

they must satisfy the Commissioners that they are so closely connected with His Majesty's dominions either by ancestry, upbringing or residence, or by reason of national service, that an exception may properly be made in their favour.

Provided that a candidate will not be eligible for an appointment under the Admiralty unless he or she is a natural-born British subject and born within the United Kingdom or in one of the self-governing Dominions of parents also born within the United Kingdom or in one of the self-governing Dominions, except when the circumstances are such as to justify a departure from the general rule, in which case, provided the candidate satisfies the conditions prescribed by the preceding paragraphs, he or she may be admitted by special permission of the First Lord of the Admiralty.

4. Examination.

(i) There will be a written examination consisting of two papers in English, two General Papers, a paper in Statistics, and a paper in either Mathematics or Economics; at the discretion of the Commissioners candidates with good experience in statistics in post-graduate research or in university teaching may be exempted from the written examination.

(ii) Candidates who pass or are exempted from the written examination will be summoned for an interview before a Selection Board, which will recommend for appointment those who are considered to be most suitable. The Selection Board will take into consideration the results of the written examination, especially in Statistics, the candidates' record of experience and education, any recommendation from persons named by the candidates as having direct knowledge of their work, and the personal qualities of the candidates as shown at the interview; and will recommend for appointment those candidates who appear best fitted for the posts. The decision of the Commissioners will be final.

5. Health and Character.

Successful candidates must satisfy the Commissioners as to their health and character.

6. Candidates Trained as Teachers.

Candidates who have been trained as teachers and upon whose training public money has been spent cannot be appointed until the consent of the appropriate central education authority (e.g., the Ministry of Education, the Scottish Education Department, the Ministry of Education for Northern Ireland) has been notified to the Commissioners.

7. Assignment.

The Commissioners will decide to which Government Department each successful candidate is to be assigned. A candidate who declines to accept the post offered will have no claim to be assigned to another, but will be regarded as having declined appointment. Assignments will be made in accordance with the needs of the public service, but the wishes of candidates will, where possible, be taken into account.

8. Canvassing.

Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support for their applications through Members of Parliament or other influential persons, except as referees to be named by them in their application forms, will disqualify them for appointment.

9. Fee.

A successful candidate will be required to pay a fee of £1 10s. 0d. before the issue of a Certificate of Qualification for appointment.

The Civil Service Commissioners further give notice that a Special Open Competition will be held under the above Regulations, the written examination commencing on the 3rd January 1952.

No person will be admitted to the competition from whom the Secretary of the Civil Service Commission has not received, on or before the 30th November 1951, an application on the prescribed form which may be obtained from the Secretary at once.
