At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 19th day of November 1953

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS the Secretary of State for Scotland has, in pursuance of the powers competent to him under the Burial Grounds (Scotland) Act, 1855 (18 and 19 Vict., c. 68), made a Representation that he has received a copy of an Interlocutor, dated 2nd July 1953, pronounced by the Sheriff of Lanark, at Glasgow, finding that the Burial Ground known as the Old Portion of Leadhills Graveyard in the Parish of Crawford and the County of Lanark, is overcrowded and is in a condition which is offensive and contrary to decency:

And whereas in the said Representation it is recommended that, in terms of Section 5 of the said Act, burials be forthwith discontinued in the said Burial Ground subject to the exception hereinafter mentioned:

And whereas by an Order in Council of the 12th day of September 1953, notice of such Representation was given and it was ordered that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Privy Council on the 29th day of October 1953, and that the said Order or Notice thereof should be published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and that copies of the said Order or Notice should be fixed on the doors of the churches of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the Parish of Crawford one month before the said 29th day of October 1953:

And whereas Notice of the said Representation and of the time when it pleased Her Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council has been duly published in the Edinburgh Gazette and fixed in manner required by the said Order in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. That in terms of Section 5 of the Burial Grounds (Scotland) Act, 1855, burials be forthwith discontinued in the Burial Ground at Leadhills in the Parish of Crawford and County of Lanark, known as the Old Portion of Leadhills Graveyard, except for the burial of cremated human remains.

2. This Order may be cited as the Burial Grounds (Scotland) (Leadhills Graveyard) Order, 1953.

W. G. AGNEW.

Civil Service Commission,

8th December 1953.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations are published with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of H.M. Treasury, viz.:—

REGULATIONS FOR THE RECRUITMENT OF H.M. INSPECTORS OF FACTORIES (CLASS II), MINISTRY OF LABOUR AND NATIONAL SERVICE

1. Age.

Candidates must be at least 21 and under 30 years of age on 1st November 1953. But (a) a candidate who has served or is serving on a regular (including a regular short-service) engagement in H.M. Forces may deduct from his actual age the period of such service rendered before 1st November 1953; (b) older candidates having exceptionally suitable qualifications may be considered if they were under 34 years of age on 1st November 1953.

2. Sex and Marriage.

(i) Both men and women may compete under these Regulations.

(ii) Married women who have formerly been established civil servants and have drawn marriage gratuity (other than those who resigned compulsorily on marriage and whose resignation took effect before 15th October 1946, or who are widows or divorced, or who are separated from their husbands, or whose husbands suffer without hope of recovery from total physical or mental incapacity) will not be eligible unless they undertake to refund on appointment the marriage gratuity paid. Provided that this undertaking will not be required if the break between the first period of service (including any period of unestablished service immediately following the period in respect of which the gratuity was paid) and the date of re-establishment is more than seven years.

3. Nationality.

Candidates must be British subjects. They must also satisfy one of the following conditions:—

(a) If natural-born British subjects, they must either

(i) have at least one parent who is or was at death a British subject; or

(ii) have resided in Her Majesty's Dominions and/or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of their appointment.

(b) If naturalised British subjects, they must have resided in Her Majesty's Dominions and/or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of their appointment.

(c) If not qualified under (a) or (b) of this paragraph they must satisfy the Commissioners that they are so closely connected with Her Majesty's Dominions either by ancestry, upbringing or residence, or by reason of national service, that an exception may properly be made in their favour.

4. Qualifications.

Candidates must be university graduates in Engineering, Chemistry, Physics, or Metallurgy, or have comparable technical qualifications (e.g., A.M.I.Mech.E.). The Commissioners may dispense with this requirement in the case of a candidate who appears to them to be exceptionally well fitted by reason of considerable works or other special practical experience.

5. Health and Character.

Successful candidates must satisfy the Commissioners as to their health and character.

6. Competition.

The candidates who appear from their applications to have the best qualifications and experience will be invited to interview in London before a Selection Board, which will recommend to the Civil Service Commissioners those considered most suitable for appointment. The Board will take into consideration the candidates' record of education and experience, recommendations from referees named by the candidates, and the personal qualities of the candidates as shown at the interview. The decision of the Commissioners will be final.

7. Candidates Trained as Teachers.

Persons upon whose training for the occupation of teacher public money has been spent cannot be appointed until the consent of the appropriate central education authority (e.g., the Minister of Education, the Scottish Education Department, the Minister of Education for Northern Ireland) has been notified to the Commissioners.

8. Canvassing.

Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support for their applications through Members of Parliament or other influential persons, except as referees to be named

POST OFFICE OVERSEAS TELEGRAMS

Her Majesty's Postmaster-General hereby gives notice that telegrams may now be sent, at the Ordinary rate of charge, from the United Kingdom, The Isle of Man, and the Channel Islands to Pitcairn Island. The route available is "Imperial," and the rate of charge is 1s. 4d per word.

by them in their application forms, will disqualify them for appointment.

