FRIDAY, JULY 25, 1952.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 18th day of July 1952.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 26th day of June 1952 (C.W. 9974 51), in the words following, viz. :—

"Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Forces to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council :

"And whereas by the Naval Forces Act, 1903, it is enacted that the Admiralty shall have power to raise and maintain a Force to be called the Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve, and that any Volunteer enrolling under this Act, when serving for training afloat or called out for actual service shall be deemed to be serving in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Forces within the meaning of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865 :

"And whereas by Order in Council dated 16th July 1914, provision is made for the establishment of the rank of Lieutenant-Commander in the Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve to which shall be promoted Lieutenants on attaining eight years' seniority :

"And whereas we are of opinion that it is expedient to enable officers transferring from temporary to permanent commissions in the Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve to serve in the rank of Lieutenant-Commander at an age approximately equivalent to that of other officers of the rank, we consider that they should be promoted to that rank at the age of 38 where this is reached before attaining 8 years seniority as a Lieutenant Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve. Such accelerated promotion to be restricted to officers who are recommended for the higher rank, and who are up to date with their training. Executive officers of the Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve not holding the professional qualifications required, but who are otherwise eligible, to be promoted to the acting rank of Lieutenant-Commander Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve only.

"And, furthermore, whereas we are of opinion that officers holding temporary commissions in the Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve, who are re-employed in the rank of Temporary Lieutenant Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve, should similarly be promoted to the rank of Temporary Lieutenant-Commander Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve, either on attaining 8 years seniority or on attaining the age of 42 if reached earlier, subject to the completion of a minimum of six months re-employed service, to their holding the War Service rank of Lieutenant-Commander Royal Naval Volunteer

Reserve and, if Executive Officers, to their possessing full Watch-keeping Certificates. Such promotion to date not earlier than 11th October 1951 :

"We beg leave most humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council to sanction the foregoing proposals :

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in these proposals."

Her Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.
