At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 30th day of January 1952,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Secretary of State for Scotland has, in pursuance of the powers competent to him under the Burial Grounds (Scotland) Act, 1855 (18 & 19 Vict., c. 68), made a Representation that he has received a copy of an Interlocutor dated 12th July 1951, pronounced by the Sheriff-Substitute of Inverness, Moray, Nairn, and Ross and Cromarty, at Inverness, finding that the former burial ground on the island of Eriskay, in the Parish of South Uist and County of Inverness, known as The Old Burial Ground, Eriskay, is in a condition which is dangerous to health and contrary to decency;

And Whereas in the said Representation it is recommended that in terms of Section 5 of the aforesaid Act burials be forthwith discontinued in the said burial ground except for the burial therein of (1) persons whom the County Council of Inverness may specially authorize to be buried in the said burial ground; and (2) cremated human remains.

And Whereas by an Order in Council of the 4th day of October 1951, Notice of such Representation was given, and it was ordered that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council on the 10th day of December 1951, and that the said Order, or Notice thereof, should be published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and that copies of the said Order, or Notice thereof, should be fixed on the doors of the Church of or on some other conspicuous places within the Parish of South Uist and Island of Eriskay one month before the said 10th day of December 1951:

And Whereas Notice of the said Representation and of the time when it pleased His Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council has been duly published in the Edinburgh Gazette and fixed in manner required by the said Order in Council.

Now, Therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order and it is hereby ordered as follows, viz. :-

1. That in terms of Section 5 of the Burial Grounds (Scotland) Act, 1855, burials be forthwith discontinued in the former burial ground on the island of Eriskay, in the Parish of South Uist and County of Inverness, known as The Old Burial Ground, Eriskay, except for the burial therein of :-

- (1) persons whom the County Council of Inverness may specially authorize to be buried in the said burial ground; and
- (2) cremated human remains; provided that the exercise of the right of burial be not injurious to health or offensive or contrary to decency, that intimation be given to the District Sanitary Inspector of the County of Inverness not later than the day preceding that on which a grave is to be opened, and that no burial except the burial of cremated human remains shall be made unless the coffin can be laid at a depth of four feet from the surface of the ground to the upper surface of the coffin and that without interference with the remains of a previous burial.

2. This Order may be cited as the Burial Grounds (Scotland) (Old Burial Ground, Eriskay) Order, 1952.

Bank Notes (Scotland) Act, 1845, the Currency and Bank Notes Act, 1928, and the Coinage Act, 1946.

In the Account for the Four Weeks ended Saturday, 12/1 52 (which appeared in the Edinburgh Gazette dated 29/1 52, page 52), the figures of Average Circulation and Average Amount of Bank of England Notes and Coin held relating to the National Bank of Scotland, Ltd., and the Union Bank of Scotland, Ltd., were transposed. In the last six columns of the Account, therefore, the figures appropriate to the National Bank of Scotland, Ltd., appear opposite the name of the Union Bank of Scotland, Ltd., and vice versa.

MINISTRY OF TRANSPORT.

TRUNK ROADS ACT, 1946.

SPECIAL ROADS ACT, 1949.

The Minister of Transport hereby gives notice that he proposes to make an Order under Section 14 of the Special Roads Act, 1949, the effect of which will be:—

(a) to provide for the stopping up of a length of approximately 110 yards of Wellington Road at Checkbar, in the County of Kincardine, at its junction with the Perth-Aberdeen Inverness Trunk Road and for the construction of a new road in substitution therefor;

(b) to provide for the re-alignment of the carriageway of Wellington Road from a point approximately 120 yards from its junction with the said Trunk Road north-eastwards for a distance of approximately 130 yards;

(c) that the Kincardine County Council will become the highway authority for the new road on the date on which notice is given by the Minister to the Council that the new road is opened for through traffic.

Copies of the draft Order and the Plan referred to therein may be inspected by any person free of charge at all reasonable hours during a period from 8th February 1952 to 7th May 1952, at the Ministry of Transport, Berkeley Square House, London, W.1; at the offices of the Kincardine County Council, 33 Evan Street, Stonehaven; at the Police Station, Charleston; and at the offices of the Divisional Road Engineer, 21 Castle Terrace, Edinburgh, 1.

Any person may within a period of three months from 8th February 1952, object to the making of the Order by notice to the Minister, addressed to Berkeley Square House, London, W.1, quoting reference HTR 34/76/02 and stating the grounds of objection.
