*Scottish Home Department,
St. Andrew's House, Edinburgh, 1.
30th May, 1957.*

THE Address of the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland convened in General Assembly, which His Grace the Lord High Commissioner forwarded to the Secretary of State for Scotland to be laid before The Queen, has been presented accordingly to Her Majesty, who was pleased to receive it very graciously.

Treasury Chambers, S.W.1.

THE Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury hereby give notice that They have made an Order under Sections 1 and 19 of the Import Duties Act 1932, Section 10 of the Finance Act, 1934, Section 7 of the Finance Act, 1936 and Section 1 of the Import Duties (Emergency Provisions) Act, 1939 viz.:—

The Import Duties (Exemptions) (No. 6) Order, 1957, which continues until 18th March, 1958, the existing exemption of certain ferro-manganese and iron and steel goods from duty under the Import Duties Act, 1932. The exemption for certain iron and steel hoop and strip, light bars and light sections is not continued, and these goods accordingly again become liable as from 19th September, 1957, to various rates of duty under that Act.

The Order comes into operation on the 19th September, 1957, and has been published as Statutory Instruments 1957, No. 925.

Copies may be purchased (price 3d. net) direct from Her Majesty's Stationery Office, at the following addresses: York House, Kingsway, London, W.C.2; 423 Oxford Street, London, W.1; 13a Castle Street, Edinburgh, 2; 109 St. Mary Street, Cardiff; 39 King Street, Manchester, 2; Tower Lane, Bristol, 1; 2 Edmund Street, Birmingham, 3; 80 Chichester Street, Belfast; or through any bookseller.

Civil Service Commission.

24th May, 1957.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations are published with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of H.M. Treasury, viz.:—

REGULATIONS FOR RECRUITMENT TO THE INFORMATION OFFICER CLASS.

1. Both men and women may compete.

2. Age.

No age limits have been specified for this competition; but in appointing persons in a permanent capacity Departments expect regular and effective service for a reasonable period, and the Commissioners will take this requirement into account.

3. Nationality.

(1) To be eligible for appointment to a situation (other than a situation in the Admiralty, War Office, Air Ministry or Ministry of Supply) a candidate must be a British subject, a British protected person or a citizen of the Irish Republic and in addition satisfy one of the following conditions:—

(a) if he was a British subject, a British protected person or a citizen of the Irish Republic at birth—

(i) at least one of his parents must be, or have been at death, a British subject, a British protected person or a citizen of the Irish Republic, or

(ii) the candidate must have resided in a country or territory within the Commonwealth or in the Irish Republic or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown or partly have so resided and partly been so employed for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of his appointment:

(b) if he was not a British subject, a British protected person or a citizen of the Irish Republic at birth, he must have resided in a country or territory within the Commonwealth or in the Irish Republic or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown or partly have so resided and partly been so employed for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of his appointment.

(c) if not qualified under sub-paragraph (a) or sub-paragraph (b) of this paragraph, he must satisfy the Commissioners that he is so closely connected with a country or territory within the Commonwealth either by ancestry, upbringing or residence, or by reason of national service, that an exception may properly be made in his favour.

(2) A candidate will not be eligible for appointment to a situation in the Admiralty, War Office, Air Ministry or Ministry of Supply unless (i) at all times since his birth he has been either a British subject or a citizen of the Irish Republic and (ii) he was born in a country or territory which is (or then was) within the Commonwealth or in the Irish Republic and (iii) each of his parents was born in a country or territory which is (or then was) within the Commonwealth or in the Irish Republic and is or was at death a British subject or a citizen of the Irish Republic and has or had been one or the other at all times from birth:

Provided that, notwithstanding that the aforesaid conditions are not satisfied, he may, if the conditions specified in paragraph (1) of this Regulation are satisfied, be admitted to appointment by special permission of the First Lord of the Admiralty, the Secretary of State for War, the Secretary of State for Air, or the Minister of Supply, as the case may be.

4. Qualifications.

All the posts call for a good standard of general education, a lively interest in current affairs and a wide general knowledge. For posts in the basic and higher grades a good publicity sense and organising ability are essential. Some knowledge of Government organisation will be an advantage. In addition candidates are required to have experience, varying in degree according to the grading of the post, in one or more of the following fields:

(a) General Publicity Work.

Candidates must have had experience in organising publicity campaigns and services, and in the distribution, and (for some posts) the preparation of publicity material.

(b) Journalism and Book and Picture Editing.

The posts require a wide experience in journalism, an appreciation of news values, the capacity to assist in the planning and production of Press material of all kinds for use by the Press at home and overseas, and an understanding of the requirements of the appropriate audience. For some posts experience is also desirable in the publication of periodicals or books (on either the publicity or editorial side), and for others in the selection and treatment of photographs for use in the press.

(c) Exhibitions.

One post calls for experience in exhibition draughtsmanship with practical knowledge of the building trade and materials and of costing. The other requires experience in arranging for the setting up, management and winding-up of exhibitions.

