

Edinburgh Gazette.

PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY.

FROM FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 3, to TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1809.

BY THE KING.

A PROCLAMATION,

For further continuing from the 31st day of December next, until 40 days after the next meeting of Parliament, the prohibition of the distillation of spirits from corn or grain, in the united kingdom.

GEORGE R.

Whereas, by an act passed in the 49th year of our reign, entitled, "An act to prohibit the distillation of spirits from corn or grain in the united kingdom, for a limited time;" it was enacted, that in case we, at any time after the 1st day of October last, should in our royal discretion judge it to be for the benefit and advantage of our kingdom, further to continue the prohibition of the distillation of spirits from corn or grain from the 31st day of December next, until 40 days after the next meeting of Parliament, then, and in such case, it should and might be lawful to and for us, by our royal proclamation or proclamations, to be issued by and with the advice of our Privy Council, or by our order in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, and in the Dublin Gazette, to continue, throughout the united kingdom, from the said 31st day of December until 40 days after the next meeting of Parliament, the prohibition therein before mentioned; that is to say, that throughout the united kingdom, during the continuance of such prohibition, no worts or wash for distillation shall be made from oats, barley, or any other corn or grain, or from malt, flour, or bran, or any mixture with the same: And whereas we do judge it for the benefit and advantage of our kingdom, that the said prohibition should be further continued; we are thereupon pleased by this our royal proclamation, by and with the advice of our Privy Council, to order and direct that the prohibition of the distillation of spirits from corn or grain in the united kingdom, be further continued from the 31st day of December next, until 40 days after the next meeting of Parliament; and that during that period, no person shall cause any worts or wash for distillation to be made from oats, barley, or any other corn or grain, or from malt, flour, or bran, or any mixture with the same, upon pain of incurring the forfeiture in the said act mentioned.

Given at our Court at the Queen's Palace, the 1st day of November 1809, in the fiftieth year of our reign.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

At the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 1st of November 1809,

PRESENT,

The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

This day the Right Honourable Henry John Viscount Palmerston was, by his Majesty's command, sworn of his Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took his place at the board accordingly.

His Majesty having been pleased to appoint the Right Honourable Richard Ryder to be one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, he was this day, by his Majesty's command, sworn one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State accordingly.

QUEEN'S PALACE, OCTOBER 25, 1809.

The following address having been transmitted to the Earl of Liverpool, his Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has been, by his Lordship, presented to the King; which address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Unto the KING'S Most Excellent Majesty, The humble Address of the Provincial Synod of Merse and Teviotdale.

May it please your Majesty,

We, the Members of the Provincial Synod of Merse and Teviotdale, being assembled on this anniversary of your accession to the throne of these realms, joyfully embrace the opportunity of mingling our cordial congratulations with those of our fellow subjects, upon your Majesty's entering on the fiftieth year of your reign.

The uniform and sacred regard shewn to the interests of religion, and to the protection and security of the established churches of the empire, the liberal toleration extended to dissenters of all denominations, the encouragement given to the diffusion of the gospel, the anxious desire evinced to preserve the rights and privileges, and to promote the prosperity and happiness, of all your subjects, justly endear your Majesty to a free, a loyal, and happy people; and must unite their hearts with ours in fervent prayer to Almighty God, for the prolongation of a life productive of such inestimable blessings, and distinguished by so many private virtues.

Signed in our name, in our presence, and by our appointment, at Kelso, this 25th day of October 1809 years, by

JOHN ELLIOT, Moderator.

[Transmitted by the Rev. John Elliot, Moderator.]

NOVEMBER 1, 1809.
