HIGH COURT OF JUSTICIARY, INVERNESS.
(SPECIAL SITTING.)

Inverness—Tuesday, 16th May 1950, at Half-past Ten o'clock.

The Hon. LORD SORN.

GORDON STOTT, Esq., Advocate-Depute.
D. J. STEVENSON, Esq., Clerk.

Treasury Chambers, London, S.W.1.

The Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury hereby give notice that They have made an Order under Section 10 of the Finance Act, 1926, exempting the following chemicals from Key Industry Duty for a period ending with the 30th June 1950.

β-Aminopropionic acid.
Ethyl sulphate (an ethyl ester).
Potassium guaiacolsulphonate.
Sodium fluosilicate.
R. Sorbitol.
Sorbitol synthetic.

The Order, which comes into operation on the 22nd April 1950, is entitled the Safeguarding of Industries (Exemption) (No. 5) Order, 1950, and is published as Statutory Instruments 1950, No. 628.

Copies of the Order may be obtained (price 1d. net) direct from H.M. Stationery Office at the following addresses:—York House, Kingsway, London, W.C.2; 13A Castle Street, Edinburgh, 2; 39 King Street, Manchester, 2; 2 Edmund Street, Birmingham, 3; 1 St. Andrew's Crescent, Cardiff; Tower Lane, Bristol, 1; 80 Chichester Street, Belfast; or through any bookseller.

The Secretary of State for Scotland, in exercise of his powers under the Destructive Insects and Pests Acts, 1877 to 1927, has made the Importation of Raw Cherries (Scotland) Order, 1950, imposing restrictions on the importation of raw cherries from European countries into Scotland during that period of the year when there is danger of the introduction of the Cherry Fruit Fly.

From 19th May the importation of cherries grown in Spain is prohibited; cherries grown in Italy, Austria, Bulgaria, Hungary, Switzerland, and Portugal will be admitted up to specified dates and cherries from France and Germany during the whole period the Order is in operation, subject to each consignment being certified as prescribed in the Order; cherries from other European countries will be admitted after 18th May provided that each consignment is accompanied by a certificate of origin.

The Order, which comes into operation on 19th May and will remain in force until 30th September 1950, does not apply to raw cherries grown in England or Wales, Northern Ireland, the Republic of Ireland, the Isle of Man, or the Channel Islands.

Copies of the Order (S.I. 1950, No. 482 (S.35)) may be obtained from H.M. Stationery Office, 13A Castle Street, Edinburgh, 2, or through any bookseller.

*Board of Trade,

*Civil Service Commission,
14th April 1950.*

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations are published with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of H.M. Treasury, viz.:

REGULATIONS FOR THE RECRUITMENT OF DISTRICT (FOREST) OFFICERS (MALE) UNDER THE FORESTRY COMMISSIONERS.

1. Age.—Candidates must be at least 21 and under 30 years of age on the 1st January 1950. But

(a) a candidate who has served or is serving on a regular (including a regular short service) engagement in H.M. Forces may deduct the period of such service from his actual age.

(b) a candidate who has served or is serving in H.M. Forces otherwise than on a regular or short-service engagement may deduct the period of such service from his actual age, up to a maximum of two years.

2. Nationality.—Candidates must be British subjects. They must also satisfy one of the following conditions:

(a) If natural-born British subjects, they must either

(i) have at least one parent who is or was at death a British subject, or

(ii) have resided in His Majesty's dominions and/or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of their appointment.

(b) If naturalized British subjects, they must have resided in His Majesty's dominions and/or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of their appointment.

(c) If not qualified under (a) or (b) of this paragraph, they must satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners that they are so closely connected with His Majesty's dominions either by ancestry, upbringing or residence, or by reason of national service that an exception may properly be made in their favour.

3. Qualifications.—Candidates must have passed an examination qualifying for (a) a University degree in Forestry, or (b) a University Diploma in Forestry, or (c) a post graduate degree in a Forestry subject.

