

Edinburgh Gazette.

PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY.

FROM TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 21, to FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 24, 1809.

At the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 15th of November 1809,

PRESENT,
The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Whereas the time limited by his Majesty's Order in Council, bearing date the 16th day of November 1808, for the payment of the bounties for the encouragement of seamen and landmen to enter into his Majesty's royal navy, and the rewards for discovering seamen who may conceal themselves, so that such seamen should be taken for his Majesty's service; and also the rewards to persons who should procure the voluntary service of able and ordinary seamen and landmen, fit for his Majesty's naval service, and should convey such seamen and landmen on board any of his Majesty's ships and vessels, or to any of his Majesty's sea-officers employed in raising men, will expire on the 31st day of December next; which bounties and rewards are as follows, that is to say,—To every able seaman not above the age of fifty, nor under the age of twenty years, who should enter himself to serve in his Majesty's royal navy, a bounty of five pounds; and to every ordinary seaman so entering himself, and not above the age of fifty, nor under the age of twenty years, a bounty of two pounds ten shillings; to every able-bodied landman not above the age of thirty-five, nor under the age of eighteen years, so entering himself, a bounty of thirty shillings; to every person or persons who shall discover any able or ordinary seaman or seamen who may have concealed him or themselves, so that such seaman or seamen shall be taken for his Majesty's service by any of his Majesty's officers employed to raise men, a reward of three pounds for every such able seaman, and fifty shillings for every such ordinary seaman, fit to serve on board his Majesty's ships; to any person or persons who shall procure the voluntary service of able or ordinary seamen or landmen fit for his Majesty's service, and shall convey them on board any of his Majesty's ships or vessels, or to any of his Majesty's sea-officers employed in raising men, a reward of three guineas for every such able seaman, two guineas for every such ordinary seaman, and one guinea for every such landman, together with an allowance, at the rate of one penny per mile, for each able seaman, ordinary seaman, and landman, for every mile such men may respectively travel to the nearest of his Majesty's ships of war, or nearest place of residence of any of his Majesty's sea-officers employed in raising men; provided such man shall be found fit for his Majesty's service, and there shall not be reason to suppose that he is an apprentice. And whereas it is expedient that the said several bounties, rewards, and travelling allowance should be continued to be paid for some time longer, his Majesty, with the advice of his Privy Council, doth, therefore, order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the payment of the said bounties, rewards, and travelling allowance be prolonged and extended from the said 31st day of December 1810, inclusive, and that the same be paid in the manner specified in his Majesty's several proclamations now in force for the encouragement of seamen and landmen to enter into his Majesty's royal navy, and for the discovering seamen who may conceal themselves, and for giving rewards for procuring the voluntary service of seamen and landmen; whereof all persons concerned are to take notice and govern themselves accordingly.