(d) Documentary Films.

The posts require knowledge of, and interest in, the production of documentary films and their use as a medium of publicity.

(e) Social Research.

The Principal Information Officer post demands a thorough knowledge of all the technical phases of sample enquiry and evidence of original work in any field of social research. The two Information Officer posts require first hand experience in the analysis of information collected by interviewers. One post requires experience of the coding and classification of data and in the devising of codes; and the other experience of the use of machine tabulating processes and in the design of tabulation schemes. Each Assistant Information Officer requires experience in one of the following fields:—(a) design and planning of social surveys (b) training and supervision of interviewers (c) design of samples for surveys (d) primary analysis of information collected by interview or computation of statistical data derived from interviews.

(f) Preparation of Reference Material.

Candidates should have had an education of University standard and experience in research; they should have knowledge of source material and ability to present facts clearly and concisely. Each post requires a sound background in one or other of the following fields:—economic affairs of the United Kingdom and the Commonwealth; Commonwealth and Colonial affairs; foreign affairs.

(g) Illustration Research.

The post calls for experience in picture selection over a wide range of subjects, and demands a good visual sense, knowledge of sources of photographs and ability to write good, clear and accurate English.

(h) Advertising.

Candidates should have had experience in the planning and management of press and poster advertising campaigns.

(i) Art and Design.

One Senior Information Officer and one Information Officer post require experience in exhibition design.

Two Senior Information Officer posts require art editorial experience on books, periodicals, maps or posters, covering visualising, design and selection of illustrations, together with a sound working knowledge of typography and printing processes. The Assistant Information Officer post requires the ability to specify type and to lay out simple productions. The remaining five Information Officer posts are for:—(a) a General Artist, capable of producing good finished work in line, wash, and colour; (b, c) two Retouching Artists with experience in retouching photographic prints for all reproduction processes; (d) a Lettering Artist; (e) a Typographer for printed publicity materials of all kinds.

(j) Tours.

The officer appointed will be required to assist in organising tours for officially sponsored visitors from overseas and to act as escorting officer.

Special knowledge or experience is desirable in certain Departments as follows:—

Admiralty.

Air Ministry.

War Office.

It will be an advantage for candidates to have some knowledge of the procedures and conditions in the Service concerned.

Colonial Office.

Commonwealth Relations Office.

Knowledge of, and interest in, Colonial or Commonwealth affairs, as the case may be, are desirable.

Department of Scientific and Industrial Research.

Candidates should be familiar with Government scientific organisation in this country and have a general knowledge of present day science and its application to industry.

Scottish Home Department

Candidates should preferably have had experience with a Scottish newspaper and must have a knowledge of Scottish social and industrial affairs.

Ministry of Supply.

The candidate appointed will act as Editor and Advertising Manager of the Royal Aircraft Establishment News.

Board of Trade.

Candidates for the Senior Post should have a degree in economics and should have had some experience in industry or commerce.

Treasury.

Candidates must have a knowledge of economic and industrial affairs.

Ministry of Works.

A general interest in architecture and the modern building industry is desirable. For one post candidates must be able to show evidence of a knowledge of British history and archaeology.

5. Selection.

The candidates who appear from their applications to have the best qualifications and experience will be invited to interview before a Selection Board, which will recommend to the Civil Service Commissioners those considered most suitable for appointment. The Commissioners' decision will be final.

6. Health and Character.

Successful candidates must satisfy the Commissioners as to their health and character.

7. Assignment.

Where a successful candidate is suitable for appointment to more than one Department the Commissioners will decide to which Department he is to be assigned. Assignment will be made in accordance with the needs of the public service, but the candidate's preference as stated on his application form will be taken into account as far as possible.

8. Candidates Trained as Teachers.

Persons who have been trained as teachers, elsewhere than in England and Wales and upon whose training public money has been spent, cannot be appointed until the consent of the appropriate education authority (e.g., the Scottish Education Department, the Ministry of Education for Northern Ireland) has been notified to the Commissioners.

9. Refund of Marriage Gratuity.

Married women who have formerly been established civil servants and have drawn marriage gratuity (other than those who resigned compulsorily on marriage and whose resignation took effect before 15th October, 1946, or who are widows or divorced, or who are separated from their husbands, or whose husbands suffer without hope of recovery from total physical or mental incapacity) will not be eligible unless they undertake to refund on appointment the marriage gratuity paid. Provided that this undertaking will not be required if the break between the first period of service (including any period of unestablished service immediately following the period in respect of which the gratuity was paid) and the date of re-establishment is more than seven years.

10. Canvassing.

Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support for their application through Members of Parliament or other influential persons, except as referees to be named by them in their application forms will disqualify them for appointment.

11. Fee.

Every successful candidate will be required to pay a fee of £2 before the issue of a certificate of qualification for appointment.

