

(ii) Rewards to Officers, meritorious service annuities, and the pay provided by Indian Regulations as a reward for distinguished military service, provided that, in the case of awards made after 31st March 1947, the recipient is also in receipt of another award increasable under the provisions of this Schedule.

2. This Schedule does not relate to:—

(a) Pensions payable to persons resident in—

(i) territories which were, before the 15th day of August 1947, included in India, as defined by sub-section (1) of Section 311 of the Government of India Act, 1935, or

(ii) the French and Portuguese Settlements in India.

(b) To pensions payable to any person resident in any place outside the United Kingdom, if the pension is expressed in rupees in Indian Pension Regulations.

3. A pension to which this Schedule relates may be increased provided the following conditions are fulfilled:—

(a) The income of the pensioner does not exceed, in the case of a pensioner who is married or has at least one dependant, £550 a year, or in any other case, £425 a year, including any pension in either case, but disregarding, in assessing income for this purpose, the first £104 a year of income other than the increasable pension or pensions, and

(b) either:—

(i) the pensioner has attained the age of 60 years (or, where the pension is a widow's pension, 40 years) or has not attained the age of 16 years, or

(ii) the pensioner was invalided from the Army, or

(iii) the pensioner is a woman who has at least one dependant, or

(iv) the pensioner is permanently incapacitated by physical or mental infirmity from engaging in any regular full-time employment.

4. The increase admissible shall be as follows:—

(a) If the pensioner is married, or has at least one dependant, £25 a year, or in the case of pensions assessed at weekly or daily rates, 10s. a week.

(b) In other cases, £20 a year, or in the case of pensions assessed at weekly or daily rates, 7s. 8d. a week but shall in no case exceed either one-third of the rate of pension (including any increase granted under orders issued by the Government of India applying to the Indian Armed Forces the provision of Royal Warrants dated 16th August 1920 (A.O. 347 of 1920), 7th August 1924 (A.O. 288 of 1924), 31st May 1944 (A.O. 89 of 1944), 18th January 1946 (A.O. 7 of 1946), and 13th May 1947 (A.O. 58 of 1947), or the amount required to bring the income of the pensioner up to the appropriate income limit in paragraph 3 (a) above, whichever is less.

5. Any portion of a pension which has been commuted shall not be regarded as part of the pension for the purposes of this Schedule.

6. The income of a married pensioner shall be deemed to include the income of the husband or wife of that pensioner, but the income of a pensioner shall not be otherwise deemed to include the income of any other person.

7. A pensioner shall be regarded as unmarried unless the husband or wife of the pensioner is alive, and where a husband and wife are living apart, they may be treated as unmarried persons at the discretion of our Secretary of State.

8. To be regarded as dependent on the pensioner for the purposes of this Schedule a person must be in fact wholly or mainly supported by the pensioner, and must not have an income from other sources (apart from income from any scholarship or educational endowment) in excess of £104 a year, and must be either:—

(i) the parent, brother, sister, child, uncle, or aunt of the pensioner, or of the pensioner's husband or wife, or deceased husband or wife, or the child of such a relative ("child" including legitimate and illegitimate children, step-children, and statutorily adopted children) or the pensioner's step-father or step-mother, or

(ii) under 16 years of age, or receiving full-time instruction at an educational establishment, or undergoing full-time training for a trade, profession, or vocation.

9. Where a pensioner is in receipt of more than one pension to which this Schedule relates or is under paragraph 10 is deemed to relate, the aggregate of the increases on all such pensions shall be restricted to the increase which would have been given on a single pension equal to their total.

10. For the purpose of paragraph 9 any pension which is payable out of moneys provided by Parliament and which is increasable under the Pensions (Increase) Act, 1952, or under any provision corresponding to the present Warrant shall be taken into account as if it were a pension to which this Schedule relates.

11. Where a widow in receipt of a widow's pension has dependent on her a child or children under 16 years of age receiving pension or compassionate allowance in respect of her husband's service, the widow's pension and children's awards shall be aggregated for the purpose of determining the amount of the admissible increase. The amount so determined shall be distributed proportionately between the awards.

General Provisions.

12. Any general conditions attaching to the grant or continuance of a pension shall also apply to the grant or continuance of any increase to that pension awarded under this Schedule.

TENDERS FOR TREASURY BILLS.

1. The Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury hereby give notice that Tenders will be received at the Chief Cashier's Office, at the Bank of England, on Friday the 7th November 1952, at 1 p.m., for Treasury Bills to be issued under the Treasury Bills Act, 1877, the National Debt Act, 1889, and the National Loans Act, 1939, to the amount of £240,000,000.

2. The Bills will be in amounts of £5000, £10,000, £25,000, £50,000, or £100,000. They will be dated at the option of the Tenderer on any business day from Monday the 10th November 1952 to Saturday the 15th November 1952, inclusive, and will be due 91 days after date.

3. The Bills will be issued and paid at the Bank of England.

4. Each Tender must be for an amount not less than £50,000, and must specify the date on which the Bills required are to be dated, and the net amount per cent. (being an even multiple of one penny) which will be given for the amount applied for. Separate tenders must be lodged for Bills of different dates.

5. Tenders must be made through a London Banker, Discount House, or Broker.

6. Notification will be sent by post, on the same day as Tenders are received, to the persons whose Tenders are accepted in whole or in part, and payment in full of the amounts due in respect of such accepted Tenders must be made to the Bank of England by means of cash or a Banker's Draft on the Bank of England not later than 1.30 p.m. (Saturday 11.30 a.m.) on the day on which the relative Bills are to be dated.

7. Members of the House of Commons are not precluded from tendering for these Bills.

8. Tenders must be made on the printed forms which may be obtained from the Chief Cashier's Office, Bank of England.

9. The Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury reserve the right of rejecting any Tenders.