Candidates who are sitting at midsummer 1950 for the final examination for one of the qualifications mentioned in this Regulation (3) may be provisionally admitted to the competition. In this case they cannot, if successful in the competition, be appointed unless they produce evidence before 1st September 1950 of having gained the qualification in question.

4. Health and Character.—Successful candidates must satisfy the Commissioners as to their health and character.

5. Those candidates who appear from their application forms to have the best qualifications and experience will be summoned to an interview before a Selection Board, who will recommend to the Commissioners the candidates who appear to them to be most suitable. The decision of the Civil Service Commissioners will be final. The Selection Board will take into consideration a candidate's record of experience and education, any recommendations that they may receive from persons named by candidates as having direct knowledge of their work in the past, and the personal qualities of the candidates as shown at the interview; and on their estimation of the above evidence they will frame their decision.

6. Persons upon whose training for the occupation of teacher public money has been spent cannot be appointed until the consent of the appropriate central education authority (e.g., the Ministry of Education, the Scottish Education Department, the Ministry of Education for Northern Ireland) has been notified to the Commissioners.

7. Every successful candidate will be required to pay a fee of £1 10s. 0d. before the issue of a certificate of qualification for appointment.

8. Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support for their applications through Members of Parliament or other influential persons, except as referees to be named by them in their application form, will disqualify them for appointment. The Selection Board will disregard recommendations from persons who are not personally acquainted with the candidate's work, whether at school, in the Forces, or otherwise.

examinations in (i), (ii), and (iii) above; provided that these requirements may be waived in the case of a candidate who has attained a satisfactory standard of general education and has had suitable practical experience in the office of a Surveyor, Estate Agent, or Land Agent.

Candidates who are sitting at midsummer 1950 for the final examination for one of the qualifications mentioned in this Regulation (3) may be provisionally admitted to the competition. In this case they cannot, if successful in the competition, be appointed unless they produce evidence before 1st September 1950, of having gained the qualification in question.

4. Health and Character.—Successful candidates must satisfy the Commissioners as to their health and character.

5. Those candidates who appear from their application forms to have the best qualifications and experience will be summoned to an interview before a Selection Board, who will recommend to the Commissioners the candidates who appear to them to be most suitable. The decision of the Civil Service Commissioners will be final. The Selection Board will take into consideration a candidate's record of experience and education, any recommendations that they may receive from persons named by candidates as having direct knowledge of their work in the past, and the personal qualities of the candidates as shown at the interview; and on their estimation of the above evidence they will frame their decision.

6. Persons upon whose training for the occupation of teacher public money has been spent cannot be appointed until the consent of the appropriate central education authority (e.g., the Ministry of Education, the Scottish Education Department, the Ministry of Education for Northern Ireland) has been notified to the Commissioners.

7. Every successful candidate will be required to pay a fee of £1 10s. 0d. before the issue of a certificate of qualification for appointment.

8. Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support for their applications through Members of Parliament or other influential persons, except as referees to be named by them in their application form, will disqualify them for appointment. The Selection Board will disregard recommendations from persons who are not personally acquainted with the candidate's work, whether at school, in the Forces or otherwise.

Civil Service Commission,
14th April 1950.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations are published with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of H.M. Treasury, viz. :—

REGULATIONS FOR THE RECRUITMENT OF DISTRICT (ESTATE) OFFICERS (MALE) UNDER THE FORESTRY COMMISSIONERS.

1. Age.—Candidates must be at least 21 and under 30 years of age on the 1st January 1950. But

(a) a candidate who has served or is serving on a regular (including a regular short-service) engagement in H.M. Forces may deduct the period of such service from his actual age.

(b) a candidate who has served or is serving in H.M. Forces otherwise than on a regular or short-service engagement may deduct the period of such service from his actual age, up to a maximum of two years.

2. Nationality.—Candidates must be British subjects. They must also satisfy one of the following conditions :—

(a) If natural-born British subjects, they must either

(i) have at least one parent who is or was at death a British subject; or

(ii) have resided in His Majesty's dominions and/or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of their appointment.