Civil Service Commission, 28th May, 1957.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations are published with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of H.M. Treasury, viz.:—

REGULATIONS FOR THE RECRUITMENT OF DISTRICT (FOREST) OFFICERS UNDER THE FORESTRY COMMISSION.1. Men only may compete.*2. Age.

Candidates must have been born on or before 1st July, 1936. There is no upper age limit, but in appointing persons in a permanent capacity Departments expect regular and effective service for a reasonable period, and the Commissioners will take this requirement into account.

3. Nationality.

To be eligible for appointment a candidate must be a British subject, a British protected person or a citizen of the Irish Republic and in addition satisfy one of the following conditions:—

- (a) if he was a British subject, a British protected person or a citizen of the Irish Republic at birth—
- (i) at least one of his parents must be, or have been at death, a British subject, a British protected person or a citizen of the Irish Republic, or

- (ii) the candidate must have resided in a country or territory within the Commonwealth or in the Irish Republic or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown or partly have so resided and partly been so employed for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of his appointment:

(b) if he was not a British subject, a British protected person or a citizen of the Irish Republic at birth, he must have resided in a country or territory within the Commonwealth or in the Irish Republic or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown or partly have so resided and partly been so employed for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of his appointment:

(c) if not qualified under sub-paragraph (a) or sub-paragraph (b) of this paragraph, he must satisfy the Commissioners that he is so closely connected with a country or territory within the Commonwealth either by ancestry, upbringing or residence, or by reason of national service, that an exception may properly be made in his favour.

4. Qualifications.

Candidates must have (a) a University degree in Forestry, or (b) a University Diploma in Forestry, or (c) a post-graduate degree in a Forestry subject.

Applications will be considered from candidates who are taking in the summer of 1957 final examinations necessary to qualify under (a), (b), or (c) above.

Candidates must hold a driving licence or obtain one within a reasonable time.

5. Health and Character.

Successful candidates must satisfy the Commissioners as to their health and character.

6. Competition.

The candidates who appear from their applications to have the best qualifications and experience will be invited to interview in London before a Selection Board, which will recommend to the Civil Service Commissioners those considered most suitable for appointment. The Board will take into consideration the candidates' record of education and experience, recommendations from referees named by the candidates, and the personal qualities of the candidates as shown at the interview. The decision of the Commissioners will be final.

7. Candidates Trained as Teachers.

Persons who have been trained as teachers, elsewhere than in England and Wales, and upon whose training public money has been spent, cannot be appointed until the consent of the appropriate central education authority (e.g., the Scottish Education Department, the Ministry of Education for Northern Ireland) has been notified to the Commissioners.

8. Canvassing.

Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support for their applications through Members of Parliament or other influential persons except as referees to be named by them in their application forms, will disqualify them for appointment.

9. Fee.

Every successful candidate will be required to pay a fee of £4 before the issue of a certificate of qualification for appointment.

Civil Service Commission, 28th May, 1957.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations are published with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of H.M. Treasury, viz.:—

REGULATIONS FOR THE RECRUITMENT OF DISTRICT (ESTATE) OFFICERS UNDER THE FORESTRY COMMISSION.1. Men only may compete.*2. Age.

Candidates must have been born on or before 1st July, 1936. There is no upper age limit, but in appointing persons in a permanent capacity Departments expect regular and effective service for a reasonable period, and the Commissioners will take this requirement into account.

3. Nationality.

To be eligible for appointment a candidate must be a British subject, a British protected person or a citizen of the Irish Republic and in addition satisfy one of the following conditions:

(a) if he was a British subject, a British protected person or a citizen of the Irish Republic at birth—

(i) at least one of his parents must be, or have been at death, a British subject, a British protected person or a citizen of the Irish Republic, or

4. Qualifications.

Candidates must either

(a) have achieved Corporate Membership of the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors or of the Chartered Auctioneers' and Estate Agents' Institute or of the Land Agents' Society, or

(b) have passed a degree or other examinations necessary for obtaining Corporate Membership of one of the above-mentioned Institutions, or

(c) have a university degree in Estate Management.

Candidates admitted under heads (b) or (c) will not have their appointments confirmed unless they obtain Corporate Membership of one of the Institutions listed in (a) above within their probation period. Exceptionally, where a candidate is prevented by circumstances outside his control from obtaining Corporate Membership within this period, the appointment may be confirmed, with the concurrence of the Treasury and the Civil Service Commissioners provided that there is satisfactory evidence that the qualification is likely to be obtained within a reasonable time.

Applications will be considered from candidates who are taking in the summer of 1957 final examinations necessary to qualify under (b) or (c) above.

Candidates must hold a driving licence or obtain one within a reasonable time.

5. Health and Character.

Successful candidates must satisfy the Commissioners as to their health and character.

6. Competition.

The candidates who appear from their applications to have the best qualifications and experience will be invited to interview in London before a Selection Board, which will recommend to the Civil Service Commissioners those considered most suitable for appointment.
