,

13th July 1948.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that, with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of H.M. Treasury, the qualifications for the posts of Architects, Maintenance Surveyors and Quantity Surveyors shown in Appendix I. to the Temporary (Reconstruction) Regulations for filling vacancies for Architects, Surveyors, Quantity Surveyors, Civil Engineers and Lands Officers (and Estate Surveyors) dated the 30th May 1947, and published in the Edinburgh Gazette of the 30th June 1947, have been amended to read as follows :—

Class	Qualification
Architects	Registered Architect having passed an examination (or been exempted therefrom) recognised by the Architects Registration Council of the United Kingdom for the purpose of registration as a Registered Architect by examination. (To be suitable for the Ministry of Works candidates will also have to satisfy that Department of their capability in architectural design by supplying drawings and submitting to a viva voce examination. For the Ministry of Agriculture and Fisheries, knowledge or experience of farming and/or experience in the design and erection of farm buildings are desirable.)

Maintenance Surveyors	Registered Architect having passed an examination (or been exempted therefrom) recognized by the Architects Registration Council of the United Kingdom for the purpose of registration as a Registered Architect by examination, or Professional Associate of the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors (Building Section). Candidates should also have aptitude for the profession of Building Surveyor.
Quantity Surveyors	Professional Associateship of the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors (Quantities Section) or, for certain posts in the Admiralty, Air Ministry and the Ministry of Works, a wide experience of not less than seven years in quantity surveying (covering the preparation of estimates, analysis of prices, measuring work, variation and ordering of materials), and a course of study in a recognized school.

NOTE: Candidates declared successful for the Admiralty, the Air Ministry or the Ministry of Works with this relaxed qualification will not be confirmed in their appointment unless within two years they pass the final examination for the A.R.I.C.S. (Quantities Section) or pass such other examination as will satisfy the Department concerned that their professional training is equal to that required for the A.R.I.C.S.

Civil Service Commission,
13th July 1948.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that, with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of H.M. Treasury the following amendments have been made in the Temporary (Reconstruction) Regulations for filling vacancies in the situation of Officer of Customs and Excise (Male), under the Board of Customs and Excise dated the 1st June 1945, and published in the Edinburgh Gazette of the 5th June 1945, viz. :—

Regulation 1.

At the end of 1 (3) insert :

(4) The regular series of examinations under these Regulations will end in 1949 ; but the Commissioners may, exceptionally, continue to examine candidates who satisfy them that they have been prevented, e.g. owing to compulsory service in His Majesty's Forces overseas, from taking the examination earlier. The Commissioners may at their discretion limit such candidates to one attempt.

(5) A candidate who without good cause fails to attend for examination for his first attempt, after having been summoned by the Commissioners, will not be allowed to make more than one attempt thereafter under these Regulations, unless the Commissioners are prepared, for very exceptional reasons, to allow him to make two attempts.

Civil Service Commission,
13th July 1948.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that, with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of H.M. Treasury the following further amendments have been made in the Temporary (Reconstruction) Regulations for filling vacancies in the Executive Class and Corresponding Departmental Classes of the Home Civil Service and in Executive Posts in Branch B of the Foreign Service dated the 1st June 1945, and published in the Edinburgh Gazette of the 5th June 1945, viz. :—

Regulation 2.

At the end of 2 (4) insert :

(5) The regular series of examinations under these Regulations will end in 1949 ; but the Commissioners may, exceptionally, continue to examine candidates who satisfy them that they have been prevented, e.g. owing to compulsory service in His Majesty's Forces overseas, from taking the examination earlier. The Commissioners may at their discretion limit such candidates to one attempt.

(6) A candidate who without good cause fails to attend for examination for his or her first attempt, after having been summoned by the Commissioners will not be allowed to make more than one attempt thereafter under these Regulations, unless the Commissioners are prepared, for very exceptional reasons, to allow him or her to make two attempts.

Civil Service Commission,
13th July 1948.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that, with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of H.M. Treasury the following further amendments have been made in the Temporary (Reconstruction) Regulations for filling vacancies in the Clerical Classes (General and Departmental) of the Home Civil Service and in clerical Posts in Branch B of the Foreign Service dated the 1st June 1945, and published in the Edinburgh Gazette of the 5th June 1945, viz. :—

Regulation 1.

At the end of 1 (4) insert :