(b) If naturalized British subjects, they must have qualifying examination for the Fellowship of the Chartered elsewhere in the service of the Crown for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of their appointment.

(c) If not qualified under (a) or (b) of this paragraph, they must satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners that they are so closely connected with His Majesty's dominions either by ancestry, upbringing or residence, or by reason of national service that an exception may properly be made in their favour.

3. Qualifications.—Candidates must have passed :—

(i) the qualifying examination for the Fellowship of the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors, or (ii) the qualifying examinations for the Fellowship of the Chartered Auctioneers and Estate Agents' Institute, or (iii) the qualifying examination for the Fellowship of the Land Agents' Society, or (iv) one of the degree examinations, for example, those in Estate Management of Cambridge and London, which secure exemption from the qualifying

Civil Service Commission,
14th April 1950.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations are published with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of H.M. Treasury, viz. :—

REGULATIONS FOR THE RECRUITMENT OF H.M. INSPECTORS OF FACTORIES (CLASS II), MINISTRY OF LABOUR AND NATIONAL SERVICE.

1. (i) Both men and women may compete under these Regulations.

(ii) Married women who have formerly been established civil servants and drawn marriage gratuity (other than those who resigned compulsorily on marriage and whose resignation took effect before 15th October 1946, or who are widows or divorced, or who are separated from their husbands, or whose husbands suffer without hope of recovery from total physical or mental incapacity) will not be eligible unless they undertake to refund on appointment the marriage gratuity paid.

2. Candidates must be at least 21 and under 30 years of age on the 1st January 1950. But

(a) a candidate who has served or is serving on a regular (including a regular short-service) engagement in H.M. Forces may deduct the period of such service from his actual age;

(b) a candidate who has served or is serving in H.M. Forces otherwise than on a regular or short-service engagement may deduct the period of such service from his actual age, up to a maximum of two years;

(c) older candidates having exceptionally suitable qualifications may be considered if they were under 34 years of age on the 1st January 1950.

3. Candidates must be British subjects. They must also satisfy one of the following conditions :—

(a) If natural-born British subjects, they must either

(i) have at least one parent who is or was at death a British subject; or

(ii) have resided in His Majesty's dominions and/or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of their appointment.

(b) if naturalized British subjects, they must have resided in His Majesty's dominions and/or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of their appointment.

(c) if not qualified under (a) or (b) of this paragraph they must satisfy the Commissioners that they are so closely connected with His Majesty's dominions either by ancestry, upbringing or residence, or by reason of national service, that an exception may properly be made in their favour.

4. Candidates must satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners that they have such experience and have received such systematic education, general or technical, or general and technical together, as in the opinion of the Commissioners fits them for the post. In general candidates must be university graduates. Applications will, however, be considered from candidates who expect to obtain the appropriate qualifications in the summer of 1950, but such candidates cannot be declared successful unless they then obtain the necessary qualifications. In the absence of a university degree, candidates must have comparable technical qualifications in engineering or science, but the Commissioners may dispense with this requirement in the case of a candidate who appears to them to be exceptionally well fitted by reason of considerable works or other special practical experience.

5. Those candidates who appear from their application forms to have the best qualifications will be summoned to a short written examination in English. Two papers will be set; in one candidates will be asked to write an essay or report; in the other they will be required to show their ability to understand a passage of English prose. Those who qualify in this examination will be invited to appear before a Selection Board in London which will recommend to the Commissioners for appointment the candidates who appear to be most suitable. The Board will take into consideration the candidates' record of education and experience, any recommendation that they may receive from persons named by the candidates as having direct knowledge of their work in the past, and the personal qualities of the candidates as shown at the interview, and on their estimation of the above evidence they will frame their recommendations. The decision of the Commissioners will be final.

6. Successful candidates must satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners as to their health and character.

7. Persons upon whose training for the occupation of teacher public money has been spent cannot be appointed until the consent of the appropriate central education authority (e.g., the Ministry of Education, the Scottish Education Department, the Ministry of Education for Northern Ireland) has been notified to the Commissioners.

8. Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support for their applications through Members of Parliament or other influential persons (except as referees to be named by them in their application form) will disqualify them for appointment. The Selection Board will disregard recommendations from persons who are not personally acquainted with the candidate's work.

9. An application fee of 5s. is payable by all candidates; this must be sent in with the application form and is not returnable in any circumstances. A successful candidate will be required to pay a further fee of £1 5s. 0d. being the balance of the prescribed fee of £1 10s. 0d. before the issue of a certificate of qualification for appointment.

Civil Service Commission,
18th April 1950.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations are published with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of H.M. Treasury, viz. :—

REGULATIONS FOR THE RECRUITMENT OF ASSISTANT KEEPERS
(SECOND CLASS) IN THE BRITISH MUSEUM.

1. Age.—Candidates must be at least 22 and under 26 years of age on 1st January 1950 provided that exceptionally well qualified candidates of 26 or over may be admitted with the approval of the Commissioners. But

(a) a candidate who has served or is serving on a regular (including a regular short service) engagement in H.M. Forces may deduct the period of such service from his actual age;

(b) a candidate who has served in H.M. Forces otherwise than on a regular engagement may deduct the period of such service from his actual age, up to a maximum of two years;

(c) candidates who have served in any established post to which they were admitted with the Certificate of the Civil Service Commissioners, or who have served on established conditions except for sick leave and pension in a post to which such a Certificate would normally apply, may deduct from their actual age any time not exceeding two years which they may have spent in such service.

2. Sex and Marriage.

(i) Both men and women may compete under these Regulations.

(ii) Married women who have formerly been established civil servants and have drawn marriage gratuity (other than those who resigned compulsorily on marriage and whose resignation took effect before 15th October 1946 or who are widows or divorced, or who are separated from their husbands, or whose husbands suffer without hope of recovery from total physical or mental incapacity) will not be eligible unless they undertake to refund on appointment the marriage gratuity paid.

3. Nationality.—Candidates must be British subjects. They must also satisfy one of the following conditions :—

(a) If natural-born British subjects, they must either

(i) have at least one parent who is, or was at death, a British subject; or

(ii) have resided in His Majesty's dominions and/or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of their appointment.

(b) If naturalized British subjects, they must have resided in His Majesty's dominions and or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of their appointment.

(c) If not qualified under (a) or (b) of this paragraph, they must satisfy the Commissioners that they are so closely connected with His Majesty's dominions either by ancestry, upbringing or residence, or by reason of national service, that an exception may properly be made in their favour.

4. Qualifications.—Candidates must have obtained a University degree with First or Second Class Honours and must possess competent knowledge of two modern languages (preferably French and German); candidates who are sitting for a final degree examination in the summer of 1950 may be admitted to compete, but they will not be declared successful unless they obtain at least Second Class Honours in their degree examination.

When special additional qualifications are required for posts in particular Departments details will be given in the notice announcing the competition.

5. Those candidates who appear from their application forms to have the best qualifications will be summoned to appear before a Selection Board in London which will recommend to the Commissioners for appointment the candidates who appear to be most suitable. The Board will take into consideration the candidates' record of education and experience, any recommendation that they may receive from persons named by the candidates as having direct knowledge of their work in the past, and the personal qualities of the candidates as shown at the interview, and on their estimation of the above evidence they will frame their recommendations. The decision of the Commissioners will be final.

6. Successful candidates must satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners as to their health and character.

7. Persons upon whose training for the occupation of teacher public money has been spent cannot be appointed until the consent of the appropriate central education authority (e.g., the Ministry of Education, the Scottish Education Department, the Ministry of Education for Northern Ireland) has been notified to the Commissioners.

8. Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support for their applications through Members of Parliament or other influential persons (except as referees to be named by them in their application form) will disqualify them for appointment. The Selection Board will disregard recommendations from persons who are not personally acquainted with the candidate's work.

9. A successful candidate will be required to pay a fee of £1 10s. before the issue of a certificate of qualification for appointment.