9. Fee.

Every successful candidate will be required to pay a fee of £3 before the issue of a certificate of qualification for appointment.

5. An area of approximately 192 square miles in the County of Lincoln.

A description of the boundaries appeared in the London Gazette of 19th November 1935.

6. An area of 185 square miles in the County of York (East and North Riding).

Northern Boundary.

From the cross-roads at Hopgrove Farm about 2 miles N.E. of York the boundary follows A 64 past Stockton to the next cross-roads where it turns south east to Moor End and Gate Helmsley. Thence it follows A 166 through Stamford Bridge and on to the junction with Pefham Lane.

Eastern Boundary.

This runs due south along the road to Waterman Hole, thence via York Lane, Pocklington Lane, and Cobdale Lane to Warter to Bucksey Bridge. From here it follows Bailey Lane and Londesborough Hill to Market Weighton, whence it continues along A 163 to Canal Head. It then follows the Holme Canal and Market Weighton Canal to the swing bridge near Wholesale Grange.

Southern Boundary.

This follows the Main Drain from Wholesale Cottages as far as Drain Bridge where it meets A 614, which it follows past Welham Bridge to Ivy House. Here it turns west and north along A 163 to Spaldington and thence via Willitof and Bubwith to North Duffield.

Western Boundary.

From the cross-roads beyond North Duffield the boundary runs along the road through Skipworth and Eskrick to the junction with the railway at Moor Lane Bridge. Then it follows the railway to Naburn Station where it continues along B 1222 to the junction with A 19. From here it follows the road through Heslington and Osbaldwick to the cross-roads at Hopgrove Farm.

7. An area of 184 square miles in the County of York (East Rid'ng).

Northern Boundary.

From the Pasture Dale end of Pocklington Lane the boundary follows the road through Huggate, Tibthorpe, and Kirkburn to the junction of A 163 and A 164.

Eastern Boundary.

This follows A 164 through Watton, Scarborough, Leconfield, Beverley, and Willerby to Anlaby, whence it follows B 1232 to the Humber estuary at Hesse Haven.

Southern Boundary.

This follows the north bank of the Humber from Hesse Haven to Weighton Lock.

Western Boundary.

From Weighton Lock this runs along the Market Weighton Canal past Newport to the junction at Canal Head, with A 163 which it follows through Market Weighton to the cross-roads between Towthorpe Farm and Towthorpe corner. Thence it follows the road past Londesborough and Warter to Pocklington Lane.

8. An area of 147 square miles in the Counties of Midlothian and Peebles.

Northern Boundary.

From the junction at Hillend of A 702, A 703, and a third road the boundary runs along the latter through Straiton and Gilmerton to Dalkeith.

Eastern Boundary.

From Dalkeith Lodge the boundary runs along the west bank of the river South Esk as far as Dalhousie Bridge, where it turns along B 704 to the junction with the railway which it follows through Gorebridge and Fushiebridge stations to the signal box beyond the latter. Thence it turns west along the road through Fushiebridge, North Middleton, past Heriot station to the cross-roads at Hangingshaw. From here it runs in a south-westerly direction over the railway and on past Sandknowe, Heriot village, Racshaw Lodge over Dewar Burn, alongside Glentress Water and Leithen Water to the junction with A 72 in Innerleithen.

Southern Boundary.

This follows A 72 from Innerleithen to Peebles.

Western Boundary.

From Eastgate, Innerleithen the boundary follows A 702 through Eddleston to Harcus crossing. Here it turns west over the railway and follows the road through Shiplaw, Noblehouse, and Cowdenburn to Carllops. Thence it runs through Silverburn and Easter Howgate to Hillend.

9. An area of 106 square miles in Mid and East Lothian.

Northern Boundary.

From a point on the coast approximately $\frac{1}{4}$ mile E. of Fisharrow Harbour the boundary follows the high water mark of ordinary tides past Musselburgh, Prestonpans, Cockenzie, and Aberlady to the north end of the footbridge over Peffer Burn. Thence it turns due east along the high water mark of ordinary tides as far as North Plantation, Luffness. It continues along Peffer Burn to the junction at the Saw Mills with Avenue Road.

Eastern Boundary.

This follows the road over the Aberlady and Gullane Branch railway to the junction with the former London and North Eastern railway west of Drem. Thence it continues due south along the road, through Haddington till it meets another road at a point about a mile and a quarter south of Haddington. Here it turns in a south-westerly direction along the side of Lennoxlove House and follows the road through Bolton and Humbie to Soutra Mains. At the road junction a few yards beyond Soutra Mains it turns south and continues along the road to Crookston Woods.

Western Boundary.

The boundary follows the road in a north-westerly direction past Heriot station and on to the cross-roads at Fushiebridge. There it turns due east along the railway which it follows to a bridge over the railway. Here it turns north and follows the road through Crichton, Pathhead, Dalkeith, and Millerhill back to Fisherrow.
