BY THE KING

A PROCLAMATION

GRANTING PRIZE MONEY AND REGULATING ITS DISTRIBUTION.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS by the Prize Act, 1948, it is provided that if We are pleased by Proclamation or Order in Council to signify Our intention to make a grant of prize money out of the proceeds of prize captured in the late war, there shall be paid into the Royal Naval Prize Fund the sum of, or sums amounting in the aggregate to, four million pounds, and into the Royal Air Force Prize Fund the sum of, or sums amounting in the aggregate to, one million two hundred and fifty thousand pounds, and further that sums of such respective amounts as We may by the said Proclamation or Order in Council determine shall be distributed out of the Royal Naval Prize Fund, in such manner as We may so determine, to such persons who are or have been members of any of Our naval and marine forces, or of the crews, raised as mentioned in the said Act, of any of Our ships of war, or in the case of their death to their representatives, as We may so determine :

And whereas by the said Act it is provided that persons who during the late war were members of the Royal Artillery and served as such in any ship or vessel for the purpose of defending it against enemy attack shall be deemed to have been members of the said naval forces :

And whereas by the Naval Agency and Distribution Act, 1864, it is provided that money distributable among the officers and crews of any of Our ships of war in respect of awards made in the several cases therein mentioned, so far as full provision respecting the distribution thereof is not made by or under any Act of Parliament other than that Act, shall be distributed under the direction of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty in the shares in that behalf specified in any Royal Proclamation or Order in Council :

We do therefore now make known to all Our loving subjects, and to all others whom it may concern by this Our Proclamation by and with the advice of Our Privy Council that Our Royal Will and Pleasure is and We do hereby order and direct that a grant of prize money shall be made out of the proceeds of prize captured in the late war and We do hereby determine that the sum or sums to be paid as aforesaid into the Royal Naval Prize Fund shall be distributed at such time as the Admiralty may direct

(a) to such of the persons referred to in section 2 of the Prize Act, 1948, as are specified in the following regulations or, in the case of their death, to their representatives; and

(b) in such shares and proportions as are mentioned in those regulations :

1.—(a) Participation shall be allowed to each individual officer and man who performed service at sea for a period of not less than 180 days between 3rd September 1939 and 2nd September 1945, and who notifies the Admiralty of his claim to participate not later than 12 months from the date on which applications are invited by the Admiralty.

(b) Irrespective of actual time served at sea, participation shall be allowed in all cases in which officers or men were killed in action at sea, died of wounds received in, or from causes directly attributable to, action at sea, were lost at sea, or died at sea of injury or illness attributable to service afloat, provided that when the death occurred or the wounds, injury, or illness were sustained, the officer or man was serving in a seagoing ship of war or on convoy duties or in a merchant ship as a member of the gun's crew or for the purpose of operating or maintaining naval aircraft.

2. For the purposes of these regulations service at sea means service performed by persons

(a) while borne for pay on the books of a seagoing ship of war;

(b) while borne for pay on the books of a non-seagoing ship or Admiralty establishment for service in a seagoing ship of war;

(c) while borne for pay on the books of a non-seagoing ship for service in operational Coastal craft;

(d) who went to sea as members of the regular crews of Combined Operations craft while borne for pay on the books of a commissioned non-seagoing depot ship for service in the Combined Operations organisation;

(e) while borne for pay on the books of offensively armed auxiliary vessels or on the books of a non-seagoing ship for service in offensively armed auxiliary vessels;

(f) while borne for pay on the books of a non-seagoing ship under T.124 agreements or variants thereof or under commissioned Admiralty cables agreements for service in a seagoing ship of war;

(g) while borne for pay on the books of a non-seagoing ship for convoy duties;

(h) while serving in a merchant ship as members of the gun's crew or for the purpose of operating or maintaining naval aircraft.

3. Each individual officer and man shall be allotted the number of shares attributed by the scale appended to Regulation 9 to the rank or rating held by him on 2nd September 1945, or on the date of his release, discharge, or death, if earlier. Officers, ratings, and other ranks holding higher paid temporary, acting temporary, probationary, or acting rank on such date shall be treated as though they had been confirmed in that rank.

4. Members of the Navy, Army, and Air Force Institute canteen staff who were entered in the Naval Canteen Service will be eligible for prize money under these regulations and shall be entitled to reckon service in canteens in Our seagoing ships from 3rd September 1939 towards the qualifying period. Subject to the regulations governing misconduct, members of the Navy, Army, and Air Force Institute canteen staff who died, were invalidated or otherwise ceased to serve after serving the qualifying period but before transfer to naval ratings in the Naval Canteen Service shall be treated as though they had entered the Naval Canteen Service with rating relative to their grade in the Navy, Army, and Air Force Institute Canteen Service at the time when they ceased to serve

5. Persons who, having been members of the naval and marine forces raised by the Government of the United Kingdom, were before 3rd September 1945 permanently transferred to the naval or marine forces of a fully self-governing country of the British Commonwealth of Nations, shall not be entitled to prize money under these regulations if on transfer to those forces they have become entitled to any prize money or equivalent benefits granted to naval or marine forces of that country. Persons who, having been members of the naval and marine forces raised by the Government of a fully self-governing country of the British Commonwealth of Nations, were on or after 3rd September 1945 permanently transferred to the naval or marine forces raised by the Government of the United Kingdom shall not be entitled to prize money under these regulations.

6. Members of the Section Belge shall not be entitled to prize money under these regulations.

7. No person who has incurred forfeiture of prize money under the Naval Discipline Act, or who has been dismissed from Our service or whose services have been terminated for misconduct shall be entitled to prize money under these regulations.

8. In the event of any difficulty arising with respect to any of these regulations, or if any case should occur not herein provided for, the Admiralty shall be competent to issue such directions thereon as may appear just and expedient.

9. The distribution is to be made so that each officer, rating and other rank entitled to participate shall receive shares according to his rank, rating, age, or seniority as set forth in the following scale, or if not so laid down as determined by the Admiralty.
