LANDS, AND A FREEHOLD QUALIFICATION IN PERTHSHIRE, FOR SALE,

Upon the application of Miss ANNE PRESTON CAMPBELL, of Fernton and Lochlane, in virtue of an Act of Parliament obtained by her for the purpose,

THE following LANDS, part of the entailed ESTATE of LOCHLANE, are to be exposed to Sale, by authority of the Lords of Council and Session, within the Parliament or new Session House of Edinburgh, burgh, on Wednesday the 7th of March next, between the hours of six and seven afternoon, viz. the farms of West Carse, East Carse, Thornhill, Wood-head or Caldhamie, Boat-wood, and part of Trowan.

These Lands consist of about 280 Scots acres, of rich arable Carse Land, yielding the finest crops. They lie in the united parishes of Strowan and Monzievaird, are about four miles distant from Crieff, and two from Comrie. They are bounded on one side by the River Earn, in which there is excellent trout and salmon fishing; on another by that new line of road leading from Lochearn to Crieff, lately completed at a great expence; and the turnpike road to the Bridge of Strowan passes through them. They are only seven or eight miles from inexhaustible supplies of lime-stone on the side of Lochearn, to which there will be water carriage when the projected Lochearn Canal is executed, as it will pass through these lands; and even at present lime is brought hither at an easy expence by the new road already mentioned. The whole roads in the neighbourhood are good, and a new road from Dumblane to Loch Tay by Comrie is about to be executed, which will be of considerable benefit to these lands. There are substantial farmsteadings on the several farms. The whole will be out of lease in 1822, excepting about seven acres which are under lease till 1825. Some of the leases fall in 1819 and 1821. The lands of Boat-wood are now under lease. They consist of twelve Scots acres, and are covered with copse wood, affording one of the finest situations for building on, the River Earn winding beautifully round them, and the view comprehending, beside the fine natural scenery of that country, the extensive policy of Ochertyre.

The lands themselves afford plenty of game, and they are in a sporting country. They hold of the Crown, and afford a Freehold Qualification in the county. The teinds are valued as far back as 1633, and are exhausted. The church and school-house were lately and substantially built.

The present rental is only 470*l.* 12*s.* 3*d.* but a great rise may be expected at next set.

These lands will be set up in the following lots, viz.

Lot First, to consist of those lands lying on the east side of the road leading from the Bridge of Strowan to the new church of Monzievaird, part of the farm of Thornhill, the pendicle of Wood-head and two pendicles of Thornhill; the gross rental of which is 125*l.* 7*s.* 7*d.*

Lot Second, to consist of these lands on the west side of the said road, being the remaining part of the farm of Thornhill, and the whole of the farms of East and West Corses; the gross rental of which is 305*l.* 14*s.* 4*d.*

Lot Third, to consist of that piece of land called the Boat-wood, and seven acres of the farm of Trowan, on the south east thereof; the gross rental of which is 39*l.* 10*s.* 3*d.*

Lot Fourth, to consist of the Freehold Qualification, valued in the cess-books at 432*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.* Scots.

Mr. Robert Adie, writer in Crieff, will give directions for shewing the lands, and the boundaries of their several lots. Application for farther particulars may be made to Messrs Campbell and Pollok, writers to the signet, Edinburgh, who have the title-deeds, leases, and plans of the estate.
