2. This Schedule does not relate to:—

(a) Pensions payable to persons resident in—

(i) territories which were, before the 15th day of August 1947, included in India, as defined by sub-section (1) of Section 311 of the Government of India Act, 1935, or

(ii) the French and Portuguese Settlements in India.

(b) To pensions payable to any person resident in any place outside the United Kingdom, if the pension is expressed in rupees in Indian Pension Regulations.

3. A pension to which this Schedule relates may be increased provided the following conditions are fulfilled:—

(a) The income of the pensioner does not exceed, in the case of a pensioner who is married or has at least one dependant, £550 a year, or in any other case, £425 a year, including any pension in either case, but disregarding, in assessing income for this purpose, the first £104 a year of income other than the increasable pension or pensions, and

5. Any portion of a pension which has been commuted shall not be regarded as part of the pension for the purposes of this Schedule.

6. The income of a married pensioner shall be deemed to include the income of the husband or wife of that pensioner, but the income of a pensioner shall not be otherwise deemed to include the income of any other person.

7. A pensioner shall be regarded as unmarried unless the husband or wife of the pensioner is alive, and where a husband and wife are living apart, they may be treated as unmarried persons at the discretion of our Secretary of State.

9. Where a pensioner is in receipt of more than one pension to which this Schedule relates or is under paragraph 10 is deemed to relate, the aggregate of the increases on all such pensions shall be restricted to the increase which would have been given on a single pension equal to their total.

10. For the purpose of paragraph 9 any pension which is payable out of moneys provided by Parliament and which is increasable under the Pensions (Increase) Act, 1952, or under any provision corresponding to the present Warrant shall be taken into account as if it were a pension to which this Schedule relates.

11. Where a widow in receipt of a widow's pension has dependent on her a child or children under 16 years of age receiving pension or compassionate allowance in respect of her husband's service, the widow's pension and children's awards shall be aggregated for the purpose of determining the amount of the admissible increase. The amount so determined shall be distributed proportionately between the awards.

General Provisions.

12. Any general conditions attaching to the grant or continuance of a pension shall also apply to the grant or continuance of any increase to that pension awarded under this Schedule.
